SOCIAL CALENDAR.

Saturday.

History Club meets with Mrs. Mary Whitridge, south eighth street. Nomands hold their regular meeting with Mrs. Salter, north fifth street.

Open church meeting at the South Eighth Street Friends' church. Evening Social Club meets at the Country Clubhouse.

The south eighth street open church will have a pronouncing school this evening. Lists of words will be submitted for pronunciation according to standard authorities. A large attendance of church members and guests are expected.

The afternoon whist party given yesterday in the Elks' club rooms was attended by the usual number of ladies who enjoyed several hours at drive whist, played at five tables. Mrs. Harmon Meyer and Miss Fannie Meyer were the hostesses for the afternoon. At the close of the games the first prize was awarded to Mrs. Harry Nædham, the second prize to Miss Marjorie Taylor, third to Mrs. Harry Simmons and the consolation to Mrs. Oscar Maynard. The attendance was not as large as usual on account of the disagreeable weather. The guests for the afternoon were Miss Marjorie Taylor, of Huntington, W. Va., and Miss Effie Miller, of Terre Haute. Misses Mary Jay and Rae Chandler were appointed the hostesses for the meeting next Friday.

The members of the Tourist club held a pleasant and interesting meeting last evening at the home of the Misses Robinson, on north fifteenth street. The main feature of the evening was an exceptionally fine paper on "Goethe," by Professor Dennis, of Earlham, which was one of the most instructive papers read before the club this season. Prof. Dennis gave a brief sketch of the great dramatist's life, commenting on the broad nature of his life as poet, dramatist and noted scientist. A fine review and excellent interpretation of "Faust," Goethe's greatest drama, was given, and was followed by a general discussion. The regular program for last night was an "All Fools' Night," but, since yesterday was Good Friday, it was decided to postpone the "All Fools' evening" until April 15th, when the program, arranged by Mrs. McCabe and Mr. Dougan, will be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dougan, on north tenth street.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Presbyterian church met yesterday afternoon in the church parlors. Owing to the illness of the president, Mrs. Earhart, Mrs. J. R. Rupe, vice president, presided. The session was devoted to the transaction of business until 3 o'clock, after which the members spent the time in sewing and in a social hour. The attendance was quite large. The next meeting of the society will be in the church parlors on April 15.

The Frances E. Willard W. C. T. U. held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ruth A. Hunt, north seventeenth street. The subject for the afternoon was "The Work of the Y. W. C. T. U. against the Traffic." Several short but timely articles bearing on the subject were read and following them a general discussion was held. The trustees that have recently been elected are as follows: Mrs. Eliza Morris, three years; Mrs. Dr. Hopkins, two years, and Mrs. Marietta Overman, one year. Preparations are being made for the district W. C. T. U. institute, which will be held here on April 14th and 15th. The next meeting of the Frances E. Willard W. C. T. U. will be held in Rhoda temple.

The Christian Union of the United Presbyterian church held a delightful social last evening at the home of Mrs. M. E. McCright, on north C street. About twenty members of the union and guests were present and all enjoyed a very pleasant evening. Games and music were the features of the evening. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess.

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of Grace M. E. church which was to have been held yesterday afternoon, was postponed until next Friday, for various reasons.

The next recital of the Richmond Musical Club will occur Wednesday evening, April 6th, at the Pythian Temple. This is the closing recital for the year 1903-1904, and the program to be rendered is one of unusual interest, being composed mostly of Modern German Music. This program is under the direction of Mrs. Harry H. Weist and Miss Edna Hecker, and they have been exceptionally fortunate in securing the assistance of Mrs. Clifford S. Bennett, a noted soprano of Cincinnati. Mrs. Bennett possesses a voice of lyric quality and even register, and sings with much feeling and expression. She has everywhere met with marked success and Cincinnati feels justly proud of her, since the greater part of her education has been received from the institutions and instructors of that great musical center.

Miss Hecker, who will also appear on the program, needs no introduction to a Richmond audience, as her ability as a pianist has long been recognized, and her playing is always listened to with much interest and pleasure. Following is the program:

- (a) Caecile—Strauss.
 - (b) Auch Kleine dinge—Wolf.
 - (c) Verborgtheit—Wolf.
- Mrs. Clifford Bennett.
Sonata Op 5—Strauss.
Adagio cantabile—Scherzo.
Allegretto vivo.
—Miss Edna Hecker.
(a) Meine Liebe ist Grun—Brahms.
(b) Meine ruh ist hin—Graben Hoffman.
—Mrs. Bennett.
Intermezzo Op 76 No. 3—Brahms.
Intermezzo Op 9—Strauss.
Magie Fire Scene—Wagner-Brassin
—Miss Hecker.
(a) Sunshine Song—Goring-Thomson.
(b) Have the peddler—German.
(c) Sweet o' the year—Willeby.
—Mrs. Bennett.

THE OPEN CHURCH.

The south eighth street open church will have a pronouncing school this evening. Lists of words will be submitted for pronunciation according to standard authorities. All are invited to come and participate in this profitable exercise.

When You Go Into a Drug Store to get a bottle of Painkiller, examine it carefully to see if it is made by Perry Davis, and don't be persuaded to take something "just as good" because it is a few cents cheaper. There is only one Painkiller, "Perry Davis'" Large bottles 25 and 50c. 1

"Ideal Bread" is delivered fresh to the grocer every morning. Insist on having it; take no other.

Don't forget to look for the Red, White and Blue label when buying bread. "Ideal."

Bon Ami

The Finest Cleaner Made Will not scratch.

The Thrust of a Lance is scarcely more agonizing than the recurrent pains in the abdomen which follow the eating of improper food or too free indulgence in ice-water. The immediate cause of cramps and colic is often the distention of the bowels by gas. Quick relief follows the use of Perry Davis' Painkiller. Careful housekeepers give it the place of honor in the family medicine chest. 1
