THEY HAVE COME!

Which refers to the New Goods at Hugh Gillen's.
Passing Hugh Gillen's yesterday, we found stacked up on the sidewalk on each side of the door of his mammoth store about a ton of dry goods. "What's the matter?" cried we. "Are you moving out?" "No room inside" was the hurried answer, and such was the literal fact. Large as the store room is, including down stairs, cellar and upstairs, Mr. Gillen's new stock is positively so enormous that he is compelled to trench on the sidewalk to make room for the goods. And yet they come! By the time all get here we suppose he will have to occupy half the street besides!
"What can you mean by bringing here such a tremendous stock?" we exclaimed in astonishment. The substance of Hugh's reply was, that he had got them at prices so astonishingly low that he knew he could sell them. Mr. Gillen is no fool and knows exactly what he is about. Dress goods, shawls, flannels, blankets, cloths and domestic and staple goods of all kinds are lower than they have been in twenty years before! When before in Ottawa, have you, for instance, been able to buy first-class gingham for 10 cents? or the best water proofs for 35 cents?
Gillen has $300,000 worth of goods of every description known to the trade that he is prepared to sell at such prices!
He struck the Eastern market when everything was at the very lowest ebb. The fall trade had not opened to meet expectations and everybody was gloomy and disheartened. Since then trade has revived wonderfully, and there will be no more such bargains this season as M. Gillen got. This is the plain, honest fact about it. So if you want goods at bottom prices you can go your bottom dollar on it, your best hold for the next six months is at Hugh Gillen's.

Formas & Goggles.—The ceiling of their drug store having been replastered and their goods returned to their places, Messrs. Forbes & Gehring desire us to say to their patrons and the community generally that they are again prepared to receive and respond to calls for medicines, drugs, paints, oils, and the numerous articles kept by them. They keep a full supply of everything in their line. Thankful for past favors they solicit future patronage guaranteed good articles and living prices.

A Business Change.—The popular firm of marble cutters on La Salle street, in this city, Messrs. Bennett & Gurry, are doing well in their business. They daily receive orders from all parts of the county, which they fill promptly. They have moved to the corner of Columbus & Jefferson streets, at the north east corner of the block on which the Postoffice stands.

N. B. N. P. Merrill is no longer with this firm.

The Schools.—The public schools of this city opened on Monday last with a full attendance in every ward. The jam, indeed, was so great as to press upon the school board the necessity of providing more room.
The experience of one week has already shown that the Board were not mistaken in the estimate they were induced to place, from his high recommendations, upon Mr. Schneck, the new Superintendent and Principal of the High School. He shows himself to be a thoroughly educated man and a splendid teacher; and we have no reason to doubt but that with our present and most able and efficient corps of subordinate teachers, under such supervision, our city schools will soon attain a higher efficiency than at any previous date in their history.

Base Ball.—On Thursday afternoon the third game of base ball was played between the X's of Millington, Newark, Yorkville and Morris, and Ottawa of this city, on the grounds of the latter near Perley's castle. The result was a decisive victory for the X's by a score of 28 to 11.
Geo. Newkirk captained the game, and the best of feeling existed between the clubs—demonstrating that both were composed of gentlemen of such character as to either gracefully accept a victory or good naturedly bear a defeat.

Boots & Shoes.—The Madison street boot and shoe man Leahy, begs leave to announce that he has as good a class of French pig and calf boots as the market affords, and as cheap as any. All other classes of goods constantly on hand, and offered at popular prices.

Don O'Keefe.—Dan O'Keefe, the head and shoulders of the dry goods trade in the city has gone "off on the morning train" to New York to purchase the wares of so much thereof as will be suitable in Ottawa. He took many deunts as well as the best wishes of his numerous customers with him. Look out for his return.

The Man Who is Best.—Notwithstanding that some of the bakers claim sweepstake premiums at the fair, Lou Pierge wishes to state that he received the highest award while the combined premiums of all competitors amounted to just three and no more. He argues does not desire to enter any bragadocio war, but being satisfied with the judgment of the awarding committee will also endeavor to be satisfied with the patronage of his many friends hereafter as he has been heretofore.

Charles Haines.—On Tuesday last the dispensary of 50th St. "Joseph" located under the Opera House changed hands. M. H. M. Bodwell taking charge of the house, vice Waller & Stahlwender. A spirited opening took place and we doubt not that the popularity of the dispensary will remain in vogue under Haines as prescription clerk.

If you want bed mattresses that are long proof, call at Mosher's furniture rooms, 47 La Salle St.
A big stock of clothing is now being received by M. Stiefel & Co., the Square Dealers, White Corner. Everybody can suit themselves here without any trouble.
Fruit till you can't rest, at Wallther's.

