In a whirlwind game Richmond met her second defeat of the season last night at the Coliseum and "Wild Charley" Farrell and his crew were the ones that turned the trick. It was a case of too much Muncie from start to finish, Richmond's defense was never better, while the offense was a little off color. There was nothing wrong with Muncie. That tells the story. Referee Arundel made his first appearance before a Richmond audience and there will be no tears shed if the local patrons of the game never see him again.

The game started with the velocity of a Kansas cyclone and the pace was kept up until the conclusion of the game. Higgins and Hart worked together splendidly and Eddie showed that he has lost none of his old-time speed and alertness. Muncie's rushing department was ably backed up by Holderness, Farrell and Cashman, who put up a defense against Bone and Cunningham, jr., that held like a Dutch Dyke. The first period Muncie completely outplayed the Quakers, chalking up four goals to the local's none. The second period was about a draw, while in the last period the Champions played like fiends. With either Bone or Cunningham carrying the ball every player on the local team, save Jessup, would invade Muncie territory and Cashman would be bombarded with line drives, hooks and angle sorts until the air seemed to be literally crowded with polo balls, but to no avail. Big Mike resisted the assaults with a skill that was marvelous. He was ably assisted by Tommy Holderness, who played the best polo he has ever put up before a Richmond audience. If the little half would only cut out his tripping tactics he would be one of the most popular players that visits Richmond. Doherty was the bright particular star for the Quakers. He was every place; now smashing up a whirlwind charge of Hart and Higgins, now taking the ball up to Cashman's cage to sting a hard one at the big Muncie goal tend. Mansfield and Jessup also played fine polo. Bone and Cunningham, jr., got down to form in the final period, but the Petty defense was too much. Summing up the game in a few words, Richmond played good polo, but Muncie went them a few points better.

In the first period there was nothing to it but Muncie. Bone took the first rush and the chain lightning game was on. Higgins secured the ball and by one of his celebrated dashes carried it the length of the floor, but Brother Doherty made a dive tackle and the charge was ended. At the same time Farrell tripped Mansfield and Arundel called a foul on Charlie. The "Wild One" said things. A few minutes later Higgins slipped through the local defense and tossed in the first goal. This served as a bracer for the Muncieites and they increased their speed to about thirty-four knots an hour. Two minutes later Bobby Hart got loose from the bunch and under a full head of steam made a dash for Port Jessup. Admiral Doherty sailed out to meet the blockade runner, but Col. Hart did a side step, slapped the ball and it rested in the draperies of the Richmond cage.

It was Eddie's turn next. From behind Mike, the Big, he started down the floor like a dog for a bone and by a clever hook landed one behind Shorty, but the ball rolled out. A wild scramble took place and in the mixup Hart shoved it in again, this time to stay. The last goal for Muncie was made three minutes before the close of the period.

Two minutes after the second period opened Higgins again started trouble. The little fellow eluded the Heavenly Twins after a dash from behind his own cage and Jessup rushed out to meet him, Eddie side stepped the crack goal tend and without interruption tossed the ball in the nets for Muncie's fifth goal. Higgins attempted the same play a minute later, but was stopped by Doherty, but the Blonde One was taxed a foul for so doing. Muncie's sixth goal was made from mid floor on a line drive of Hart's. It was at this stage that the Quakers began to get into the game. Bone, after several minutes of steady floor work, put one behind Cashman on an angle shot that brought down the house. A minute later he sent a fast one past Mike, but to the loudly expressed sorrow of the fans, the ball rolled out. Time was called a few seconds later.

Cunningham opened the ball in the third period by a line drive from the middle of the floor. Mike never saw it. A minute or so later Mansfield got another past Cashman, then Richmond took the offensive with a vengeance. Jessup was left to take care of the Richmond territory, while his four team mates made an invasion. The team work of the locals brought the eighteen hundred spectators to their feet. They played circles about the wearers of the purple and Cashman was given the fiercest bombardment that has been seen in the local rink for many moons, but the big fellow wore a horseshoe and three rabbits' off hind legs and the cage might just as well have been nailed up. Hart ended the scoring in the last few minutes of play by a line drive which Jessup failed to see.

Greys Drop Down.
(Special to the Palladium.)
Elwood, November 19.—The Greys are no longer the leaders in the percentage column of the Western Polo League. Teddy Lewis and Fred Jean with their aggregation of polo players from Marion dropped the Elwood boys a notch tonight by defeating them by the overwhelming score of 8 to 4. At no time after the first period did Elwood have a chance to win as Teddy Lewis piled up three goals in quick order early in the second period. Goal tend Starkie was bombarded the entire evening by hot shots from Lewis and Jean. Lyons saw that they were going bad and started to get rough and had two fouls called on him for his trouble. Near the end of the first period Roberts made a very fast goal in 27 seconds.

A Close Game.
(Special to the Palladium.)
Indianapolis, Ind. November 19.—In a very fast game which was not decided until the last period Anderson defeated Indianapolis tonight. The first two periods were very fast, each side scoring one goal. Miller succeeded in making the only goal for Anderson in the first period in 1:58. In the second period Dalton did the same for Indianapolis in 6:25. Haughton was not in his usual form and was unable to connect with the ball. The game was neck and neck until the third period when Cogshall allowed Wodtke to get away from his protective arm and the flying dutchman made two in very short order. Dalton scored the last one in 6:05. The elegant defense work of Moran and Miller played havoc with the rushes of the Indianapolis team and it was very hard for the men to work past these two.

The lineup:
Anderson Indianapolis
Mercer rush Haughton
Wodtke-Taylor rush Dalton
Miller center Cogshall
Moran half back O'Hara
Mallory goal Harper

Terre Haute Won.
(Special to the Palladium.)
Logansport, November 19.—Before a very small crowd Terre Haute defeated Logansport here this evening. The game was comparatively a clean one and no fouls were called by Referee Moran. For Terre Haute Hurkins and Hipson each scored two goals and Hadley one. The three H's seem to be working very well together.
Score—Logansport 3, and Terre Haute 5.

Goose Egged.
(Special to the Palladium.)
Kokomo, November 19.—Daly and Campbell who hail from Illinois and are on the rush line for the Danville polo team did stunts on the floor of the local rink this evening and when they were through it was found that Danville had chalked up seven goals and Kokomo none. Campbell scored six of the goals himself. Although the goal tends had the same number of stops, Kokomo was clearly outplayed.

New Haven, Conn., November 19.—Thirty-two thousand people saw Yale defeat their old rivals, Harvard today. The game from start to finish showed that Yale was the superior team both on defense and offense.
