A SMOOTH FORGER

PASSES A WORTHLESS CHECK ON A RICHMOND FIRM YESTERDAY.

QUIGLEY'S STORE

Suffers the Loss of $10.00 By Cash- ing a Bogus Check for That Amount.

SIGNED BY "H. E. ROBINSON"

The Name of the Forger is "Rog- ers" and He is Supposed to Be a Professional.

Thursday morning an unknown man, who has been seen about the city several times of late, walked into the Court House Pharmacy, at the corner of Main and Fourth streets, and after purchasing articles amounting to about $2.00 he handed the clerk a check for $12.50 on Rob- erson & Company, of this city. The clerk accepted the check without question and handed the man change amounting to about ten dollars.

Shortly after Mr. Quigley took the check to the First National Bank to have it cashed, but the officials of the bank recognized it at once as a forgery and a most clumsy one at that. The check was signed by "H. E. Robinson," and the forger had made no pretense to imitate Mr. Rob- erson's signature and had omitted adding the title, "President," after the signature, as is Mr. Robinson's custom to do.

The check was endorsed by a party signing himself as "Rogers." It was impossible to learn the initials of the signature.

Mr. Quigley, after learning that the check was a forgery at once notified the police, who are now working on the case. Superintendent Gorman re- fuses to divulge any information at present, but there are reasons to sus- pect that the unknown is the same party that worked several local peo- ple about three years ago on the same game, only his checks called for larger sums.

OFF TO VICTORY

Earlham Football Team Leaves This Morning for Greencastle.

Captain Hobbs and his band of sturdy football warriors left this morning for Greencastle, where this afternoon they will meet on the grid- ron the crack De Pauw eleven. The Quakers had a good practice yester- day afternoon and they expect to de- feat the Methodists and if they fail their adversaries will at least know that they have been in a game of football. The De Pauw eleven out- weighs the Quakers twenty pounds to a man. Earlham will line up as fol- lows:

- Harvey, center.
- Ellis, right guard.
- Wann, left tackle.
- Brunson, right tackle.
- McCreary, right end.
- Lorenne, left end.
- Hobbs, right half back.
- H. Bond, left half back.
- Newlin, full back.
- Wislon, quarter back.

A Bear Story.

Greencastle, Ind., October 15.— De Pauw closed its hard practice for the week yesterday for the Earlham game today. Coach McFadden is ex- ceedingly anxious for the team to make a good showing in this game. Coble is now playing at center. Holmes has been shifted from full back to half. Hall, the big full back who was injured in the Wabash game, will probably not enter the game to- day, and this will weaken the team. Smith drew a fractured rib in yester- day's practice and will not be able to join the squad for about two weeks. With the hospital list full, De Pauw's chances for winning from Earlham are not flattering.

National Association of M. E. Church. Camden, N. Y., October 14.—The National Association of local preach- ers of the Methodist Episcopal church in America began its session here to- day. One important matter to be considered is the report of Taylor University at Upland, Ind., where there is some rivalry between Rev. C. B. Stemen, incumbent and Rev. John C. Wright, Washington, D. C., as to the presidency.

Bourke Cochran. (By Associated Press.) New York, October 14.—W. Bourke Cochran is to make a west- ern speaking tour for the Democrats. His engagements carry him to Mon- tana. He will speak at Cleveland, O., October 18. Indianapolis and Terre Haute October 28, Lafayette, Ind., October 29.

Boston, Mass., October 15.—The house of deputies of the Epis- copal general convention in a com- mittee of the whole voted 214 to 191, in favor of reporting to the house the canon amendment forbidding the remarriage of any divorced persons. The house of deputies in com- mittee of the whole also reported in favor of the adoption of the amend- ment to the canon referring to the bishops' request that divorced per- sons for permission to receive the sacraments by a vote of 280 to 126. The amendment makes exception in the case of imminent death and of the innocent party in divorce.

ARTHUR F. REED

Passes Away Wednesday at His Home in St. Louis.

Frank I. Reed was called yesterday to St. Louis by the death of his brother, Arthur F. Reed, who died October 12. Albert Reed was unable to go owing to the fact that he is suffering from a sprained ankle.

The announcement of Mr. Reed's death came in the nature of a sur- prise to his two brothers as the last word they had from him he said that he was enjoying good health.