Massey.—There will be a special communication of Occidental Lodge, No. 40 A, F. and A. M. Monday evening, Sept. 15th, at 7 o'clock, sharp. Work on E. A. Deane. Chairman M. Galtin. By order W. M.

R. J. W. Partridge of New Haven, Connecticut will preach in the Congregational Church to-morrow.

H. Walther's Soup.

On Monday of this week this enterprising restauranter announced by the ringing of bells and shouting of small boys, that he had his free soup ready to dish out to all who were hungry. In a remarkably short space of time his commodious dining hall was crowded with an interesting audience. Just after the first table was filled up the local of the FREE TRADER took a birds-eye view of the eager assemblage. At the head of the table, with snowy beard combed with faultless precision, sat the patriarch of lunch routes Beach Fellows, whose three score years have been nobly spent in taking in the good things of earth. Next to him sat with flowing locks and curling mustache, the apostle of meekness and resignation Bowman. Following down the table one eye next rested on Capt. Kellogg, whose brain seemed reeling with the arduous labors of an editor.

To particularize further would be but to before our readers the names of most of the business men of our city. This feature in the restaurant business seems new in Ottawa, but, judging from the stampede made on Monday, is destined to become very popular.

The Victor Victorious.

Let it be remembered that the Victor sewing machine took the first and only premium, at the recent La Salle County Fair. It is the leading machine of the day all over the county. It has outstripped all competitors and is the best family sewing machine in use. It is substantially made, durable, elegantly finished, simple in its construction, and runs easily and almost without noise. The general agency for La Salle county is at the Academy of Music on La Salle street, Ottawa. More Victor Sewing machines have been sold from this agency during the last three months than from any other of all other machines in Ottawa continued on show in a similar length of time. Buy the best and cheapest and you will find that to be the Victor, the first premium sewing machine.
Mas. R. W. Brown.

The big excitement on the fair grounds on Thursday was Porter & Mason's new Harvester.
Put on a Clean Shirt.—We have noticed that the many attorneys in attendance at the Supreme Court are scrupulously neat in their linen. The question which we agitated in our notice for three days was "who was their wash woman?" After nearly soaping our brain over the enigma we beheld a trio of the judges and a one-half score of the bar filing into Lovett's laundry on Main street. On enquiry we learned that the popular laundryman not only washed and ironed but mended their shirts. Remember the place, near the corner of Clinton on Main.

If you want to be sure of getting new and stylish clothing, remember the new clothing of A. Frank & Co., the People's Clothiers, west of Court House.

H. Walther received the first premium on twenty-five different kinds of cake and pastry at the La Salle County Fair this week, and would have gone to the State Fair at Peoria next week, but Mr. Elert and Pierge can't see it in that light.

Silver Wedding.—On last Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sweetzer, of this city, having successfully attained the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedded life, were called upon at their rooms, at the residence of Mrs Dr. Paul, and were the recipients of a shower of silver presents. Ice pitcher and stand, card receivers, and numerous other substantial tokens of friendship were left, and upon one the legend of "1849, 1874" were engraved.

The couple were formally reunited in wedding, and everything went as "merry as a marriage bell."

Walther sets out soup at 10 cents per dish, every morning at 10 A. M.

The very latest patterns in "gent's and boys' clothing" just received by M. Stiefel & Co. Buy or no one else until you have examined their stock. Remember the place, White Corner.

Boys.—We called this morning on Mr. Moreau Mosher's furniture rooms for his usual load. We found him so "head over ears" in business as to be unable to give us an audience.

They have just received a large stock of bed mattresses in which splendid bargains are offered.

Singer Triumphant.—The Singer Sewing Machine was awarded the First Premium at the La Salle County Fair for work performed on the ground.

The first number of our pictorial advertiser will be issued on the 15th. The principle and platform are as deep and broad as the ocean itself. Its make up and "git up" is decidedly humorous and free to all, that is to say, it is intended for gratuitous circulation. A token of good will. We are of the opinion that it will meet with what success its merits deserves. Let everybody subscribe. Office of subscription and publication at our store. Come and see us.

A. Frank & Co., the People's Clothiers.
"How are you, James? What makes you look so spruce and young to-day?"
"Why, you see, I was passing the White Corner, that's Stiefel's you know, and happened to see their new stock and could not resist buying a suit, they were so fine and cheap, too."

The result was that James' friend who met him went immediately to M. Stiefel & Co., and purchased himself a complete suit and had his pocket full of money left.

