PICKPOCKETS ARE PINCHED

URBAN CONDUCTOR IS THEIR UNDOING

ERE FOLLOWING BRYAN

air Haul in Richmond Was a Good One—One of Them Proves to be An Old Criminal.

In the arrests made yesterday morning at Indianapolis by Bicyclemen Hill and Shine, of the Indianapolis police department, it is believed that men who picked the pockets of a number of people in this city during a Bryan meeting last Friday night were at last being captured. The men arrested are known as Abe McPeak, Thomas Long, alias Bates; Patrick Russell, alias McGinnis, and James Moran. McPeak is a well known pickpocket, but it was the general supposition among the police officers that he had reformed. The men were arrested after they had been a conductor on the Shelbyville Traction line coming into Indianapolis. After the conductor found that he had been robbed he notified the police in Indianapolis, and when they arrived in the city the men were placed under arrest. The men were in Shelbyville attending a Bryan meeting and there is no doubt in the minds of police officers throughout the State that they have been following Bryan all over the State. It is not likely that the men ever be convicted for the work they have done here unless a pocketbook is found on them that is known to have been taken here or if some person in here could identify them and say that they saw some member of the gang working in this city.

Distributing Black Bass.

A special car, belonging to the Bureau of Fisheries of the Department of Commerce and Labor, passed through the city last evening on its way to Chicago. The car has been at Dayton, Ohio, where a number of black bass were put into the different streams about that city.

WHIRLWIND

be the Finish the Republicans Will Make.

(Special to the Palladium.) Indianapolis, Oct. 16.—State Chairman James P. Goodrich, returned yesterday to Indianapolis and he made the announcement that plans for the state were being worked out. The headliners, according to C. C. Cas, chairman of the speakers' bureau of the state committee, will be Senators Fairbanks and Beveridge and J. Frank Hanly, together with such Republicans of national reputation as the committee can induce the national committee to send to the state. Senator Allison of Ohio is expected to be one of the latter. It is not denied by officers of the committee that the reason for our defeat of the State by Republican Bryan is to counteract whatever Bryan may have on wavering voters. Reports of Bryan's big meeting came in with such regularity that Chairman Goodrich hurried to Chicago and conferred with both Fairbanks and National Committeeman Harry S. New. They agreed it is said, that a whirlwind in Indiana would mean a Republican victory sure. The details of the trip have not been worked out," said Senator Cas yesterday. "The date has not yet been set. About all we have decided is that a special train will be sent and we do not know who will accompany Senators Fairbanks and Beveridge and Mr. Hanly."

George Becker is the guest of Amelia Herzog at Madisonville, a suburb of Cincinnati.

AUTOMOBILE

Completed at Kokomo Finest in the World.

(Special to the Palladium.)

Kokomo, Ind., October 15.—What is believed to be the finest automobile ever built in America was run out of the Apperson Bros.' shops in this city last evening. It is a fifty-horse power car designed for winter use. The passenger apartment is entirely inclosed and is appointed on a scale of luxury that is remarkable.

It is the interior of a Pullman palace car in miniature. Heat and light are supplied by electricity and the seats are as comfortable as the Morris chair beside the hearth at home. The curtains at the windows can be closely drawn and the passengers can enjoy perfect privacy.

The chauffeur receives his directions through a speaking tube, his seat being closed off entirely from the passenger apartment. The car cost $10,000. It goes to Walter Keith of Chicago. Two more cars of the same pattern as this one will be completed within a fortnight for two other Chicago millionaires.

GOLD DIGGER

Leaves Considerable Wealth to a Telephone Girl.

Kansas City, Mo., October 16.—Miss Clytie Griggs, seventeen years old, daughter of Ulysses Griggs, a painter, has received a letter from a lawyer in Cape Nome, Alaska, informing her that she was the heiress to an estate valued at $500,000, left by Mrs. Lillian Warner Moore, a second cousin.

The estate, the letter stated, consisted principally of mining property and shares of mining stock.

