

Happenings At Phyllis Wheatley Woman's Club

The Fifth Annual Patriotic Luncheon given in commemoration of George Washington's Birthday was the outstanding event in the history of the Phyllis Wheatley Association. More than one hundred members and guests assembled in the spacious rooms of the Home promptly at noon, Monday, February 22nd, and thrilled to the dynamic, forceful and intensely interesting address of Dr. Preston Bradley, pastor of the People's Church of Chicago, and Guest Speaker of the occasion.

Mrs. Robert R. Jackson, President and Mistress of Ceremonies, also graciously presented Miss Pauline James Lee, vocalist, Mrs. Gladdie Berry Pope, splendid young dramatist and public speaker in a eulogy to Phyllis Wheatley and Elizabeth Lindsay Davis; Mrs. H. Goins, pianiste, and Mrs. Naola Mae Smith, Director of Phyllis Wheatley Community Center.

To Mrs. Anna M. Grayson goes credit for the wonderful affair. As Chairman of the House Committee, she worked untiringly to make a success of this unusual eventful day. The guests enjoyed a lovely repast, a turkey dinner tastefully prepared and served.

The Phyllis Wheatley Woman's Club observed Negro in History Week in its very interesting program Monday, Feb. 17th. A review of "Black Thunder" was presented by Mrs. O. Daniel of Philadelphia. Mrs. Willa Webb distributed invitations for the Forty-First Birthday anniversary of the club to be held Wed., March 17th, at 8 P. M. Members were urged to attend the classes conducted by the Community Center. A splendid opportunity offered to girls and women to learn or improve themselves in dressmaking, drafting and remodeling free of cost. Mrs. B. Thompson is the efficient instructor.

Phyllis Wheatley Home, in reorganizing its program to fill a wider social sphere is presenting free classes for adults in the following: HOME ECONOMICS;

Plain and advanced sewing, drafting of dress patterns, cutting, fitting, designing, remodeling and draping. Discussions of repairing home furnishings economically, planning the family budget, and consumer's education.

PARENT EDUCATION

Discussion on how to guide and correct the behavior of the child. To help the parent find and use as needed by each member of the family, the resources of the Community for health recreation, education and the like.

Mrs. A. B. Thompson is the instructor.

Bury Mrs. Margaret O. Gainor, Prominent In Club Activities

Political, religious, fraternal, and club leaders gathered at Coppin A. M. E. Chapel Monday to pay their last respects to Mrs. Margaret O. Gainor, prominent in church and civic work for many years. She passed away February 18th at the County Hospital, a victim of pneumonia.

She was a member of Bethel A. M. E. Church, Cook County Woman's Republican Club, Chrysanthemum Art and Charity Club and the Mary B. Talbert Club. She served for many years as parliamentaria of the Chicago and Northern District Association and the Illinois State Association. Interment at Lincoln Cemetery.

Chicago Negro Pharmacists Organization

The Chicago Negro Pharmacists have marked a new epoch in their activities by organizing the Chicago Ethical Pharmacists' Association. Officers elected were Raymond L. Thompson, president; R. Q. Campfield, vice president; William R. Thompson, secretary; Chauncey D. Jones, treasurer; Robert E. Giles, publicity chairman.

The executive board is composed of A. E. Johnson, Leonard R. Jewell, Richard B. Alphan, St. J. Drayton, and Judge I. Jones. The membership committee is made up of William Coffee, George M. Porter, William E. Matthews, Jerry H. Rhodes, and H. S. Crosthwaite.

The purpose of the organization is to create a closer relation between fellow ethical pharmacists, raise and maintain more ethical practice in filling prescriptions, protect the commercial interest of our group, help guard the health and welfare of our community and to help devise ways and means for maintaining a high standard of professional work.

They shall work to promote by every means within their power all measures and legislation to prevent the adulteration of food stuffs and substances used in the preparation of medicines.

"Mother" Haley Visits The State Hospital

Mrs. C. Haley Roberts, 5328 South State street, made a trip to Martin, Ill., on Wednesday of this week to visit the State hospital. She mingled with 600 patients and distributed fruit, candies, nuts, sandwiches and Christian literature. She conducted services in four wards and the head physician and nurses thanked her for coming. All the patients were grateful for the services rendered and urged that she return again soon. "Mother" Haley visits all the hospitals of the city and county, visits the sick in homes and conducts services at funerals where the deceased are net members of churches.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Mrs. Mary Humphrey, 6742 Champlain avenue, mother of Mrs. Frederick D. Harper, well-known Tuskegeean, underwent an operation at the Provident Hospital on February 18th. She is reported as improving rapidly and hopes to be home again in the immediate future.
