Pacific Shipyard Sets New Launching Record
(By Associated Press)
OAKLAND, Calif., Dec. 20.—A world's record by the launching of six ships from one yard on a single tide was the goal set by the Moore shipyard here today. Wires from Washington to the ways here, connected with devices which would release the vessels when Buttons were pressed by prominent officials, gave the affair an east-and-west linking unusual in Pacific coast launchings.

Three of the ships are of 10,000 tons each. Three are tank vessels. The other three are cargo carriers of 3,400 tons each.

The button designated for Secretary Baker of the war department to touch was called with the launching device on the "Salina," that for Secretary Daniels was linked with the "City of Reno" and one set aside for Chairman John Barton Payne of the shipping board, was joined with the "aspulpa."