Singer Triumphant.—Singer sales for the year of 1873:
The Singer Manufacturing Co. sold 252,444 Victor Manufacturing Co. 7,446
Singer sold over Victor 259,890

50 clothing boxes for sale cheap, by A. Frank & Co., the People's Clothier, west of Court House.

Jake Christman does not issue the ten commandments or any humbug price list, but spends his time in attending to his. People in want of any kind of clothing can learn the price and select good goods by calling on him at his store, 39 Madison St.

H. Walther got the first premium on the best collection of fancy candies, pastry and ornamental work at the County Fair this week. How is that, for competitors?

ON THURSDAY, SEPT. 7th

WE WILL HAVE A GRAND OPENING!

FOR THE DISPLAY OF SEASON GOODS!

At which time our stock will be Complete in ALL DEPARTMENTS.
ALL THE LATEST NOVELTIES,
AND THE
FINEST ASSORTMENT OF DRESS GOODS
EVER SHOWN IN THE CITY.

We invite ONE AND ALL to Call and See Us.
Very respectfully,
W. H. HULL,
25 La Salle Street.

FALL OF 1874.—Grand opening at A. Alschuler's. The largest stock of clothing ever opened under one roof in Ottawa. Good and substantial clothing within the reach of all, as the following price list will show:
A good business wool suit, 85, 80, $12.50
Fancy cass, business dress suit, 12.50 to 16.00

Good heavy winter pants, 4.00 to 5.00
Patent overalls, 25
The best collars in the market, 25
A splendid stock of gent's furnishing goods. Come to us and we will clothe you and send you on your way rejoicing. A. ALSCHULER, At the Yellow Corner.

Price list for overcoats, buck gloves, mittens, winter caps, &c., will be issued soon.

WELL THOUGHT.—It seems that out of the bakers in this city is attempting by hand bills to cram it down the throats of our people that he took all the premiums at the fair. The fact is, said baker, by importing Chicago articles, did succeed in getting two premiums, while the remainder (six) were given either to Mr. Pierge or myself. If I cannot succeed in business without sending out a libel over my signature, and that in the very teeth of the awarding committee, then I shall fail.

Thanking a generous public for their liberal patronage in the past and soliciting a continuance of the same, I am the people's obedient servant.
WM. EBERT.

LIGHTNING ON THE HALF SHELL.—The telegraph institute is instructing a class of new beginners in the art of telegraphy. Owing to the opening of new offices, and extension of lines, the graduates of this profession are in constant demand.

Persons desiring lucrative and pleasant employment, can do so by becoming master of the art. For further particulars apply at the Institute, Cheever's block.

Fruit till you can't rest, at Wallther's.

Lost.—A Hopkins & Allen nickel plate No. 2 revolver. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving it at this office.

The two competitors are welcome to call and take a lesson on fancy cakes and ornamental work of H. Walther, fancy baker.

MILINERY.—Mrs. O'Meara, whose display of millinery goods at the fair was so much admired, begs leave to announce that her stock of fall styles has arrived. This popular caterer to the taste of our fashionable ladies is sparing no pains to make her parlors first-class. She has engaged the services of a lady from New York City to assist her in producing the latest fashions in fall and winter hats.

Miss Jennie Nolan, who was so great a favorite in the city last spring, has been engaged for the present season, to remember the place—Opera House millinery rooms, La Salle street.

The Boss.—Henry Walther took the first premium for the best display of cakes, &c., at the fair. Henry is modest and does not want people to think he made them, but desires to "cite unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's," or, in other words, to announce that F. Froderick, his baker, was the manufacturer. He is glad to announce that parties, parties, &c., can secure some of his elegant work by applying a few days before their entertainments at the superior headquarters on Madison street.

The best and cheapest shoes in town at O'Connell's, La Salle street.

Can't one of those two competitors go to the State Fair? H. Walther will go if only a half of one of 1874 20.

Remember that your competitors can't scare H. Walther at your own game.

The best and cheapest shoes in town at O'Connell's, La Salle street.

Miscellaneous signs, fresh, good, and sparkling, at G. Miller's, N. E. Corner of court house square.

From last night at sunset until tonight at some time is Jewish New Year, 5635. The day is to be observed in Ottawa by obelug of business places and worship.
Walther sets out soup at 10 cents per dish, every morning at 10 A. M.

GONE.—Our Sam Dittenhoefer is now in the eastern market buying our first fall stock. Our immense business obliges Sam to visit the market early and often, thus keeping our stock constantly fresh and clean. Everything that looks well and wears well, and is of good style, will be found in our stock. We will maintain our established reputation for selling the best of goods at the lowest of prices. M. STRIPPIN & Co., Clothiers, White Corner.

