Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which this can be truly said, and it is an unanswerable argument as to the strength and positive economy of this great medicine. Hood's Sarsaparilla is made of roots, herbs, balsams, etc., long and favorably known for their power in purifying the blood; and in combination, reputation, and process, Hood's Sarsaparilla is peculiar to itself.

"For economy and comfort use Hood's Sarsaparilla." Mrs. C. BREWSTER, Buffalo.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla takes less time and quantity to show its effect than any other preparation I ever heard of. I would not be without it in the house." Mrs. C. A. M.

for over a year had two running sores on my neck. I took five bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and consider myself entirely cured."

NICE FOR NEECE.

The Chicago "Times" Reviews the Contest in the Eleventh Congressional District.

Mr. Neece Likely to be Re-Elected as a Result of the Continuance of Republican Dissensions.

LOOKS WELL FOR NEECE.

SO SAYS THE CHICAGO "TIMES."

The Chicago "Times" has made a thorough canvass of the Eleventh congressional district, and is therefore enabled to furnish a pretty reliable view of the outlook of the present campaign. The correspondent of that paper writing from this city says:

The Eleventh congressional district is, in accordance with time honored precedent, all torn up this campaign. The republicans beyond all question hold the balance of power, but between jealousies, backings, and unwise nominations Mr.
William H. Neece has twice landed high and dry in congress. His first election was owing to the ancient feud between Maj. R. W. McClaughry and Col. B. F.
Marsh. Mr. Neece made a hard fight against the republican candidate and won the day. In 1884 Mr. Alexander L. Petrie was chosen as the standard-bearer of the republicans. Neece made another of his peculiar campaigns, and notwithstanding the apparent harmony among his adversaries, warmed Mr. Petrie to the extent of 311 majority. Rock Island county usually has the balance of power in the congressional district. It rolls up majorities of from 1,000 to 2,000 for the republican ticket. The immense manufacturing establishments of Rock Island and Moline employ several thousand toilers, and every mother's son of whom a voter and never neglects to visit the polling places on election day. Neece generally receives the support of the laboring men of Rock Island county, and this very fact accounts largely for the nomination by the republicans of Hon. W. H. Gest, of this city. The fight is

A REMARKABLY WARM ONE.

Mr. Neece conducts a campaign with rather an unique method. He avoids the beaten paths of travel, and takes to the fields and farms, the hedges and the hazel bush. The gentleman seldom avails himself of the steam-cars, preferring to ride through the lanes and country roads.
Since the day of the "come-hither" show-nothing like Mr. Neece's campaign campaign has ever been seen. His horse is an old away-backed spavined steed, the harness is rusty and well worn, and the baggy is a relic of the prehistoric age. The vehicle is originally treated to a coat or two of red paint. This however has long since disappeared, and the conveyance is innocent of varnish. For all this, however, the old horse is a fair single-footer, the harness answers all practicable purposes, and the buggy is a very comfortable vehicle. Mr. Neece is a third time on the war-path. His friends believe he will win the day, and it really looks as if their predictions will be verified.

The republicans, or at least a great part of their number, are not very highly pleased over

A FEW OF SHARP PRACTICE
played at the Monmouth convention, which resulted in the nomination of Mr.
Gest, M. M. Sturgeon and Pat O'Mara had a petition signed by three or four hundred workmen, urging the convention to select Mr. Gest and promising their support. The petition was disregarded, but it is stated upon good authority that the document in its original condition simply asked the Illinois congressmen to favor the bill granting the employes at the Rock Island arsenal extra pay for two hours time worked each day after the passage of the eight-hour law.

In some way the introduction to the resolution was declared on an endorsement of Mr. Gest, and the workmen were fed they have been sadly duped by the political firm of O'Mara & Sturgeon. Gest's friends had an alleged workingman at the Monmouth convention. This individual, by name Heratio Michael McCarthy, on behalf of the laborers of Rock Island, urged the nomination of Mr. Gest. Mc-Carthy has lived here for some years. First he affiliated with the greenbackers, next with the Knights of Labor, and for the last few years has been the street commissioner of Rock Island, for which position he is indebted to the republican party. He is a workman in theory only, simply a fair ward politician. Capt.
Dryden, of Monmouth, was the leading candidate against Gest. He has a good army record and is a very active republican. The Sturgeon-McCarthy affair knocked Dryden's chances into a cocked-hat, and the ex-soldier was shelved in the interest of Mr. Gest. Mr.
Dryden's friends, appreciating the fact that they had been cheated out of a nomination by political fraud, are settling up long knives with which to eviscerate Mr. Gest, and they will be heard from at the coming election.

