

Health Club Honors Daddy-o Dailey

VILLAGE
HOME
EDITION

THE ROBBINS' EAGLE

THE BIGGEST LITTLE NEWSPAPER IN COOK COUNTY

5¢

Volume II.

ROBBINS, ILLINOIS, SATURDAY, MAY 8, 1954

2nd Year—No. 15

OUST MARSH; JOHNSON MADE NEW POLICE HEAD

In a reshuffling of the heads of departments at the end of a fiscal year, which came at last Tuesday's regular Council Meeting Trustee Leo Marsh was shifted from his office as Police Commissioner.

Mr. Marsh was Police Commissioner during the hectic days of dope peddling here in the village and came in for some severe criticism in his handling of this department.

The man who succeeds Mr.

wife and the Chairman of the Health Department, 'Zip' Johnson and wife.

Trustee Johnson, after only three years in office is doing a commendable job with the Health Department, which he formed and organized two years ago.

Each citizen of the village of Robbins should pay homage to the great little band of women who have contributed so much to the village by their unceasing efforts in behalf of people of our small community.

We refer to that inspired, magnificent group known as the Robbins Health Club.

As you know, at one time they purchased an aged piece of equipment for service to the people, but this did not stem the tide of their ambitions, they kept working and toiling, yes, and praying, until in 1952 they presented for service to the citizens of Robbins, a brand new 1952 health unit that is a credit to the town.

In doing this, they not only gave to Robbins a sorely needed piece of equipment but they established for the village something every village or person must have to survive. They established credit by their magnificent efforts to make their payments on time. By so doing, when Mr. Starks, chairman of the Fire Department had no trouble purchasing a new chassis for a fire truck and a new squad car on time.

Thus ends the saga of a band of resolute women, banded together, many hearts, many minds, but a single purpose.

Marsh Johnson

Marsh in office is Mr. Elbert (Zip) Johnson. Mr. Johnson was also much publicized during those "dope peddling" days and was one of the department's severest critics.

O.K., Mr. Johnson, it's all yours!

To this reporter, Mr. Marsh expressed elation and relief to be freed from the onerous burdens and responsibilities of the job of Police Commissioner.

Sunday, May 2nd, 1954, The Robbins Health Club was host at a dinner party given in honor of radio disc jockey Daddy-o Dailey. A delicious chicken dinner complete with trimmings, was served.

Guests of the Health Club included Mayor Theodore Hendricks and his wife, trustees Anderson and wife; Starks and

MAYOR HENDRICKS is shown here thanking Daddy-o Dailey for his loyalty and support of Robbins and Robbins Health Club. Pictured are, left to right) front, Mrs. M. Holmes, wife of Daddy-o Dailey; Mrs. Bertha L. Hendricks, wife of the mayor. Standing (left to right) Elbert (Zip) Johnson, the Police Commissioner; Daddy-o Dailey, popular disc jockey, the honoree; J. Redmond Craig, Chief Health Inspector; Mayor Theodore Hendricks, Edward A. Starks, Village Trustee, O'Dell Anderson.

—George Studio Photo