Miss Griggs is a telephone operator. Her cousin, whose fortune she inherits, died at Cape Nome several weeks ago.

IS INJURED

E. G. Cook Dislocates Shoulder by Falling Off His Wheel.

E. G. Cook, residing at 315 North Seventeenth street, fell from his bicycle yesterday morning and dislocated his right shoulder.

Mr. Cook started out on his wheel to visit relatives in the country who reside near the Wendle Orphan's Home. While riding at a lively clip down a hill his front wheel struck a large boulder, throwing him from the saddle to the road, dislocating his shoulder besides bruising him up severely.

Mr. Cook coolly picked up his wheel which was broken and walked back to town. Dr. Charles Marvel was summoned to his home and he gave prompt attention to the injured man.

GENERAL SLOCUM

Survivors Organization Files Articles of Incorporation.

New York, October 16.—Articles of incorporation of the General Slocum survivors' organization were approved yesterday by Justice Leventritt of the Supreme Court. The incorporators, all of whom are survivors of the terrible disaster on June 15, say that the object of the organization is largely fraternal.

It is intended annually to commemorate the disaster by suitable services, to promote the welfare of and assist those who suffered; to use all proper means and methods for the prevention of a like disaster in the future, and give voluntary assistance to needy persons who sustained loss as a result of the catastrophe.

The signers of the articles say that the incorporation is necessary, so that the organization can act as an entity.

A party composed of B. H. Moorman and wife, Lovell Lamb and wife, of New York; Mrs. Galen Lamb and Miss Maud Lamb, took dinner at the Hotel Westcott last night.

RICHMOND GIRL NOW AN EDITOR

Mrs. ROSA BIRCH HITT WITH "THE INSTRUMENT TUNED"

SHE IS WELL KNOWN HERE

The New Magazine is Devoted to Psycho-Physical Culture—At Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Rosa Birch Hitt, a former Richmond girl, now residing at Washington, D. C., is the editor of a new magazine, "The Instrument Tuned" which is published by the Broadway Publishing company, of New York.

Mrs. Hitt has not lived in this city for a number of years, but she is still known to a wide circle of friends. Her father, the Rev. W. S. Birch, D. D., was from 1884 to 1888 presiding elder of the Richmond district, Northern Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church. Her brother-in-law and sister, the Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Daniel, resided in this city several years, the Rev. Daniel being pastor of the First M. E. church.

In 1889 Mrs. Hitt was married to Mr. Isaac R. Hitt, of Evanston, Ill., and since 1897 they have been living in Washington.

"The Instrument Tuned" is devoted to a comparatively new subject—psycho-physical-culture, of whose methods Mrs. Hitt has made successful application.

The magazine is full of common-sense suggestions, made into interesting and delightful reading matter, and is admirably adapted to the needs of humanity in general.

FORMER RESIDENTS

Of Richmond Are Married Last Week At Philadelphia.

The Philadelphia Evening Telegraph of last Wednesday gives an account of the wedding of two former Richmond young people. It is in part as follows:

"A wedding of unusual interest was solemnized in a simple and impressive manner today at Friends' Meeting House, Coulter street, Germantown. The contracting parties were Robert Simpson Charles, of Cincinnati, O., and Miss Marian Elizabeth White, of Germantown. The best man was William S. Charles, brother of the bridegroom, and the ushers were Elias H. White, Mr. R. Warren Barrett, and Mr. Edward Wildman, of this city, and Mr. Charles M. Sprague, of Pittsburg.

"This union is of two old Southern Quaker families, which, after many generations in the South, settled about Richmond, Ind. The bride is the daughter of the late Prof. William W. White, of Earlham College, of Richmond, Ind., and his wife, Mary A. White.

"The meeting convened at 11 o'clock, and after the period of silence usual at Friends' marriages the bride and groom went through the wedding ceremony.

RALLY DAY

At Winchester Thursday—To Be a Big Affair.

(Special to the Palladium.)

