(By a Staff Correspondent.)

Muncie, Ind., March 18.—Referee Moran last night lost whatever popularity he may have had with Richmond rooters, since his "yellow" streak, which was plainly in evidence to all, won the game for Muncie.

It will be remembered by "fans" that Moran was the referee who put Bone off the floor last year here in the Lowell game, and he refereed with about the same "yellowness" last night. Fouls were called on Mansfield and Doherty for what seemed to be merely touching Higgins, but Farrell, Hart and Holderness tripped, held and knocked players down and did everything else deserving the name of foul in the rule book, and Moran, except that his insidious grin grew slightly larger each time, took no notice whatever. If Richmond had been given a fair show by Moran the result of the game would have been about 10 to 0 in Richmond's favor, as they played Muncie off her feet, but, knowing that the slightest roughness would be called a foul by Moran, they were compelled to avoid all of their usual effective blocking games. Again and again the three hundred rooters present from Richmond yelled derisive names at Moran when some exceptionally flagrant foul on Muncie's part was passed by.

The first period was long drawn out and slow, the players stopping for ten minutes for a time while a skate or something was fixed. Richmond would not play at first until the floor was chalked, as the Muncieites, well knowing that the strength of the Richmond team lies in the players' swiftness, had not chalked the floor.

The only goal in the first period was made by Farrell on a long drive, which, somehow, got past Jessup. The second was the fastest period of the three, and the teams were nip and tuck throughout. Bone made a pretty short drive which Cusiek never saw, the only goal in this period. Dirty and rough playing characterized the entire period, Mansfield and Farrell having several "mixes." Higgins attacked Doherty, and the sight of the flea attacking the elephant brought smiles even to the faces of Muncie rooters. Barney never budged and grinned compassionately down on his puny adversary. Higgins played a dirty game, tripping and holding the Richmond players throughout the game.

In the third period Cunningham hooked a pretty pass into the Muncie cage, and the "fans" from Richmond went wild. It looked like a sure thing, and several encounters took place between Richmond and Muncie "sports" who had money to bet on their respective teams.

Shortly afterward, however, Hart made a long drive which Jessup stopped, and it looked as though the whole Muncie team came into the goal circle and kicked the ball in.

In the overtime Hart drove one past "Shorty" in 6:23. Jessup's work was exceptionally fine, he blocking the short drives of Hart again and again, and Doherty and Mansfield put up a spotless defense. In the third period and overtime Cunningham, sr., took Bone's place and put up a swift game. Little Cunningham played a good game.

The Muncie players were swift, it is true, but Richmond had them played off their feet, and with Waller as referee, would have won the game. Line-up and summary:

Terre Haute played at Loganport and won in a good game.

Score—Loganport, 2; Terre Haute, 7. Fouls—Hadley, Stepe—Sutherland, 47; Mulloy, 43. Referee—Kilgarr. Attendance—500.

Richmond Loses Protest.

Anderson, Ind., March 18.—Manager Joe Fox, of the Marion polo team, was successful yesterday before the directors of the Western Polo league in defeating the protest of Manager Henley, of Richmond, who protested a game recently won at Richmond by Marion because of the presence on the line-up of Half Back Lyons, of Elwood. The directors were practically unanimous in turning down the protest of Henley. It was decided also that in case of disability of a player and no other outside player being obtainable that managers can borrow players within the Western league. Lewis will be here tonight on the rush line against Richmond. The president of the Western league is satisfied that next season will see all the cities now represented in the league, although some others may be added to the league.

Now, what do you think of this? Anything to beat Richmond. Anderson has seven men, but Lewis is a better man than any of their rushers. It is very probable that on next Wednesday night Richmond will have to play the pick of the other five teams in the Western league and beat the referee in the bargain. With a square deal from the referee Richmond can beat any all star aggregation the Western league can put together, but this certainly is very unfair. If Richmond has a chance to draw out of this league and away from such managers as comprise the Western league, they certainly ought not to lose any time in doing so after this season is over.

Miss Louie Boyd and Miss Kiturah Parsons will have charge of the program at the meeting of the History club held at the home of Miss Anna Finck, 115 south eleventh street, tomorrow afternoon.

The Occult Research society met with Mrs. Anna Beeson, south eleventh street, yesterday afternoon. The day's paper was upon "Woman, in Education and Business," by Dr. Sarah Morrow, and was a very interesting subject, well presented. The current events also were upon the subject, comparing women of our country with the Japanese and other foreign nations. These were followed by the reading of "A psychological Sketch of Woman," by Nancy McKay Gordon.

The club will meet next Thursday evening, March 24, with Mrs. Elizabeth Williamson, 10 south tenth street.

The Thursday Thimble club's regular Lenten weekly meeting was held yesterday afternoon with Miss Mary Harrington, 29 north twelfth street. Next week the young ladies will meet with Mrs. Timothy Harrington, in the Wayne flats.

The annual thank offering service of the Woman's Missionary society of the United Presbyterian church was held last evening in the church. The most interesting part of the service was an address given by Mrs. Addison Parker, who talked of her trip to Korea, made last year. Mrs. Parker is an able speaker, and told her experiences in a charming manner.

It was an excellent meeting throughout. The thank offering taken for missions was encouraging, over fifty dollars being collected, and the promise of more has been made. After the close of the service, a social hour was enjoyed, and light refreshments were served.

Mrs. Charles Haner, 124 south fourteenth street, entertained the Happy Hour circle yesterday afternoon at her pretty home. The parlors and dining room were decorated in green and white, and the St. Patrick's color was used in the table decorations and the attractive luncheon, which was served after the early part of the afternoon had been spent with thimbles and needles.

Mrs. Walter Nusbaum, of Greenville, O., who has been visiting Mr.

and Mrs. Lee Nusbaum, was a guest of the club.

Next month Mrs. John Bartel, 317 south eleventh street, will be hostess of the circle's meeting.

The East End Whist club was entertained with a "St. Patrick's party," given by Miss Edna McGuire at her home, 1903 east Main street, last evening. Shamrock favors served as tally cards for the whist games, and shamrock color was used in the home decorations. Prizes were won by Mrs. Galen Lamb and Miss Mary Lemon. The next meeting of the club will be with Miss Mary Lemon, 22 south seventeenth street.

The annual meeting of the Flower Mission was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Dougan, 1322 east Main street. The business of the year was brought to a close, the reports of the committees were heard, and officers were elected for the following year. The new officers are: President, Miss Mae Shiveley; vice-presidents, Mrs. Livy, Miss Sarah Coe, Mrs. Thomas Jessup, Mrs. Harry Lamb, Mrs. Frank Butler and Miss Ida Peltz; secretary, Miss Ada Hadley, and treasurer, Mrs. Isaac Jay.

Phoenix society of Earlham college is having a recital in its hall this afternoon, beginning at 4:15. Following is the program: Duet—Polonaise—Schubert—Irene Trueblood, Francis Jenkins. Gavotte Moderne—Tours—Maude Price.
