THE WEEK'S GOSSIP

Personal Mention Is Heard Around Town About Men Who Are Prominent in Public Affairs.

Don't forget to vote at the Aldermanic primaries next Tuesday.

Oscar F. Mayer would prove a winner as the Democratic nominee for State Treasurer.

By getting after the butter and egg trust and breaking it up the government will do much toward reducing the present high cost of living.

Mr. Sunny of the telephone bunch, says the "nickel-first" phone is a Chicago invention. Well, Chicago is not proud of it and wants it tried somewhere else.

If the Democrats nominate a good municipal judge ticket they will have little trouble in electing it.

E. F. Weber's candidacy for alderman in the Twenty-sixth ward is arousing enthusiasm all through the ward. Mr. Weber is a born campaigner and this coupled with his well known record as a business man and as alderman before makes his candidacy a popular one.

Aldermen who favor telephone monopolies will not be in much favor with the people when election time comes around.

The more the opposition, the bigger will be Dunne's majority for Governor.

B. F. Weber, the original single fare alderman and father of the trolley system, has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for alderman in the Twenty-sixth ward. He enjoys a widespread popularity all over the ward and his friends are going to leave no stone unturned to land him a winner.

Albert G. Wheeler is one of the men who have helped give Chicago the great reputation she has in the financial and business world today.

Joseph F. Connery's candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Recorder of Deeds is growing stronger every day. He enjoys a widespread popularity and is fitted in every way for the office.

The Home Brewery is not only Chicago's youngest brewery, but it is one of her most successful. No brewery in the United States ever achieved success in such a short time as the Home Brewery. Its beer already has a reputation among the lovers of good beer as being par excellence. The Home Brewery also bottles its beer and a case can be had by calling up Humboldt 9810.

The Fair is Chicago's foremost department store and is also the safest. It abounds with splendid assortments of merchandise exclusively for the use of men.

No wonder the business of the Brand Brewing Company, at 1261 Elston avenue, increased over 100 per cent during 1929. Their famous "Extra" brew has a world-wide reputation.

No better place in Chicago for picnic, festivals and parties of all kinds than E. James Kohn's beautiful Electric Park, at the corner of Irving Park boulevard and Northwest 64th street.

Rudolph Oelmer, 516 North Clark street, is the sole agent for the United States for Schlenker-Braun, Gerolsteiner, Pilsener, Hofbräuhaus, Münchener, Bismarcker Brauhaus. The Chicago office is under the management of Wm. Schmalzer.

For the finest tailoring at moderate prices go to Tanager & Conley, Reser block. They stand in the front ranks of Chicago's leading tailors. Tuxedos and full dress suits can be rented.

The A. H. Meyer Company, 35 South Dearborn street, the well-known importers of beer, announce the first arrival of their celebrated Lowenbrau bock beer. This beer is well known to lovers of good beer the world over. The Chicago offices of the A. H. Meyer Co. are under the able and popular management of H. N. Clausen, for fifteen years connected with the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Company. Mr. Clausen has done grand work for the big company he represents and is to be congratulated upon the splendid success it has met with in Chicago.

People looking for a beautiful home in a pretty, healthful and convenient location should pay a visit to beautiful Albany Park, the latest subdivision ever laid out at any one time in Chicago. It is located right at the terminal station of the Ravenswood branch of the Northwestern Elevated Railroad, with the Kedzie and Lawrence stations on the property. Further information can be had at the office of M. J. Faherty, real estate and builder, either at Lawrence and Kimball avenues or at Kedzie and Eastwood avenues.
