

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

Harold Fishbein, 15 years old, has entered the University of Chicago as the youngest student ever admitted to the institution. His mother can neither read nor write. His father is versed only in H brew.