Winchester, Ind., Oct. 16.—The biggest Republican rally of the campaign in this county will be held in Winchester next Thursday. J. Frank Hanly, nominee for governor, Addison C. Harris, Hungary, and William L. Taylor, ex-attorney general of Indiana, will be here and address the people. A big crowd is expected and great preparations on the part of the various committees are being made. The Richmond delegation promises to be a large one and the Young Men's Republican drum and bangle corps will participate.

THOS. FLANNAGAN IS KILLED

FORMER YARDMASTER OF THIS CITY MEETS DEATH

CRUSHED BY A HAND CAR

Sunday Morning in the Elwood Yards—Well Known Here and All Along the Line.

Thomas Flannagan, former yardmaster of the Panhandle yards in this city, met his death Sunday morning in a most horrible manner.

Flannagan was a section boss at Elwood and yesterday morning started out with a gang of men on a handcar to repair places on the road bed. The exact particulars of how he met his death are not yet known, but it is reported that he jumped off the handcar and on attempting to get on it again, while the car was going at a good speed, he missed his footing and fell beneath it, being crushed in a most horrible manner. Death was instantaneous.

Mr. Flannagan was yardmaster at Richmond for a number of years, being transferred from here about 1888 to Elwood, where he has been in the employ of the company ever since. He was well and popularly known to nearly every man on the Richmond division and his death will be keenly felt by his many friends in Richmond.

A Dinner Party.

The Misses E. and L. Whittenbrock of Sacramento, Cal., and Roscoe Cook and George Dilks formed a dinner party at the Hotel Westcott yesterday.

POLITICAL BETS

Wagers on Election Results Are Reported Unusually Light.

New York, October 17.—There was very little election betting on the curb Saturday, but in the small offering a change was indicated in favor of Higgins in this State. The betting on the State situation was at 10 to 7, but Bunnell and Buchanan, betting commissioners, offered $4,000 to $5,000, or 8 to 10, on Higgins, without getting a taker.

A well known betting commissioner on the curb stated that he made a bet on Roosevelt with a stock exchange house of $2,000 to $650, which lowered the odds to 10 to 3, which prevailed before.

George and John Considine handle nearly all the Tammany money, which is brought to them through "Big Tim" Sullivan. They have placed very little so far, but announce that they will have plenty when the odds suit them better.

Around the Hoffman House, which has always been a recognized betting center; at the Waldorf-Astoria, headquarters of the western plungers, and at the Rossmore and Metropole hotels, where the sporting element is wont to gather, there has not been as much as $15,000 wagered up to the present time.

HORSE GONE

But the Buggy and Harness Found South of Centerville.

George Wright, living south of Centerville, telephoned the local police department yesterday that he had found a set of harness and a buggy near his farm. This is supposed to be the same stuff that was stolen here a few weeks ago. Superintendent Gorman went down and recovered the articles mentioned. The horse had gotten away.

Miss Grace Robie will entertain Tuesday afternoon at cards for her guest, Mrs. Moore, of Louisville.

RULES CHANGED

Pythian Rules Shifted About Recently.

Local Pythians who attended the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias at Indianapolis report that changes of unusual importance have been made in the general laws of the order, to become effective the first of November.

Most important of these is the provision that all applicants for membership after that time must pass a medical examination and the physician's certificate must accompany their application. The order for the semi-annual pass-word is another thing that is to be abolished and in its stead an official receipt will now be used, the same as is done in a number of other secret orders. The law regarding transfer cards from one lodge to another is also changed and one dollar fee, heretofore charged for this certificate, is abolished. Changes are also made in the laws governing expulsions for non-payment of dues. Pythians generally look upon the changes in the laws with much favor and believe they will prove of great benefit to the order.

DAN REID

According to Harry Starr, is Not in the Senatorial Race.

Harry Starr, of Richmond, elbow man of Daniel G. Reid, who has been talked of as a promising candidate for senator, is in Indianapolis and will be at the Republican State headquarters off and on until the election is over. Mr. Starr says that the reports of Mr. Reid announcing himself as a candidate are unfounded and that he is not even thinking of making the race. Mr. Starr expresses himself as confident of Republican success both in the State and nation. —Indianapolis Sun.