MIL GEST
has resided in Rock Island quite a number of years. He is a lawyer by profession, and has exercised a clerical office other than a superintendency of the public schools of the county. He is a very shrewd advocate and counsellor.
The gentleman has no very great personal following in Rock Island, and has never betrayed any desire to be a candidate for condition of the laboring man until this campaign. He is in thorough accord with them at this time, and is busily engaged in making the acquaintance of old mechanics, who have lived side by side with him in Rock Island for the last twenty years. His solicitude for the welfare of the workman is said to be far-fetched and altogether too recent to be of much benefit during the present campaign.

The commutation of the life-sentence of one Patrick Grogan, a convict in the Illinois penitentiary, is among certain people being used as an argument in favor of Mr. Gest, who, by the way, was the chief factor in securing executive clemency. Grogan some years ago, through a spirit of sheer wickedness, hid in wait for an old, inoffensive German named Conrad Wittich. As the farmer was driving to his home Grogan struck him in the back of the head with a paving-stone, crushing his skull and killing him. Grogan probably deserved hanging, as there was absolutely no cause for the assault, but a petit jury sent him to the penitentiary for life. The case was carried to the supreme court, and that tribunal promptly affirmed the sentence.
The opinion can be found in the 97th Illinois Reports, page 270. Mr. Gest wrote a number of letters in the interest of Grogan, and contributed largely to ward securing a commutation of his sentence to fourteen years' imprisonment.
Gest's friends are using the fact, among some of the Irish-Americans, as an argument in favor of his election to congress.

THE GREENBACKERS
of the district have endorsed and will support Mr. Neece. The employes of the machine-shops and manufactories of Rock Island and Moline have always voted for him, and will probably remain steadfast in their advocacy of his claims.
Three or four alleged workmen are raving over the district, making speeches for Mr. Gest. McCarthy is one of the number, and a retired barber named Pat Ferron is also stepping through the country in Gest's behalf. Ferron's hardest work in life was done while in the regular army. He served a year or two at the Rock Island Arsenal, and was discharged from the service on account of injuries resulting from the kick of a mule or horse. He became a barber for a little while, but at present is devoting his entire attention to wire pulling and oratory.

The most active, substantial republican politicians in the district have during the last five or six years evidently become disgusted over the turn of affairs and kept out of the fight. Such gentlemen as Morris Rosenfield, C. H. Deerey, and Henry Curtis are not talking much interest in congressional matters these days. None of them attended the republican convention which nominated Mr. Gest, and they don't appear to be working very hard in the hope of securing a party victory. Numerous other old war-horses, like Senator John Fletcher, are, contrary to their usual custom, devoting their entire time to the transaction of individual business. Not that they are in sympathy with Mr. Neece, but have simply lost all inclination to fight the battles of congressional candidates.

As a campaigner Mr. Gest is not a success. He is a poor stump-speaker, and fails to arouse the enthusiasm of the republicans in the district. His campaign is confined to suffering for

THE WANT OF FUNDS.
Pat O'Mara said the other day that he must go to Chicago and get some money to be used in Mr. Gest's behalf. O'Mara expects to see the state committee to-day or to-morrow with probably experience much difficulty in getting Long Jones and Dan Shepard to "give down."

O'Mara, who flopped over from the democracy in 1884, is one of the most zealous workers in Gest's behalf. Mr. O'Mara is said to be a very active worker in the of two votes. His own is one of the number, but its mate has not up to this time been discovered, although diligent search has been made for a clew thereto.

Mr. Neece is very strong in Rock Island. He whittled down Petrie's majority in 1884 in this county to 220, and will probably do just as well this time. Mr.
Huesing, of this city, a very shrewd propagandist, thinks Mr. Neece will beat all previous records in November and reduce Gest to a nominal figure. The other counties in the district will probably vote as they did in 1882 and 1884. The Marsh, Dryden, and Fletcher republicans are at sixes and sevens.
They seem to appreciate the fact that Rock Island did not elect a republican in 1882. Petrie's friends are willing to see Gest knifed, because the Sturgeon element sulked in 1884. Moreover, some of the republicans in the interior counties were willing to give the nomination to Mr. Gest and throw the burden of electing the candidate upon Rock Island county, and as one of them rather significantly remarked at the Monmouth convention, "If Gest gets beat, Rock Island can never ask anything more of the republicans in this district."

It really looks as if Gest would be added to the martyred Marsh and Petrie.
The scheme worked by Sturgeon and O'Mara is proving a boomerang. The greenbackers are supporting Neece, as are also the greater number of workmen.
The state committee will do its best to pull them through. Senators Logan and Cullom will, it is understood, make a number of speeches in the district during the campaign, but the voters hereabouts are not easily swayed by political oratory.