Arthur F. Reed was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Reed and was born in 1835. Shortly before the civil war he removed to Ft. Wayne with his uncle, Col. Hugh T. Reed. At the outbreak of the war Mr. Reed enlisted in an Indiana regiment, serving throughout the war with distinction and resigning at the close of the war with the rank of lieutenant colonel. He had been a resident of St. Louis for the past thirty years and was in the drug business.

Because his sweetheart would not prepare his breakfast for him yester- day morning, Tommy Jones, col- ored, proceeded to pull her around the room by the hair. The lady in question being Julia Anderson, whose husband is a cook at the Arlington hotel. Jones has been going with the lady for some time and although she thought very well of him she was married to another. Yesterday morn- ing Jones went to her home in North Fourth street and ordered his break- fast. She refused to prepare it for him and he became angry and slapped her a number of times and then pulled her about the room by the hair. Jones was arrested in the afternoon by Patrolman McManus. The An- derson women is considered to be the best looking colored woman in the city. Jones is charged with assault and battery.

Runaway Horse.

Mrs. John Maag left her horse standing unhitched on south eighth street yesterday afternoon while she made a short call. The animal is a gentle one, and was never known to frighten at anything, but something started it this time and in a few minutes he was fastened in a fence. Several parties came to the rescue and relieved the animal before much dam- age was done. The buggy was broken some.

OLD DRAY HORSE

Makes Specialty of Collecting Junk With His Hoofs.

Weber & Holzappel, junk dealers, manage to get about every thing in their line in and about the city but one of their dray horses, a relic of by gone days, is their most industrious junk collector. His specialty is ex- tra long bolts and railroad spikes. He brings something of this variety in daily but to make him deliver the goods a surgical operation is neces- sary. He has the bad habit of col- lecting the above mentioned ostrich feed in his hoofs. Yesterday morning the old boy ran a three inch spoke in one of his fore hoofs, which he ac- cepted with the indifference of long practice. The driver secured a hatch- et, crowbar, chisel and monkey wrench and with the aid of these tools soon had the bit of iron out of the hoof and into the wagon.

WILFRED JESSUP

Turns Artist in the McClellan Trial at Court House.

The case of Theodore McClellan, charged with assault and battery on Theodore Smith began yesterday morning. The State rested its case at 2:30 in the afternoon. Evidences were heard until 4:30, when the case was adjourned until 10 o'clock on Monday morning.

It is alleged that on the 10th of last September McClellan assaulted Smith in the former's laundry in North Ninth street, when the latter called to protest against his son be- ing discharged from McClellan's service. Attorney Wilfred Jessup, for the defense, entertained the court, jury and spectators by drawing on the floor in chalk, a graphic reproduction of the interior view of the laundry. Competent critics declar- ed it a work of art.

IDOL OF DEMOCRACY

SPEAKS TO IMMENSE THROG AT THE NEW PHILLIPS LAST NIGHT

A GREAT OVATION

Given to the Champion of Free Silver and at the Present Time a Supporter

OF THE GOLD CANDIDATE

Our Own Henry U. Johnson Enters for a Time—Overflow Meet- ing on the Street.

An audience which filled the New Phillips opera house to overflowing greeted William Jennings Bryan, the peer of the Democratic party, last night. Mr. Bryan was late in getting to the opera house and his time was filled by the Hon. Henry U. Johnson, of Richmond. Mr. Johnson was re- ceived with considerable applause by the large audience when he was in- troduced by Clifton W. Merrill. Mr. Johnson dwelt on the Philippine question in his talk and endeavored to point out to the audience that he saw the imperialistic question appear- ing on the horizon years ago, when the purchase of Alaska and the an- nexation of Hawaii were made. He declared that he was a candidate for no office and that he would accept none whether elective or appointive and that he had retired from public life a few years ago never to re-enter. In speaking of the peace question Mr. Johnson said:

"The Friends in their Yearly Meet- ing held in this city a few weeks ago sent a message to President Roo- svelt asking him to re-convene the Hague conference in the interests of peace. I heartily commend their ac- tion but they could do more than that. Quakers and all are silent when war is on, they did not support Bryan four years ago. Do the Quak- ers in this campaign propose to go to the polls and vote for Theodore Roosevelt, a man of war or Alton B.
