GRAND CONCERT GREAT SUCCESS

THE EARLHAM ORATORIO SOCIETY'S SPLENDID MUSICAL EVENT.

VERY GREATLY APPRECIATED

By An Audience Composed of Lovers of the Beautiful in Music and Art.

First M. E. church was the scene last evening of a brilliant gathering of society people, the majority of whom were lovers of the "art divine," to be entertained by the Oratorio society of Earlham college in the Haydn-Lehmann concert.

It was 8:15 before the soloists and chorists took positions before the great organ, the chorus presenting a classic appearance, being attired in caps and gowns. Prof. C. K. Chase, of Earlham, directed the chorus, and Mrs. Clayton B. Hunt presided at the organ.

Prof. Chase's direction was faultless, having the chorus under complete control of his baton, which kept time with a precision that would have done credit to one of the masters.

Mrs. Hunt needs no praise here, for her ability as an organist is so well known that words are inadequate to add anything to her already well-earned fame.

The program was in two parts, the first being Haydn's Third Mass (The Imperial). When the opening note of this master piece of music was intoned there was breathless silence. The voices in the chorus were so well trained that it sounded as if one great voice was singing the sacred melody, the harmony being almost perfect. The following parts of the mass were rendered by soloists and chorus: "Kyrie," "Gloria," "Qui Tollis," "Credo," "Et Incarnatus," "Et Resurrexit," "Sanctus," "Benedictus," "Agnus Dei" and "Dona," the first part of the program ending with Hallelujah. Amen.

The audience showed its appreciation of the rendition of the various parts by frequent outbursts of applause.

The soloists were not given as good an opportunity to show their well-trained voices in the first part of the program as they were in the second part, in the rendition of "In a Persian Garden," a song cycle for four solo voices. The words were selected from the Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam and the music by Liza Lehmann.

Miss Elizabeth Blamere rendered the soprano parts in charming style. She has a splendid voice, clear and sweet.

Miss Charlotte Callahan, as contralto, has a sweet voice of great volume. She is a splendid singer.

The tenor parts were taken by John Miller. His voice is clear and strong and sweet, and his presence commanding.

Mr. Edmund Jahn, the bass soloist, is one of the best ever heard in this city. His powerful, yet sweet, soft voice, filled the vast auditorium. All were delighted and expressed their pleasure with long and loud applause.

Mr. Clarence Adler was the piano accompanist in the rendition of the Persian Garden.

Prof. Chase is certainly to be commended for the great musical treat he gave to the people last night.

Following are the members of the chorus:

Beeson, Miss Constance Fosler, Miss Mary Friedley, Miss Marcia Furnas, Miss Iola Jessup, Miss Nellie Jones, Miss Marie Kaufman, Miss De Ella Leonard, Miss Jennie Lindley, Miss Lillian Millikan, Miss Hazel Murphy, Miss Nettie Owen, Miss Leila Pennock, Miss Susannah Stanley, Miss Irena Trueblood, Miss Nellie Williams, Miss Zella Warfel, Miss Gertrude Wiltsee.

OUR COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

WILL LIKELY BUY MARION COUNTY COTTAGE.

AT LAFAYETTE HOME

The Same is Offered For Sale at $4,000—Wayne Has a Like Appropriation.

The other day the Palladium mentioned the fact that our commissioners were going to purchase an additional cottage at Lafayette. They left yesterday for Indianapolis, and the Journal this morning gives an account of their visit there, which is as follows:

Representatives of the Wayne county commissioners arrived in Indianapolis last night and it is understood will close a deal today with the Marion county commissioners for the transfer of this county's property at the Soldiers' Home, at Lafayette, to Wayne county. Some time ago an appropriation of $10,000 was made for the erection of a new home to represent Marion county at the Lafayette Soldiers' home and a few weeks ago the county commissioners selected the new site. It was decided to sell the old home and the price was fixed at $4,000. An appropriation of this amount was made by the Wayne county officials and as soon as it was known that the old Marion county home was for sale negotiations were entered into for its purchase, which, it is believed, will be closed today. The $4,000 received from the sale of the old home will be made a part of the original $10,000 appropriation made by Marion county.

IN EASTHAVEN

After Trying For Two Years Harrison Fisher is Admitted to Easthaven.

Harrison Fisher, an old man who fought and bled for his country was taken to the asylum at Richmond after having served more than two years in jail. The old man resided in Huntsville and two years ago he was arrested on complaint of his relatives who alleged that he was insane.

