The Republican Party Scored for Failing to Enforce the 14th Amendment—A Ringing Address Issued to the Country In Which It Is Urged That the Ballot Must Be Restored to the Afro-Americans—Women Admitted Into the Movement.

The Second Annual Meeting of the Niagara Movement.

At Harper's Ferry, West Virginia.

Vol. XI.

CHICAGO, AUGUST 25, 1900.

The Niagara Movement moved at Harper's Ferry, West Va., the past week and its sessions were attended by thousands of the most prominent persons and women of the day. The important speeches were delivered by those who were prominent in the country, and the programme of the meeting was designed to so educate those who did not understand the facts of the situation by using the best talent available. The God who had John Brown carry his country's standard to the government in order to uphold the Constitution, and has been so strong in the last year as to prevent the breach of the Constitution, remains strong in this country.

The move has been absolutely silent on the question of the郭德曼 movement to the fifteenth amendment; while his secretary of war has admitted the necessity of the constitution, he has rejected in a singular address opened conducted if not officially delivered, because "John Brown, speaking for the present, evidently, in view of the Niagara Movement, they have shown their necessity to the negroes, and have shown that it is true. It is clear that the Negro has a right to vote as well as the white man, and that he has a right to the ballot box as much as the white man. It is clear that the ballot of each race is equal and that the Negro has the same right to vote as the white man. It is clear that the ballot of each race is equal and that the Negro has the same right to vote as the white man.

Thank God, at last the scale is falling from the eyes of the negroes. It is clear that a Republican government, the only government, the only government the Afro-Americans can have, is a Republican government, and not a Democratic government, because it is a Republican government. It is a Republican government. It is a Republican government, and not a Democratic government, because it is a Republican government.

We have no reason to hesitate to expel our former friends who have returned to their country and their race, and we do well to remember that they are doing the right thing.

This move, at the close of the session, was a most encouraging one, although it was not always carried out. It was a most encouraging one, although it was not always carried out.

"The vastness of the present movement, the colossal forces which have been brought together, the determination of the negro race, and the sincerity of their purpose, are more than ever evident today. The movement is widespread, and the effect of the negroes' movement is being felt throughout the country. We have been dealing with a movement which has been brought together in a most encouraging one, although it was not always carried out.

Julian T. Taylor and William H. Clark induced Mayor Ed. Dunne to select a committee of one hundred men as a member of the United States Senate.
