

STRIKE BULLETIN

Published weekly by the ILLINOIS CENTRAL
STRIKE HEADQUARTERS
Subscription price: $1.00 per year six months 25c
Editor: JOHN K. FERRIS, Editor
Address: 1111 N. Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill.

Clinton, Illinois, August 26, 1913.

Memphis.

The Memphis situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them. The situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them. The situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them.

Fort Dodge.

The Fort Dodge situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them. The situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them.

Central City.

The Central City situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them. The situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them.

East St. Louis.

The East St. Louis situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them. The situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them.

North Platte.

The North Platte situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them. The situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them.

Tekoa, Wash.

The Tekoa, Wash. situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them. The situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them.

Tracy, Calif.

The Tracy, Calif. situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them. The situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them.

Council Bluffs.

The Council Bluffs situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them. The situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them.

Paducah.

The Paducah situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them. The situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them.

McComb.

The McComb situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them. The situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them.

New Orleans.

The New Orleans situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them. The situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them.

Jackson, Tenn.

The Jackson, Tenn. situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them. The situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them.

Evansville.

The Evansville situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them. The situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them.

25c for Six Months

SUBSCRIBE NOW

SIGN YEAR OFF HERE - MAIL

USE COUPON

STRIKE HEADQUARTERS

Box D, Clinton, Ill.

Send me the Strike Bulletin six months for the enclosed 25c.

Name

Street

City

State

Oakland.

The Oakland situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them. The situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them.

Fulton.

The Fulton situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them. The situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them.

Clinton.

The Clinton situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them. The situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them.

Chicago.

The Chicago situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them. The situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them.

Mattoon.

The Mattoon situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them. The situation is becoming more and more serious. The strikers are holding out for their demands, and the company is unwilling to meet them.

words are putting the I. C. out of business. So Mr. Shipper, beware of your shipments and route them over the lines that are fast to organized labor if you want your goods delivered promptly.