

WHAT HAPPENED IN CHICAGO

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, British militant leader, have both arrived in Chicago and will attend the Hallowe'en dance of the Women's Trade Union League at the Hotel LaSalle tonight.

Jacob Zussman, 52, 1321 W. 13th st., knocked unconscious by boys celebrating Hallowe'en.

"Padded-brick robber" smashed window of American Raincoat Co., 316 S. Clark st., but fled when he saw cop coughing.

Safeblowers got $250 from Wheeler & Joachims' saloon, 1658 W. Lake st., few doors from W. Lake st. police station.

Mrs. Anna Stenerson, 920 N. California av., dropped dead on street. Heart disease.

Police searching for Louis Spink, 6, 2645 Washington blvd.

Marjorie Hamilton Cunningham, the "calender girl" will take stand in Funk case today.

John McHenry, found dead on stairs of Sam Phillips' rooming house, 942 W. Madison st. Neck broken. Mystery.

Police searching for man who threw Elizabeth Cordes, 2742 S. Harding av., from street car at Madison and Halsted sts. Shoulder broken.

U. S. Sen. Sherman and Former Gov. Deneen held political conference.

Women's Party of Cook County in war against suffrage clearing house operated by Women's City Club.

Anton Wiskieszek, applying for citizenship papers, said President Wilson lived in Cicero.

Mrs. Kittie Garnt, 10 E. Illinois st., found dead in bed same day her former husband, Thomas Raddigan, was drowned.

John J. Sullivan, 4756 Vincennes av., killed by fall from "L" platform at State and Van Buren sts.

Sam Insull says he'll cut Commonwealth Edison rates $974,000.

"Prof." Salisbury, long-sought clairvoyant, brought back to Chicago from Boston. Named Barney Bertsche.

Negro burglar got $800 worth of jewels from home of Mrs. W. E. Campbell, 3751 Grand blvd.

Sarah Padden, Chicago actress, married to Geo. C. Sackett, sec'y of United Play Co.

Jennie Grayson, negress, convicted of killing Bessie Taylor on account of jealousy. One year to life.

Nathaniel Hill, 58, stationary engineer, Hotel Holland, killed by being crushed between elevator cage and roof of building.

Thos. Laquinto, laborer, Northwestern Railroad, killed by buggy of Battalion Marshal Kenny, fire dep't.

Ald. Richert authorized to fill vacancy on commission on city expenditures caused by resignation of Ald. Belfuss.

Mrs. Emma Douglas, 16, arrested with Aldo F. Bleisch on complaint of her husband. Judge Hopkins ordered Bleisch to leave town. Girl wife sent back to husband.

Would-be burglar frightened away when he tried to rob home of Mrs. John E. Barnes, 3571 Grand blvd.

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst arrives in town today.

Isabelle Carruthers, 1820 Jackson blvd., appointed first woman bailiff of Municipal Court.

President Samuel Gompers, American Federation of Labor, is in town today.

Six Chicago girls announce themselves willing to enter into eugenic marriages.

Vice President Thos. R. Marshall is here. Predicts trouble over administration currency bill.

Ald. Capitain resigned from sub-way committee.

Capt. C. Glenn Collins, who passed himself off as English banker, arrest-