Lemon-Raisin Pie—Cook two-thirds cup ground seeded raisins in one and one-quarter cups water about twenty minutes. Mix two tablespoons each flour and cornstarch with two-thirds cup sugar, dilute with four tablespoons water, add to raisins and cook until smooth and clear. Take from fire, add three tablespoons butter and yolks of two eggs slightly beaten. Bake in crust as custard pie. When crust is well baked and filling firm cover with meringue from stiffly beaten whites of two eggs, two tablespoons powdered sugar and three-quarters teaspoon lemon extract.

Banana-Raisin Pie—Cook one-half cup chopped seeded raisins in one cup water until plump. Take from fire, add two tablespoons sifted cracker crumbs mixed with one tablespoon flour and one teaspoon butter. Let stand covered until cold. Cut one large banana in thin slices, add one-quarter teaspoon cinnamon, two tablespoons lemon juice, three tablespoons sugar, three-quarters teaspoon lemon extract and grated rind of one-half lemon. Combine mixture, add one well-beaten egg and two tablespoons seeded raisins cut in pieces. Bake between two crusts.

Raisin Puffs—Cream one-half cup of butter, add two tablespoons sugar, two well-beaten eggs, one cup milk, two cups flour with two teaspoons of baking powder and one-quarter teaspoon salt, one cup seeded raisins cut in small pieces and dredged with one-quarter cup flour. Turn into buttered cups. Steam about thirty-five minutes. Serve with plain or whipped cream, sweetened and flavored to taste.

Heart & Home Problems

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson—I have been going with a young man for two years. We love each other and are engaged. He is one of very good habits and a good associate. My parents forbade his keeping company about a year ago, only because of their personal dislike of him.

My father died about six months ago and now I am making the living for mother and myself. She still forbids my keeping company with the young man and says if I marry him I can never step into her house again. She tries to win me over by saying that he does not care for me and also tries to make me believe I do not love him.

We do not contemplate marriage now, however, for although I am of age I am not old enough to be married. Furthermore, I feel as though it is my place to take care of mother, but I don't think she should interfere with my future happiness.

Do you think that I should try to forget him, just to comply with her wishes? I could never be happy with anyone else.

THANK YOU

If the young man is as desirable as you picture him, you should not give him up. When a girl marries it is far more important that she should have the man of her choice than to follow the tastes of her mother. Very often, however, a girl is willful and does not choose wisely. If her mother has reasonable objections, and she disregards them, she is very apt to see her mistake later.

some very dear friends? How can we win back their friendship?
A ROSE AND TWO BUDDS.
 Whether or not overalls are vulgar depends entirely upon the way they are worn. If a girl is silly and shows off in them, it is vulgar. Women all over the world have done a man's work in this war, and they have worn overalls as a protection against the machinery. They are to be admired and not condemned. Since you know you are right, be independent of the opinion of your friends. In time they will respect you, if you have the right attitude.

Winchester, Ind.

Mrs. George Forrest, 34, died at her home here of heart trouble Friday morning. The funeral will be held Sunday 11 a. m. at White River, in charge of the Rev. C. C. Cox. She is survived by the husband and five children. The funeral of Mrs. William Moody who died at Lynn Wednesday night was held Friday afternoon. She was the mother of L. E. Moody, formerly of this city, now of Indianapolis.

All churches and citizens are requested by Mayor Chenoweth to unite in a mass meeting at the M. E. church Sunday afternoon, December 7, at 4 o'clock, to celebrate British day, which to great Britain is similar to our Fourth of July. Special music and an interesting program is promised.

F. C. Focht, president of the Randolph County Red Cross chapter announces that the membership drive will begin December 16th. According to a Plymouth, Ohio paper received here Friday, Wilbur Fish, a former well known resident of this city and Miss Hulda Krenv of that city, were married there Wednesday. They will reside in St. Marys, Ohio, where Mr. Fish is in business. All business was suspended Thanksgiving day and many family dinners were served. A number of soldier boys were at home for the day. A dance was given by the Victory Girls at the Moose hall at night. The dance took on a military air, there being a number of soldiers in uniform in attendance.

Miss Edith Watson, general delivery clerk at the Winchester postoffice and a niece of Senator James E. Watson, who has been unable to talk above a whisper for five months on account of an affliction of the vocal cords, recovered her voice Wednesday evening when on the road home from Muncie in an automobile. When the machine gave a sudden lurch, Miss Watson was thrown to one side of the seat and just then her voice returned to her and she spoke for the first time in five months. Since the occurrence she has been at the postoffice window and can talk as well as formerly.

The last meeting of registered men of White River township will be held at the court room Tuesday night. J. W. Macy and County Agent Hodgson will address the meeting.
