

NOON EDITION

NOON EDITION

STRIKING MINERS AT CALUMET PROPOSE ARBITRATION TO MINE MANAGERS

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Daily Newspaper.

N. D. Cochran,
Editor and Publisher.
500 South Peoria St.

Tel. Monroe 353.
Automatic 51-422.
By Mail, 50 Cents a Month.

VOL. 3, NO. 65

Chicago, Saturday, Dec. 13, 1913

ONE CENT

YOUNG GIRL SHOCKS WISE JUDGE BY TELLING SOME ROTTEN TRUTH

*"Babe" Smith of Canton, Ohio, Refuses Help of "So-Called Good Rich Women" and Chooses "Jungle"
Life Instead—Tells Judge Social Workers
Would Be Glad to Help Her Go To Hell—
Big Sister Movement Started.*

"Where do you suppose I'm going? I'm going back sporting. I need the money. That's the only way I can make it."

"Babe Smith," a mere slip of a girl who looked about seventeen, but claimed to be past eighteen, stood in the Juvenile Court in Canton, Ohio, and hurled this defiance in the face of Judge Krischbaum, while she laughed bitter and brazenly.

She had been taken in a raid of a notorious dive the night before, and because of her youthful appearance had been brought to the Juvenile Court, where she knew they could not hold her.

"You are free," the judge said, when he ascertained her age.

The court received its first surprise then. The girl threw back her head and echoed tauntingly: "Free?"

The contempt in her voice caused Judge Krischbaum to lean forward and stare at her.

"Don't you understand," he asked. "You are free. You say you are