They Escape with $3,500.

Christ Schultz, a messenger for Kuh, Nathan & Fischer Company, wholesale clothiers, at the corner of Van Buren and Franklin streets, Chicago, was snatched and robbed of $3,500 at 230 Friday morning. The robbery was committed, he says, by Edward Wilson, one of the wagon drivers of the firm, assisted by two confederates. The assault took place under the viaduct at Clark and 12th streets. Schultz was in the delivery wagon driven by Wilson, as he was on his way from the Metropolitan National Bank, where he had drawn the money.

Big Land Grab in Canada.

At Toronto, Ont., the publication of a blue-book giving details of the mining concession granted by the Provisional Government last February to a British syndicate and the further development that this syndicate is in reality a cloak for the famous South African Company, has literally started the province, and caused one of the greatest sensations of recent years. The conservatives declare that the concession is a grab without precedent, and that the Government has been absolutely unfaithful to its trust.

Proclamation from Governor.

Gov. F. T. Mendenhall has issued a proclamation to the people calling attention to the fact that the lotter system, although not yet entirely perfected, is the bulwark of the State's salvation. Behind them lies one of the most fertile sections of America. Government and State aid has been extended, and the future depends upon the people. Trusted leaders are in charge of the work, and if the people help them properly, despite the fact that the flood apparently is the greatest ever known, all or most of the levees can be held, and the future will be bright because the system will be strengthened and completed, and the country will have confidence in Louisiana, her enterprise and her opportunities. The sentiment expressed took root before it was uttered, for all along the Mississippi Valley road between New Orleans and Baton Rouge mass meetings were held and volunteer forces organized to keep strict watch on the banks and to labor day and night to strengthen them, even where the danger is not apparent except in the river's steady climb to the top of the levee earthworks. The warning of the weather bureau to abandon homes and seek safety in flight has been disregarded, and instead men, women and children, white and black, are piling on dirt and building levees, seemingly fascinated with the struggle against the attacking monster. President McKinley telegraphed the Governors of the States in which the floods exist for information, and he earnestly inquired into the situation.

GLOBE SAVINGS BANK CLOSES.

Chicago Concern Is Forced to Give Up the Struggle for Existence.

The Globe Savings Bank of Chicago suspended Monday morning. A notice on the doors announced that the bank was in the hands of the Chicago Title and Trust Company, assignee. It has been known in Chicago financial circles for some time past that the bank was having anything but smooth sailing. It was organized Dec. 24, 1890, and has therefore experienced but two good years in its existence. John P. Altgeld was its first vice-president at that time, but he resigned. For the last five years it has had a decidedly hard time, passing through two panics safely by availing itself of the time clause in the payment of savings deposits, which formed the bulk of the deposits. The bank has a capital stock of $200,000, which is held in the ratio of three-fifths in the West and the balance in the East. Under the laws of the State the stockholders are liable for an additional amount equal to the face value of the stock held in their names. This practically makes a guarantee fund of $400,000, provided it can be collected from the stockholders. The State Auditor at a recent examination of the bank's affairs ordered an assessment of 50 per cent on the stockholders, in order to raise a surplus, and notices of this assessment were sent out on the 18th of March. This becoming known, a run was started and the end hastened. The last statement to the Auditor showed $313,000 savings and $142,000 individual deposits. The suspension created no sensation, but there were a few angry depositors around the bank, who had made deposits just before noon on Saturday.

Hastings was at one time a prominent society man and stood high in public estimation. The affair is shrouded in mystery, as there has been no trace discovered of the weapon with which the deed was committed. The coroner has been notified and will have the affair investigated.
