

It's all nonsense to be continually complaining about the weather—yes! "it's hot enough for us"—but the hotter it is, the less coal you have to buy, and you don't need an over-coat, over-shoes, nor muffler, go on and be pleased, Winter is just beyond the fair grounds.

A Thrilling Story.

Opportunity for Young Men.

The demands in all parts of this country, and in several foreign countries, for well-trained men of our race in the direction of scientific and practical agriculture are so great that this institution is willing to offer exceptional advantages to young men who wish to come here and take either a regular or post-graduate course in agriculture. We cannot begin to supply the demands that come to us for trained men in the direction of agriculture. The positions for which these trained men are wanted are those in almost every case which pay high salaries. We wish to get hold of men who have received as far as possible, a good education before coming here, and are ready to enter on a thorough course in agriculture. Persons, however, can pursue the literary studies at Tuskegee, while taking the course in agriculture. For further information address.

Bradford, the Politician.

Edward Bradford, of the 7th ward, is no doubt one of the most ardent political workers of his ward—Bradford takes off his coat and goes on the men with whom he espouses, with courage of a Napoleon. He is sagacious and never retreats, he is the star of levee political workers and was a foe to the Yates contingent.

C. S. Gibbs of the first ward, for the part taken in opposition to a saloon in residence district, and for his manly stand taken on all questions appertaining to the moral, intellectual and political advancement of the whole people, has deserving won a high place in the council of the City's best people. He is a reliable politician and promising Citizen.

THE ELECTION.

The Primary election has been held and the returns are all in, the and apathy prevailed throughout the state. Cullom, the magnanimous sage of many years, has been sent to the United States Senate again, for six years, his term to expire Mar. 1913, at which time the venerable old warrior will be about 85 years old if living. Cullom has carried everything pretty decisively, and and the friends of Richard Yates will accept the verdict without protest, it might have been "unfair" and it might have been fair, but we bow gracefully to the will of the majority and look forward in the future to nobler things. We hope Cullom's friends will not feel too boastful but will turn their attention to old Sangamon County and proceed to "mend her" and heal her wounds.

Yates and Yates' friends are not dead, but will go forth in the future with as much gusto as in the past. Knowing that every perspective has a retrospect, we look back over Yates' brief but glorious record with great adoration. He will rise yet in the council of Illinois politics as the bright consummate flower of our noon-day sun.
