

he was pouring in motorcycle tank became ignited.

Sophia Yanich, scrub woman, Blackstone hotel, died taking cold plunge after bath in servants' quarters. Heart disease blamed.

W. Mulvihill, att'y Chicago Law and Order league, outlined election law reform to prevent frauds before Chicago session of legislature committee on elections.

Mrs. Margaret Murphy, 122 N. Kilbourn av., had John Sajonok, 44 W. Lake st., arrested because he failed to return $20 bill left in shoe. Sajonok discharged.

Alice Heenan suing Max Guggenheim for $25,000. Says she was hurt by his auto.

Committee representing public library board to appear before legislative committee on park consolidation to defend branch library idea in small parks.

F. E. Suegner, 14 W. Austin av., driver of auto truck which ran away in loop, badly bruised when truck hit car. Police stopped it.

Henry Krug suing Wm. Gabriel for $25,000. Autos of both collided Saturday night. Both blame the other.

Yearly report of State's Att'y Hoyne's office shows 763 convictions in felonies and 1,081 for misdemeanors. $67,000 funds collected turned over to Judge Scully.

Fire truck removed body of Stephen Dobrosky, 6001 Wabash av., from pole he climbed to fix arc light. Electrocutted.

Geo. Osborne, Denver, representative of Farson, Son & Co., pleaded not guilty to using mails to defraud. Out on $5,000 bonds.

Joseph Coczko, 8, 2418 W. 24th pl., throwing coal from Penn. freight train, fell under cars. Right leg crushed. May live.

Stephan Yoman, 113 E. Illinois, accidentally shot self in left hand. Examining revolver of friend.

190 of 200 "bums" arrested by Desplaines st. police fined $5 and sent to Bridewell for spring bath. 10 discharged when they showed means of substance.

Man who gave name of Dr. Fred Bisdom, 66, 559 Fullerton pkwy., fined $100 by judge on disorderly charge.

Appellate court yesterday decided that law providing fine for failure to file schedule is void. State's att'y's tax campaign hit by decision.

Michael Rysen found dead in gas filled room at 2516 S. Canal st. Reason unknown.

Chas. Hinman suicided with gas in room at St. James hotel, 37 N. Halsted st. Out of work.

Police probing fire which destroyed barn at 1141 W. 14th pl. House of John Greenberg, next door, robbed of $85 when family was chased to the street by smoke.

Mrs. Florence Grim, 65, 105 S. California av., killed herself because "friend" to whom she loaned $100 had left city. Saved money for burial.

Coroner's jury found that Mrs. Anne Jeiusalinski, 3515 Forrestville, took poison on grave of husband while temporarily insane.

West Hammond police hunting for man who shot and killed two farmers Sunday.

Police say Burt Aikman, delicatessen owner found dead in store at 3659 Indiana av., Sunday, took poison to escape blackmailers.

Sup't of Dunning asylum investigating how Louis Jensen, a patient, obtained razor with which he killed himself.

JOHN BUNNY DEAD

New York, April 27.—John Bunny, famous moving picture comedian, died at his home in Brooklyn yesterday. He had been ill for about three weeks of a complication of diseases and for a week had apparently been improving, but had a relapse.

He never made more than $50 a week on the legitimate stage, but it is said he made $1,000 a week, with commission on all the sales of his picture, as a "movie" actor.