ENGLAND'S NEW CABINET.

PREMIER SALISBURY SUCCEEDS IN FORMING THE MINISTRY.

Lord Randolph Churchill as Chancellor of the Exchequer becomes the Leader of the Conservatives - Hicks Beach Chief Secretary for Ireland - Beaumont Bledsoe by Arabs - Foreign Items.

LONDON, July 30.—The following cabinet appointments were officially announced: Secretary for foreign affairs—The Earl of Salisbury.

Chief secretary for Ireland—Sir Michael Hicks Beach.

Chancellor of the exchequer—Lord Randolph Churchill, who by virtue of his appointment becomes the recognized leader of the conservative party in the house of commons.

Secretary for war—Rt. Hon. W. H. Smith.

First lord of the admiralty—Lord George Hamilton.

Lord high chancellor—Baron Halsbury. Secretary for India—Rt. Hon. Frederick Arthur Stanley.

Prime minister and first lord of the treasury—The Marquis of Salisbury.

The following appointments have also been decided upon, but they have not yet been officially announced:

Lord president of the council—Viscount Cranbrook.

President of the local government board—Rt. Hon. Henry Chaplin.

President of the board of trade—Rt. Hon. E. Stanhope.

Postmaster general—Lord John Manners.

Commissioner of works—Rt. Hon. D. Flouet.

Attorney general—Sir R. Webster.

Lord chancellor of Ireland—Lord Ashbourne.

Sir John Eldon Gorst, member of parliament elect for Clitham, has informed his supporters in that constituency that he will probably have to seek a re-election, as he expects to accept a post under the new government.

The Times says that the new cabinet is not altogether what could have been wished in the interests of steady government and harmonious co-operation. It says: "Sir Michael Hicks Beach must show more force of character and steadiness of purpose than he has shown of late in order to grapple successfully with the Irish problem. It would have been better for his party and himself, if it had been possible to allow time for Lord Randolph Churchill's position to consolidate and mature. He will have a difficult and arduous part to play, and will encounter much jealousy. His promotion, however, gives rise to a new hope of a vigorous era of Conservative rule. A serious question will be how to get on with the Unionists."

DUBLIN, July 30.—United Ireland (Parish's) organ commenting upon the appointment of Lord Londonderry as viceroy for Ireland says: "The truce between the tenants and landlords has been shattered, but the Irish people have not the least intention of extending the English rule. It is impossible to produce a more eloquent type of the policy of rousing English rule down Irish throats than the appointment of a viceroy inheriting the name of the man of the cut-throat and hideous misdeeds of the past."

The Freeman's Journal says: "The appointment of Lord Londonderry as viceroy of Ireland, as viceroy of Ireland, and Sir Michael Hicks Beach as chief secretary, are ominous signs of coercion, but Irishmen are prepared to meet them."

The Loyalist press throughout Ireland express their delight at the appointment of Lord Londonderry.

THE ANARCHISTS' TRIAL.

Bloody Clothes of Wounded Politician Introduced in Evidence.

CHICAGO, July 30.—Mr. Grinnell announced Thursday morning that all the testimony for the state in the Anarchist trial would be laid before the jury by Friday evening. Dr. John B. Murphy who attended many of the wounded officers at the Desplaines street station was examined and described at some length the peculiar nature of shell wounds received by the policemen. E. J. Epley, a county hospital physician, testified that he dressed Fielden's wound about midnight on the night of May 4. Fielden told him he was crawling on the pavement, trying to get away, when he got the wound.

M. M. Thomson, whom the defense said they wanted recalled with the view of impeaching his testimony given Tuesday, was put on the stand. Mr. Foster examined the witness briefly without eliciting anything new and with evident disappointment with the impeachment process. Livek Fowler then took the stand and produced a package of clothes which he had taken from the officers on the night of May 4. The blood-stained garments were taken out and exhibited and offered in evidence.

Capitulation. Capt. Schuch, who has become prominently identified with the capture of the Anarchists, dynamite and bombs, then ascended the witness stand. On the day of Ling's arrest he confessed to the captain to having made bombs and used them. Ling said he was down on the police because they clubbed him at McCormick's. Foster was adopted because they were more potent than revolvers. He had learned how to make bombs by reading Herr Most's books. The gas pipes, he said, he found mostly on the streets. All the bombs that he made had been found at his place. He made them, he said, and meant to use them.

FUNERAL OF H. O. THOMPSON.

The Dead Politician Buried with Masonic Ceremonies—The Pall Bearers.

NEW YORK, July 30.—The services over the body of Herbert O. Thompson began Thursday morning. Only the family and pall bearers were present during this service, which was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Sewall. Numerous floral tributes were strewn around the casket, one of which, from the employees of the department of public works, being especially beautiful.

At 10 o'clock remains were borne out of the Worth house to a tiny chapel close by. Fully 4,000 people were assembled in the vicinity of the chapel.

The pall-bearers were as follows: Mayor Gray, Secretary William C. Whitney, E. E. Ely, Andrew, Judges Allen, Trux, and Andrews, District Attorney Martin, Police Justice Lower, Richard A. Cunningham, Gilbert M. Spang, J. C. Surver, Beattie, and Allan Campbell.

The church was crowded to overflowing with personal and political friends. At the conclusion of the services at the church the coffin was placed in the hearse, and followed by the pall-bearers, members of the family and the delegations from the various societies, was borne to the Grand Central depot, where an especial train conveyed the party to Wood Lawn. The body was buried with Masonic ceremonies.

Violent Fever in Pennsylvania.

PITTSBURGH, July 30.—Registrar Sulzby, of this city, representing the state board of health, left for West Elizabeth, Pa., Thursday morning, for the purpose of assisting in an autopsy on the remains of the young man, Gilson, who died Wednesday of the mysterious fever now epidemic there. There is great difficulty among physicians in establishing the true nature of the disease, and it is on this account that the state board of health is commencing investigations. There were three deaths Wednesday from the fever at West Elizabeth, and one new case. The condition of some of the sixty patients now under medical treatment is critical. It is feared that the epidemic has not yet reached its limits.

An Alleged Murderer Arrested.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 30.—A man giving his name as Frank Bergh, arrested here Wednesday night for stealing a trunk. At the Central station Thursday morning it was found that the man was Frank Bergh, who is wanted at Detroit for a murder near that place some months ago, of Frank Knob, his wife, Susan, and their four children, whose charred bodies were found in the ruins of their home, which had been burned after the murder, evidently to destroy the evidence of the crime. Enough evidence was obtained, however, to fasten the crime upon Bergh. He will be removed to Michigan.
