A Landslide at Muncie.

(Special to the Palladium.)

Muncie, November 21.—The Quakers met with a landslide of polo balls tonight nearly as great as that of Roosevelt in the last election. When the smoke of the battle had cleared away it was shown that Manager Petty's proteges had chalked one dozen raw ones against a little measly one the Quakers succeeded in getting. The Quakers were clearly off form and did not play anything like the game they played in the olden days, in the days of long ago. Everybody, including Bone and Jessup, were away off color and acted at times as if polo was an unknown quantity to them. At times they would take a brace and play the Muncie boys off their feet, but they would soon relapse into a sort of a comatose state. Despite the playing of the Quakers, luck played a great part in the victory for Muncie. The work of Higgins was of the stellar sort as he was in fine form. The large crowd present cheered the home team to the echo. Muncie is trying a new system and according to tonight's game it worked fine. No one is held responsible for the new plays, but they are all winners. The fact that Jessup had 45 stops or 15 more than did Cashman shows that the rushes easily worked past Richmond's defense, which did not defend very well this evening. The only goal made by Richmond was made by Bone in the first time of one minute and seven seconds. As could be expected Holderness and Wild Charley Farrell each had fouls called on them and Doherty chalked up two. Higgins and Hart started the game with a rush and captured three goals in the first period. In the third period Higgins scored three times and Hart once. Holderness was substituted for Farrell at center and Little DeWitt took Holderness' place. Cunningham, sr., relieved Cunningham, jr., but those changes did not seem to change the run of the game.

The lineup:
Muncie Richmond
Higgins rush Bone
Hart rush Cunninghams
Farrell center Mansfield
Holderness half back Doherty
Cashman goal Jessup
Score—Muncie 12, Richmond 1.

Marion Won.

(Special to the Palladium.)

Anderson, November 21.—Anderson lost to Marion again tonight on their own floor, 8 to 4. Marion clearly outplayed the home boys from the start. The Marion boys were lighting fast tonight and a number of the goals were made in record time. Anderson was unlucky enough to lose a goal by fouls as Miller had three called on him and Moran one. Moran and Miller both were not in the best of form and the Marion players repeatedly broke through their defense. In the second period Marion chalked up five goals and would probably have taken more if the rushers had not worn themselves out.

The lineup:
Anderson Marion
Mercer rush Lewis
Wodtke rush Dawson
Miller center Jean
Moran half back Cameron
Score—Anderson 4, Marion 8.

Kokomo Defeated.

(Special to the Palladium.)

Danville, November 21.—Kokomo regained some of its old time form tonight and solved a number of the Suckers' plays and were only defeated 3 to 4. Kokomo put up the best game that has been played on the local floor this year. At the end of the first period things looked rather dark for Danville as Kokomo had three goals to Danville's one. Murtaugh played a great game.

NOTES.

Manager Cohen, who has been scanning the horizon for some one—any one—to strengthen the Indiana polis team, has sighted a player and is doing a tall job of signaling.

The man in question is Phil Jason, last season with the Ft. Wayne champions of the Central League.

Jason has parted company with the Ft. Wayne management because of a difficulty over the kind of rollers he wears on his skates and has jumped the team. Ft. Wayne does not care to take him back after the trouble, and is willing to dispose of him.

Jason led the Central League rushers in goal getting last season and is considered one of the best cover points in the game. He is figured a great partner for Dickie Pierce. Negotiations are now on and it is possible that he may land in Cohen's dragnet in a day or so.—Indianapolis Star.

The talk of Coggeshall being released has set a number of Central League managers on the popular player's trail, and there is little doubt of his landing a good berth should he leave the local team.

The Lafayette team, which has a strong defense, but a weak defense, is hot after him and willing to pay him a higher salary than he is now receiving.—Indianapolis Star.

Jack Newman has been appointed manager of the Indianapolis polo team and will take charge at once.

Newman has ordered the team to report for practice every morning and in addition to the work on the floor will start a school, at which the plays of the various teams will be studied out and other plays figured out to break up the offense of opposing teams.

The polo wheel is spinning. With one week of history the fourth season of the sport in the west is well under way, and the gods of the resined arena have scattered a few favors over the Western league, causing dejections and satisfaction alike.

A surprise or two marked the first week's progress of the sport. The standing column presents by no means its appearance of last spring. Elwood looks good at the top, for the gray uniformed players promise to take a very active part in polo affairs. Marion, it was expected, would be in the first division, also that Indianapolis would be in the lower class. Richmond and Muncie were expected to start off with flying colors. The Quakers did so, while the Farrellites contented themselves with furnishing two pretty exhibitions of the sport and taking the short end of the scores—until they met the Quakers. Anderson has come up to expectations and fans in that city are delighted.

Undoubtedly the most startling surprise and the least expected demonstration of the week's happenings in polodrom was the Muncie victory over the champions on their own floor, after Muncie was well drubbed by Marion and Anderson. When it is considered, however, that the Quaker organization was the easiest in the league, for the Farrellites to contend with during last season and the lineup of both organizations is the same, with Muncie's weak point strengthened, together with the fact that after three defeats the wearers of the purple were getting together on weak points, the 7 to 3 score seems but natural. Muncie was determined to win and did so, showing a strength of organization which had not yet been demonstrated during the week.—Muncie Star.

"I wouldn't trade Higgins for a team of Jason's," was what Petty said about the report of a trade for the Ft. Wayne rusher. Muncie fans are with Petty there.

Manager Cohen of the Indianapolis polo team, has come to terms with Nick McGilvary, who succeeded Harry Way as captain of the team last year. McGilvary will reach Indianapolis today from his home in Boston and will play with the Indians against Richmond tonight. He will be put at center. His return to the game will strengthen the Indian team considerably. McGilvary is counted one of the cleverest floor workers in the West and Indianapolis fans wait with anticipation the opportunity of again cheering his fast work. With McGilvary in the lineup the unbroken line of defeats will likely be interrupted. It is probable that Coggeshall will be let out, or traded. Kid Haughton was in the city yesterday and he reports that Cohen has secured a new half back and center, this will send McGilvary to rush with the Kid.

SOME ADVICE

To Parties Who Contemplate Trip to the Fair.

(By Elizabeth L. Horney.)

To the Editor of the Palladium:
After the last World's Fair letter some weeks since, I found myself too busily engaged otherwise to continue my notes for a time, then I hesitated to take them up again as interest in the Fair seemed to lag a bit on account of the cold weather and great political excitement. Now that the weather is so favorable and politics so quiet and the Fair is so full of special attractions I will write a little more.

No doubt crowds go daily now and will continue to do so till the Fair closes, provided the weather man does his duty. Should this weather continue till Wednesday night I hope a large delegation of teachers and pupils will that night be en route to the Mound City, a car full at least, for the trip would be one of the greatest benefits and pleasures.

It may not be generally known that after November 5, children under fourteen are admitted free providing not more than five accompany one person, paying full admission. The day time could be taken with visits to buildings otherwise than the State ones, for these together with the Pike are the only buildings open to visitors after 6 o'clock. Indeed, I had best say do not go to many of the buildings after 5 o'clock in the evening. This is especially true of the Palace of Education, where those on duty are excused at 5 o'clock. On Thursday, by leaving the grounds at the last named hour one could eat the big meal of the day, Thanksgiving dinner in leisure and still be in time for some theater. Louisiana and Ben Hurr were the rival attractions when I last heard and Louisiana was said to be superior to America and Alabama, the great plays which drew thousands at the time of the Columbian Exposition. Ben Hurr needs no words of praise. Friday night could be spent at the State buildings and Saturday night one might take in the best on the Pike.
