

BAD RECORD IS NOT CONCEALED

Judge Fox and Prosecutor Jessup Tell of Barton Bell's Career.

WILL LIKELY GET LIMIT

THE OFFICIALS AT JEFFERSONVILLE REFORMATORY TOLD THAT YOUNG CRIMINAL DESERVES THE WORST.

If the length of the term that Barton J. Bell must serve in the Indiana Reformatory at Jeffersonville depends upon the "recommendation" that was given him by Judge Henry C. Fox and Prosecutor Wilfred Jessup, it will be a long time before he is again at liberty.

"This prisoner is generally regarded as one of, if not the worst criminals this county has had to contend with for years. He has been for years regarded as a thief and hold-up man, and is known to have done like jobs in Delaware County, Indiana, as well. His every associate is likewise a thief and while in the Wayne county jail awaiting trial was connected with the escape of John Locke, and himself attempted to escape. No chances can be taken with him while in the prison. One year since was acquitted on charge of robbery, though he afterwards admitted that he did do as charged."

The crime to which reference is made in the above was the holdup of a farm hand named Personett, and which at the time was charged against Bell and Tom Knox, Jr., but for which both escaped punishment.

DEMOCRATS ARE IN DARK

UNDECIDED AS TO ACTION

Admit There is no Chance This Year But Hope to Get Together for a Great Pull in the Next National Campaign.

Indianapolis, July 7.—The Indianapolis political correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer sends the following to his paper:

"Chairman O'Brien has promised some of the Democratic leaders that he will call together the Democratic State committee and the nominees of the State convention within the next few days to discuss and outline a plan of campaign. It was the understanding that a meeting would be held within a fortnight after the State convention and the delay cannot be understood."

"As matters stand now nearly all the leaders seem to be in the dark as to what is to be done. They say that the party has been drifting aimlessly long enough and that the time for getting together has about arrived if anything is to be accomplished this year."

"The lack of ginger in getting the campaign under way is causing many of the leaders to fret and to say pointed things, and they are getting ready to insist on a change in the program if something is not done shortly. Those who do not believe the party has a chance to elect its ticket this year are desirous of making a fine organization, which will cut the Republican majority down to such proportions that the Democracy will go into the fight in 1908 with a hope of victory."

CONDITION IS PATHETIC

CASE OF THOMAS DAVIS

Webster Township Citizen Who is Making Strenuous Endeavor to Regain Possession of Little Estate—Has no Recourse Under the Law.

Deprived of wife, son and estate, Thomas Davis, of Webster, who is also unfortunate in being deformed, has of late been a frequent visitor to the court house at Richmond, where he has sought help of Judge Fox and other county officials in an effort to get again possession of the small estate that was left him by his mother.

Davis was married some years ago and has one son. His wife secured a divorce and was given possession of the child. Soon after the marriage Davis turned his property over to his wife and is now left without anything to live for. To make the matter worse for him his former wife has remarried and has deeded the property that was formerly his to her new husband so that Davis' son has no claim upon it and this is a point that especially distresses him.

The county officials have not been able to give Davis any help and it appears that he has no recourse. He has been making a fruitless search through the court house records on various occasions but of course this proceeding could not possibly be of any assistance to him.

PLAN CITY OF A THOUSAND

Chautauqua Population This Year to Be Larger Than Ever Before From Indications.

Camping at Glen Miller Park during the Chautauqua season will be more popular than ever before this year, if advance indications count for anything. With more room given for the Chautauqua campers there will be many more tents added and it is not unlikely that the "white city" will this year number 1,000 persons.

MILK BILL IS PREPARED

STATE BOARD SATISFIED

Will Make Strong Effort to Have the Next Session of the Legislature Enact a Law Containing the Features Outlined.

The State Health board of which Dr. T. Henry Davis of Richmond is president has prepared a bill regulating the sale of milk in the State and the board will make an effort to have the measure enacted at the next session of the Legislature. A copy of the bill has been submitted to Governor Hanly for his approval. Following is the title of the measure:

"An act regulating the production and sale of milk, establishing standards of purity and repealing all acts in conflict therewith."

The act provides for the appointment of milk inspectors by the boards of health of cities and towns. Those inspectors must keep a record of the names and places of business of all persons engaged in the sale of milk. Inspectors are to have the right to enter milk establishments at any time and collect samples of the product on sale. At the time the sample is taken the inspector must seal and deliver to the owner a part of the sample. Inspectors shall cause the samples carried away to be analyzed.

WILL OF DOWIE MADE

IS READ IN OPEN COURT

Bequests to his Wife all That the Laws of the State of Illinois Will Allow Her—Other Provisions of the Interesting Document.

[Publishers' Press]

Chicago, July 7.—The will of John Alexander Dowie, as read in court, bequeaths Zion city properties to Daniel Bryant, an overseer in Africa, who also is named to succeed Dowie as general overseer of Zion. Bryant is on his way to the United States. Under the will Dowie gives to his wife "all that she is entitled to under the laws of Illinois."

Bryant formerly was pastor of a little church at King's Creek, four miles north of Urbana, O. He joined Dowie about six years ago.

His brother, David Bryant, is well known in educational circles of that section of Ohio. Their father was a wealthy farmer.

Dowie came into court to introduce in evidence his last will which has considerable bearing on the ownership of the Zion City properties. While on the stand he was asked if in assuming the role of Elijah the Restorer he changed his personality. He replied: "I am still the same John Alexander Dowie who was born in 1847, in Edinburgh, but some changes must have happened in order that I might do the work mapped out for me. I do not say I am the same man. I am more and different."

Hotel Dynamited. Lincoln, Ill., July 7.—An attempt was made to wreck the Commercial hotel with dynamite but without success. A dynamite bomb was thrown into an area, exploding with terrific force, damaging a wall of the hotel and breaking windows generally in the vicinity, but the guests were not injured. The police are investigating.
