

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Safeblowers got $250 from Wheeler & Joachims' saloon, 1658 W. Lake st., few doors from W. Lake st. police station.

Mrs. Anna Stenerson, 920 N. California av., dropped dead on street. Heart disease.

Police searching for Louis Spink, 6, 2645 Washington blvd.

Marjorie Hamilton Cunningham, the "calender girl" will take stand in Funk case today.

John McHenry, found dead on stairs of Sam Phillips' rooming house, 942 W. Madison st. Neck broken. Mystery.

Police searching for man who threw Elizabeth Cordes, 2742 S. Harding av., from street car at Madison and Halsted sts. Shoulder broken.

U. S. Sen. Sherman and Former Gov. Deneen held political conference.

Women's Party of Cook County in war against suffrage clearing house operated by Women's City Club.

Anton Wiskieszek, applying for citizenship papers, said President Wilson lived in Cicero.

Mrs. Kittie Garnt, 10 E. Illinois st., found dead in bed same day her former husband, Thomas Raddigan, was drowned.

Sam Insull says he'll cut Commonwealth Edison rates $974,000.

John J. Sullivan, 4756 Vincennes av., killed by fall from "L" platform at State and Van Buren sts.

"Prof." Salisbury, long-sought clairvoyant, brought back to Chicago from Boston. Named Barney Bertsche.

Negro burglar got $800 worth of jewels from home of Mrs. W. E. Campbell, 3751 Grand blvd.

Sarah Padden, Chicago actress, married to Geo. C. Sackett, sec'y of United Play Co.

Jennie Grayson, negress, convicted of killing Bessie Taylor on account of jealousy. One year to life.

Nathaniel Hill, 58, stationary engineer, Hotel Holland, killed by being crushed between elevator cage and roof of building.

Thos. Laquinto, laborer, Northwestern Railroad, killed by buggy of Battalion Marshal Kenny, fire dep't.

Ald. Richert authorized to fill vacancy on commission on city expenditures caused by resignation of Ald. Belfuss.

Mrs. Emma Douglas, 16, arrested with Aldo F. Bleisch on complaint of her husband. Judge Hopkins ordered Bleisch to leave town. Girl wife sent back to husband.

Would-be burglar frightened away when he tried to rob home of Mrs. John E. Barnes, 3571 Grand blvd.

Mrs. Emmaline Pankhurst arrives in town today.

Isabelle Carruthers, 1820 Jackson blvd., appointed first woman balliff of Municipal Court.

Capt. C. Glenn Collins, who passed himself off as English banker, arrested for forgery. Wanted in Baltimore, Md.

Ald. Captain resigned from subway committee.

President Samuel Gompers, American Federation of Labor, is in town today.

Six Chicago girls announce themselves willing to enter into eugenic marriages.

Morgan Campbell, 14, 1928 Larchmont av., killed by electric shock when he climbed electric light pole in Hallowe'en joke.

Vice President Thos. R. Marshall is here. Predicts trouble over administration currency bill.

Ald. Geo. F. Harding, Jr., 2nd ward, boomed as Republican candidate for mayor

Helen Sullivan, 3, taken from home of Mrs. Annie Edwards, 1246 Clark st., by man who said he was her father.

Prominent young Elgin man arrested as suspect in Addison, Ill.