BIG RALLY DAY

Daniel E. Storms Will Speak at Fountain City.

At an early hour this morning the Young Men's Republican Club left for Fountain City to participate in the big Republican all-day rally at which the principal speaker will be the Hon. Daniel E. Storms, secretary of State.

Elaborate preparations have been made for this big political love feast and Fountain City will be filled with people from all over northern Wayne county and this city.

AN OCTOBER DAY

Was Yesterday With its Warmth and Sunshine.

Yesterday was beautiful as applied to the weather. A certain spring warmth was in the atmosphere, and it had a tendency to arouse people to the fact that long walks in the fresh air would be beneficial. All day long hundreds of people lined the streets and quite a number went into the country, while others took advantage of the day to hire rigs and ride for miles into the country. The street cars were well patronized. The churches were filled with worshippers, and nothing of a public nature occurred to mar the quiet of the Sabbath day. "The Good Old Summer Days" are fast drawing to a close, the trees are taking on a golden hue and we will be soon in the ices of November. Thanksgiving day is being looked forward to already—a day enjoyed by many as one of the most social days of the entire year. October, when the berries are brown, October, when the pumpkins are ripe, October, when the gas bills take a rise, October, when one's expenses increase, October, when many weddings occur.

On Tuesday afternoon the Ladies' Auxillary of the South Eighth street Friends' church will meet at the church.

AUTOMOBILE LEG IS THE LATEST

AN EASTERN MAN SUFFERING WITH ABOVE COMPLAINT

DONE TOO MUCH RIDING

He is Now Attending a Gymnasium to "Recover His Legs"—"Horrible Example."

Hartford, Conn., October 16.—Here is a "horrible example" to the infatuated persistent automobilists: to those who are so devoted, so habituated that they jump into an automobile if they have to cross a street.

Here is an awful warning that if they do not walk more soon they will not be able to walk at all. Their legs will dwindle. They will retrovert. They will become automobile cripples—the victims of their mania for driving the devil wagons.

In a gymnasium here a rich young man with fine muscular arms and body, while he painfully exercised his legs said pathetically:

"My legs are wabby. I have been riding in my automobile all the time for three or four years. I have the habit. I have been either in the automobile or asleep all these years. Now my wife is not overfond of automobiling and the other evening she said she would like to take a walk.

"It was a new idea. I had not taken a walk in so long it brought back the days of my courtship. I grew sentimental and I told her I would be delighted.

"We started. The great moon was shining and for a short time I was living over the old days and she seemed exceedingly happy.

"But we had not walked half a mile before I wished we were home. I did not want to flunk, so I kept on, but my legs hurt me awfully. The muscles stung me as if they had been lashed, my knee joints kept dipping and bending involuntarily. I tried to be gay and bouyant, but I made a dismal failure, for all the time I realized I had gone back to a point where walking was practically impossible.

"The next morning I got a bottle of alcohol liniment and rubbed my aching legs as I have not done since I played football. Then I got out my auto, rode to the gymnasium, and paid my fee for a year.

"And here I am making the effort of my life to get my legs strong enough to carry me when I need to use them.

SERVANT QUESTION

Benjamin W. Arnold Has Provided Elaborate Quarters for Them.

Albany, N. Y., October 17.—An innovation in the treatment of servants in Albany has set the servant classes talking, and has resulted in dissatisfaction among servants who previously were satisfied with their places and their employers.

Benjamin W. Arnold, lumber merchant, last spring took unto himself a second wife, and also built a $200,000 residence on State street, opposite Washington park.

The house, built on the most modern lines of colonial architecture, has in it special apartments for the servants. These are on a scale of magnificence which caused envy among the servants of other families. They contain a parlor, well furnished, in which they may entertain at their pleasure, their visitors being provided with easy chairs.

Each servant has a separate room and a bathroom is situated between every two servants' rooms for their use.

The individual servants' rooms are finished in hardwoods, and the walls are hung with pictures which would be considered costly for some families' parlors.
