A little study of past history will convince the first voter that Republican spells opportunity.

The real Democratic party is a thing of the past; it is not a thing of the present, and men like W. J. Bryan know it.

No question but Judge Parker is learning. By keeping silent he makes each faction of his disrupted party believe that he is with it.

The morning after election the Democratic machine is always found in the repair shop awaiting numerous rectifications of defective parts.

The same Democratic doctors who threw the country into fits in 1893, Doctors Gorman and Hill, are preparing another prescription, but it will be impossible to make the voters believe they are ill this year.

Ten years from now, no matter who is President, the Government expenditures will be so great that present disbursements will seem small in comparison. This is a growing country.

REPUBLICAN SUPREMACY ESSENTIAL TO PROSPERITY.

Not for half a century during a presidential campaign have we had an industrial and financial condition such as obtains today throughout the entire country. Confidence in the election of the Republican national ticket of the Republican House of Representatives has given an impetus to trade which could hardly be expected even under normal conditions and is actually even surprising during a presidential campaign, when there has always been more or less hesitancy and doubt in business circles. The level of stocks today is higher than it has been for seventeen months; the railroad earnings are improving every week; the bank clearings are showing in many instances record-breaking figures, while the postal business of the country, which is the surest indication of all national prosperity, is increasing most rapidly day by day in every portion of the country. The fall trade is almost phenomenal, and the outlook for the future is more than usually bright.

All this, as we have stated, is due to the confidence in the election of a Republican national ticket at the polls next month.

The election of Judge Parker and a Democratic House of Representatives would reverse all this and plunge the country into a condition of financial and commercial distress, such as was only equaled immediately following the election of Grover Cleveland and with him a Democratic congress in 1892.

RESPECT THE PRESIDENT.

When the smoke of the battle shall have cleared away, and the campaign orators shall have returned to their respective homes, and Theodore Roosevelt is elected president of the United States, there will come a day when people will have time to weigh well some of the utterances of the campaign. There is one thing that never did look right to us, and never will, and that is abusing a president while he is holding that high office. In the first place to abuse the president is unpatriotic and un-American. It savors of the lowdown and the degraded. President Roosevelt is the president of the whole people, and while he holds that office every citizen of this republic, regardless of creed or race, should respect him. It ill becomes a man of the standing of William Jennings Bryan to stand before the audiences that are greeting him during the campaign and offer abuse to the man whom all should respect as president. This nation is too broad and grand to allow its president to be publicly derided by public speakers, even if it is during the heat of a campaign. It is all right and proper to take exceptions to the policies of a party, but to ridicule the chief executive—never. Bad minded men and discontented foreigners see this and are encouraged in their cowardly deeds. It is such speeches as those made by Bryan and Johnson that inspire acts of violence in the minds of the wicked. As American citizens let this growing evil be corrected before it is too late—before the young minds now budding will be taught to disrespect the president of the United States.

MORRISON-REEVES PUBLIC LIBRARY. ADA L. BARNHARDT LIBRARIAN

The Morrison-Reeves Library, which has been undergoing repairs and re-decoration, is now once more ready for use. The new decorations are most attractive and it is doubtful if there is any handsomer library in the State. The wall paper in the reading and reference rooms has been removed and the walls and ceilings decorated in a light golden shade. The children's reading room has been decorated in terra cotta, while the walls of the library hall have been tinted a light grey shade. The reading and reference rooms will be open to the public Monday. The following is a partial list of books that have been added to the library since June 1:

Miscellaneous.
Hartman, Japanese Art.
Stephen, History of England, Thought in the 18th Century. 2 vols.
Keltie, Statesman's Yearbook, 1904
White, History of the Warfare of Science with Theology. 2 vols.
Taylor, Life of Edward Fitzger-

Wheatley, Story of London.
Myers, Human Personality. 2 vols.
Tyler, Letters and Times of the Tylers. 3 vols.
Dalziel, Collie; As a Show Dog, etc. Lane, All About Dogs.
Hulbert, Cumberland Road.
Mathews, Field Book of Wild Birds and Their Music.
Hardow, Creation Composer.
Carpenter, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.
Burrongs, John James Audubon.

The New Way to Health

With the discovery of VITONA, the "New Way to Health," there is really no longer any excuse for remaining sick. This remedy acts on all the vital organs directly through the blood, which is the only scientific way to prevent and cure disease. If your blood is impure—even tainted in the slightest degree—good health is impossible. The Liver, Kidneys and Stomach are highly sensitive. Every disease to which we are subject is the result of some derangement of one of these organs; and the state of the blood is back of it all. Nature has her own way of warning us of the approach of disease. Here are a few of her danger signals.

SIGNS OF BAD BLOOD
Indigestion, Headache, Coated Tongue, Backache, Sallow Complexion, Poor Appetite, Exhaustion, Biliousness, Constipation or Diarrhoea.

Is your blood pure? If isn't—if you even have a SINGLE ONE of these symptoms. An occasional headache may seem a trifling matter, but it is frequently a symptom of disorder, which if not checked in time may lead to serious—perhaps fatal results. Why take any chances, when you have always at hand "VITONA," the prescription of a physician who has treated thousands in private practice and has demonstrated in hundreds of cases just what it will do? Your blood is your life! Present it. Ask Dr. F. H. Taylor for "VITONA," and make a start toward perfect health. Price $1.00. Written guarantee given with each bottle.