Fisher was examined by a commission and pronounced sane. He was released but was at liberty for but a short time. In a fit of insanity he attacked some member of his family and was terribly beaten. Again he was committed to jail and a commission of physicians failed to find him of unsound mind.

For two years every effort has been made to secure his admission to the Richmond asylum and not until recently was the request granted.

James Jarrett, Elwood Boren and Miss Elizabeth Woolman came down from Fountain City this morning to spend the day.

The aggregate contract price approximates nearly $1,000,000 a year. The membership of the board includes Governor Durbin, Superintendent of Public Instruction Fassett A. Cotton, President W. E. Stone, of Purdue University; W. W. Parsons, of Terre Haute; J. N. Study, of Ft. Wayne; F. W. Cooley, of Evansville; C. N. Kendall, of Indianapolis, and President William L. Bryan, of Indiana university.

NORTHWESTERN SCHOLARSHIP

OFFERED TO GRADUATES OF THE HIGH SCHOOL.

THE BOYS AND GIRLS

Of the School Will Contest For the Privilege Accorded.

Announcement was made yesterday that the Northwestern University, of Evanston, Ill., has decided to offer scholarships to the graduates of the Richmond high school deemed worthy by the faculty. Except the matriculation fee the tuition will be free to those receiving the scholarships. Prof. Ellabarger said yesterday that, in recommending candidates for the scholarships the faculty will consider not only intellectual equipment, but physical ability and moral strength. The local scholarships will probably be to the best boy and girl, providing that his or her average for the last year was 90 or over. This is the second college to offer scholarships in the last few weeks, thus showing what the higher educational universities think of the Richmond schools.

The first baseball practice of the season took place Wednesday evening. A large number of candidates showed up, and, from indications, the team will be much stronger than was first thought possible. As was prophesied at first, the position of pitcher will be the weakest spot on the team. Weeks is the only candidate for that position, and his ability is not very well known. Further practice will show whether or not he will be able to make the team. Kamp, Feezer, Pierson, Schaefer and Reller are trying for the infield positions and Tate, Baker and Manford for the outfield positions.

Manual Training high school at Indianapolis, has written to Manager Carman, asking that the scheduled game of last season, which was not played for various reasons, be added to the schedule of the present season. The other games secured by the management are those with Steele high school, Dayton and Rushville high school.

The track team is practicing steadily now. Runs through the eastern part of the city are still being taken and Capt. Genu is rounding the men into shape very nicely.

The classes are nearly all smaller this year on account of mumps, measles and gripe, which diseases, the teachers say, are keeping more pupils from school this year than in any other year.

Miss Price and Miss Mering are still unable to meet their classes.

SOME TROUBLE

Caused by Two South Enders on a Street Car.

Last evening about 6 o'clock Geo. Wilkemeyer was on a street car, of which Mr. Caldwell was conductor. He refused to pay his fare and was ejected from the car. Finally he decided he would pay it and got on the car again, but, when the conductor came around to collect fare he again refused. He was again put off by the conductor. On the next round of the car the conductor notified the police and Westenberg and Bundy accompanied the car on its southward trip.

Wilkemeyer had fortified himself with his brother, Frank, and they were laying for the conductor. The policemen got off the car and arrested the two brothers. They were brought before the mayor this morning and fined $1 and costs, each.

"Relations—The Church a Divine Relation" will be Mr. Legg's subject tonight. Service begins at 7:30 p. m.

DE PAUW EARLHAM

THE DEBATE BETWEEN THESE COLLEGES OCCURS TO-NIGHT.

NAMES OF THE JUDGES

Earlham Dressed in Holiday Attire For the Great Event.

The debate this evening between De Pauw and Earlham will be one of the most heated debates that has ever occurred in Earlham's history of debating. These gentlemen will speak in the order named, and will give their rebuttals likewise.

Earlham can not afford to lose this debate since, out of her seven debates she has won six, losing one to the Methodists. In order to claim championship over De Pauw she must win the debate. Her team, composed of Raymond Wehrley, W. L. Leer and J. R. Phillips, realize this, and have been working very hard.

Each man will speak for fifteen minutes and will have a four minutes' rebuttal.

The Judges for the evening will be: Hon. John W. Kern, of Indianapolis; Supt. C. N. Kendall, of Indianapolis schools, and William E. Henry, the state librarian.
