Business would flow in from the most unexpected quarters, and when we took time to investigate, we could always trace it direct to some of our advertising.—Col. Geo. Merritt, of Waterbury Watch Co.

HEARST FOR PRESIDENT.

The forces of William Randolph Hearst are systematically invading the different states of the Union. His work does not stop with the simple matter of invasion; he is organizing his forces and will "put up" a vigorous fight for the nomination.

There is one feature about Mr. Hearst's campaign that modest, patriotic people are not in love with. That is seeking the nomination. In a republic, every man has a perfect right to aspire to the Presidency, but it is not good taste to run after it with hired lieutenants.

The following from the Terre Haute Tribune will interest Indianians: "Justice Holmes of the supreme court, whose opinion so nearly tied the supreme court in the Northern Securities case, has handed down another opinion which kills the Indiana state law of 1893, providing for the taxation of express, telegraph and certain other companies which do an interstate business."

The county council gave some attention to the purchase of the Marion county cottage at the Lafayette Soldiers' home yesterday. The meeting of the council was called for a special purpose, and, as a consequence, other matters could not be considered.

The citizens of Richmond presented a strong case in the bridge matter before the county council yesterday. The citizens of the south side have the very best of argument and ought to have a bridge.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.

William Shaffere, a brakeman of Dennison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "I used many remedies," he says. "Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a clam."

The dance given by the members of the Dancing club, at the K. of P. hall Tuesday evening, was one of the most enjoyable and noteworthy society events of the season. Elegant refreshments, consisting of ice cream, cake and coffee were served. About twenty-one couples were present to enjoy the hospitality of the fourteen young men who have organized the club. The out of town guests were as follows: Misses Hunt, Messrs. Jones, Jennings and Snyder, of New Castle; Misses Edna Martin, Marie Knollenberg, Grace Baker, Messrs. Jake Hanes and Omer Whelan, of Richmond; Mart Brown, of Indianapolis; Miss Feltis, of Cincinnati, and Homer Williams, of Milton. The fine music furnished by Cornell and Wheeler was highly appreciated by all present.

Ray Francis, the present student at the Western Union telegraph office, is on the sick list.

Omer Guyton entertained a number of friends at the Vinton house Tuesday evening. An elaborate 6 o'clock dinner was served, which the company of twenty young people en-consider the matter. The sick are all improving. Charles Williams and Maurice Pittman are building and repairing their barns. Henry Shelby will spend the summer near Chester with George and Belle Dawson. Mr. and Mrs. Ankerman and daughter, Grace, have returned to their home in St. Louis. They were called here by the sickness and death of their mother, Mrs. Jane Lewellen Ankerman.

GOSHEN.

Sabbath school was organized at Goshen church March 20th, with John Burke superintendent, Lizzie Pyle assistant, Nettie Bennett secretary, Edgar Bennett assistant, John Allbright treasurer, Fletcher Elliott assistant, organist Monon Elliott, choir leader Gertrude Myers, teacher Mrs. Allen, Will Vore, Joseph Cox, Edna Kenworthy, Mr. Allen. Mrs. Maurice Pittman kindly contributed an organ. The school has re-opened under very favorable circumstances, and hopes to do good work this season and would kindly ask the neighbors to come out and help further the cause. It is the aim of the school to paper, and repair the interior of the church this spring. There will be meeting every Sabbath evening. We also want to form a choir of the young people, so would like as many to be present next Sabbath as can,

DONORS TO LIBRARIES.

William McClure and Andrew Carnegie are Honored in Book of Indiana Libraries. Indianapolis, March 21.—State Librarian Henry who is preparing the library exhibit to be made by Indiana at the St. Louis exposition has arranged for an interesting frontispiece for the pamphlet which explains the display. The frontispiece shows the picture of Andrew Carnegie and William McClure who were the two largest donors to libraries in the state.

LITERARY NAMES.

"Yes," says the fond mamma, "I think we picked real pretty names for the twins. Pa got them out of a book. I always did like a name with a literary tone to it." "And what do you call the little darlings?" "Fauna and Flora. It's from a book in the library down town that tells about 'The Fauna and Flora of the Western Hemisphere.'" Job work promptly done at the Palladium.
