as Portia in "The Merchant of Venice," Desdemona in "Othello" and especially as Rosalind in "As You Like It" has she demonstrated her absolute right to head one of Mr. Shipman's New York productions.

The wonderful flood scene in "Just Struck Town" which comes to the Phillips next Monday has been greatly improved this season and like the destruction of the mill, is more picturesque and exciting than ever.

The visit of "The Lily and The Prince" to this city tomorrow evening at the Gennett will, no doubt, prove to be the leading theatrical event of the season.

The action of the play is in the with an attempt to overthrow the sixteenth century in Italy, and deals Papal states. An atmosphere of romance and intrigue is woven through the drama, while the eye is rested and satisfied with the grandeur, elegance and rich coloring of mediaeval costumes and interior hangings.

In the play Miss Blanche Hall will be seen as Angela di Savelli, a role which gives Miss Hall ample opportunity to display the powerful emotional talents which so distinguished her work as Zaza, in which she succeeded Mrs. Leslie Carter.

Who was your grandfather of 1000 years ago? We know how to trace our foreparents back, perhaps far beyond the origin of your family name.

Stetson's Colossal Dramatic and Scenic Production. Of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" comes to the Gennett on next Friday matinee and night.

None of Shakespeare's plays have attained the popularity that has been attained by "As You Like It," its inimitable comedy, its repleteness of humor, and many bright sayings has made it the most quoted of all the works of the immortal Bard.

Manager O. G. Murray of the Gennett theatre now announces that he has succeeded in booking Ernest Shipman's big production of Shakespeare's "As You Like It," who will give one performance here on next Monday and a great treat is promised.

THE CAMEL'S HEAD.

"Where the camel's head goes his body follows," says an Oriental proverb. It's the same way with disease. A small opening will give it an entrance and when disease once has a place in the body a large number of ills may follow it.

The opening for disease is often found in a "weak" stomach. When the stomach is "weak" the body also becomes weakened by lack of nutrition, and disease attacks the heart, liver, lungs, kidneys and other organs.

Golden Medical Discovery makes the weak stomach strong. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and so enables the body to resist or throw off other diseases.

Men and women who are sick are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free, and so obtain without charge the opinion of a specialist on their ailments. All correspondence strictly confidential. Address Dr. R. W. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"For the past two years I have been a very sick woman," writes Mrs. Chesley, of 108 Woodland Ave., Cleveland, Ohio. "I tried medicines from doctors and to no avail. At last I decided to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When I started I was all run-down and had a very unpleasant taste in my mouth. Was choked up, and at times it was very hard for me to breathe. I had severe headaches and cutting pains in my knee joint. Was so weak I could not attend to my work nor walk up or down stairs without the assistance of my brother or some friend. I am now taking the fourth bottle, and am happy to say I feel like myself again. I can go up and down stairs and perform my duties as well as any one else. Everything seems to be brighter, and I can assure you that life is worth living."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing just as good for dyspepsia or debility. Biliousness is cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.
