CANDIDATES NAMED FOR COMING APRIL ELECTION

On April 19, 1955 (not very far off, now) the citizens of Robbins will go to the polls to exercise the right of suffrage. The American right to choose in freedom the candidates whom they think will best serve them. The people of this village do take their politics seriously and that most certainly is to their credit.

The different parties have had their caucuses and have chosen their candidates. For the next seven weeks the virtues of these candidates will be dinned into your ears. Each party will extoll the virtues of their particular candidates. And each candidate will try to show you

LEMUEL GORDON

Candidate for Trustee on the Peoples Party ticket is Production Manager of Howard Laundry and Dry Cleaners in Chicago; member of the Trustee Board of St. John Community Church. Lives with his wife at 13408 South Kildare.

The Peoples Party held its caucus Thursday, February 17, 1955 at 8:00 p.m. at Thomas Hall.

The members unanimously accepted the candidates offered by the Nominating Committee. The candidates are shown here.

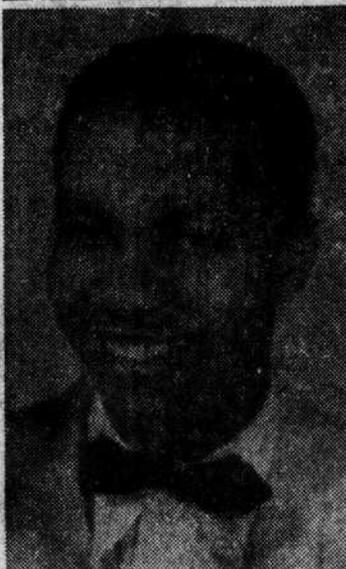

HAROLD DORSEY

Candidate for Trustee on the Peoples Party ticket is a carpenter by trade. He is a member of Bethel A. M. E. Church and at present is Chairman of the Village Planning Board. He lives with his wife and family at 3423 135th Place.

OSCAR WILSON

Candidate for Trustee on the Peoples Party ticket. Mr. Wilson is well known here by most of the citizens of the village. He is married and lives with his wife here in Robbins.

HAROLD N. WILLIAMS

Candidate for election to the School Board District 147. He was selected by the West Harvey Civic Improvement Ass'n and the Dixmoor Citizens Club in a move to secure greater benefits for children attending schools in the District and fair representation of all people in the District.

that he or she is the one you should vote for.

Out of this maze of talk pro and con you've got to try to put your finger on the best three men.

Today Robbins is progressive-minded. They know there is an enormous amount of work to be done and that it is imperative to have men with foresight, sincerity, intelligence and courage at the helm. And only those who come nearest to possessing these qualifications will be considered. Now is the time for these men to come forward and declare themselves to the voters by telling them what is needed and stating your plans for getting in done.

Here is the lineup:

LINCOLN P.T.A.

After being so highly entertained by "The Lesters," a play written by Mr. LeRoy Boyd, Program Chairman of the Lincoln PTA and his cast of faculty members and president of the PTA, Mrs. Adeline Green, 75 or more interested parents assembled in the auditorium Monday night and listened to a very fine Founders Day program which consisted of an instrumental by Mrs. Elaine Rattiff, dramatic reading by Mrs. A. Hensley, a solo by Mrs. E. Trammell and our Principal, Mrs. Bledsoe assisted by others, gave two beautiful renditions.