JEWELRY.—Trask's jewelry store continues to be the centre of attraction for purchasers of elegant solid or plated goods. He has just received something new in way of the spectacles, which surpasses anything in this line heretofore offered in the market. Remember this house takes pleasure in showing their goods to whoever may call whether they desire to purchase or not.
Don't forget the number, 33 La Salle street.

Oysters fresh and luscious, at Wallther's.

GOOD JUDGMENT.—The fair committee on millinery goods did just what every lady supposed and expected they would do, to wit: Awarded the first premium to Mrs. O'Meara, of the Opera House millinery parlors, for the finest display of fashionable millinery goods. It is but a just endorsement on the part of the committee of the efforts of Mrs. O'Meara to always produce the latest styles.

SOMETHING NEW.—We see A. Frank & Co., our popular clothiers, are always ahead. They have just received a new clothing form, on which to display their elegant fitting suits. We would advise all in want of new, fine and stylish clothing to give this firm a call. Their house is located at 21 La Salle street.

Oysters fresh and luscious, at H. Walther's.

This week has been a big week at A. Frank & Co.'s, the mammoth clothiers. They are doing a wholesale business instead of a retail one. Elegant goods and low prices seem to take. We wish them success.

Milinery Headquarters.
Mrs. Harper has gone East to make purchases of fall and winter millinery goods. She will have on her return, all the latest and most fashionable styles in the line of millinery goods and trimmings. She has also engaged a first class trimmer and will give perfect satisfaction in all parts of her work.

Mothers want those little children's suits, and the boys cry for them. Largest assortment and finest styles at A. Frank & Co.'s, the people's clothiers, 21 La Salle street.

We are sorry to announce that the concert given at the Congregational church on Monday evening should have been so glirly attended. An entertainment led by so distinguished a vocalist as Prof. Harrison, and whose support by the best in Ottawa, should have filled any audience room in the city, yet we are informed that financially it was a failure.

SUCCESS.—On Wednesday last we, as well as many more, visited S. Drelich's meat market to look at a mammoth sheep. Its weight when dressed was a trifle over 150 pounds.

SENIOR.—The excellent string and harp band of the Deafly Opera Troupe favored the FREE TRADER office with a serenade on Wednesday, for which they will please accept our choicest "Thank you."

Horsing and Hitting.—at Hasberrin Block.

FERRY BUSINESS.—One hundred empty barrels, half barrels and kegs, for sale cheap.
Geo. W. CLIFFER, 155 N. 2nd St.

A FACT.—Say, Mike, where did you buy all those blue groceries?
"Why, Jim, I got 'em at Hasberrin's, on the west side, where you can get more good groceries for a dollar than at any other place in town."

PAY YOUR SALE.—A good second hand piano for sale cheap. Has not had six months use. Can be seen at John Hasberrin's, two blocks west of Supreme Court house, at address Box 768 Ottawa, Illinois.

In reply to the challenge of H. Walther to compete with him at the State Fair, I most respectfully decline. I cannot see any honor in competing with a man that does not manufacture his own goods, and has to resort to trickery.
WM. EBERT.

A "trip" of this office will dissect a portion of those United States at the M. E. church on the 21st inst., before the Literary Society. His theme will be "New Jersey vs. the United States," and will be served out in essay form. We pass.

Restrictions of fare.
The C. B. & Q. R. R. will carry passengers to Chicago and return for $5.50 on the following days during the great industrial exhibition, Sept. 11, 12, 18, 19, 25 and 26, and October 2 and 3rd. By this route persons are enabled to arrive in Chicago before 9 A. M., and leave after 5 P. M., thus giving them the entire day to see the great show, and get home the same evening.

CITY FAIR.—A festival will be had at Louny's hall, Ottawa, on Thursday evening next, Sept. 12th, for the benefit of Mrs. M. Formelo. Everyone invited to attend.

PROV.—The notion that no plans can be raised in this vicinity on account of the currency is dispelled by a fair financial test made by Mr. E. K. Porter, of the State Agricultural Works. He has several times in his garden loaded with as fine fruit as that of any garden upon the continent. He circumvented the curculion by simply exhibiting the "truth" in case of Dr. Hull's umbrella machines. Ten minutes work each morning for ten days did the business, and his reward is bushels of magnificent fruit. The plum is a sure bearer in this climate, and a little pains should make this delicious fruit cheaper and plentiful in this region than apples.

The highest price in 1874 for the past few days, has been at Mosher's 70¢ per yard clothing store. His mammoth stock is, and is worth looking at.

His prices are, as a rule, below the average and the quality of his goods considerably above.
