

"FEWER GIRLS WILL 'GO WRONG,' FEWER BOYS WILL BLAST THEIR OWN LIVES

Mrs. Thos. W. Hepburn of Hartford, Conn., President of the Connecticut Woman's Suffrage Association, Photographed With Her Three Children.

By Frederick M. Kerby.

Washington, Dec. 26.—"White slavery is either a necessary condition of present day society, or it is not. We propose to find out which!" That is the proposition which Mrs.

Thomas W. Hepburn, president of the Connecticut Woman's Suffrage Association, puts down as a starter. Mrs. Hepburn, with a little group of women who came as delegates to the woman's suffrage con-