

HOW CAN WE SOLVE THE HEALTH PROBLEM IN CROWDED DISTRICTS?

"Do Away With the Greedy Landlord! Build Municipal Houses for Rent! Put a Playground on Every Block! Take Politics Out of the Garbage Work!" Says Mary McDowell, the "Stockyards Angel."

A City's Crowded District—the Homes of the Very Poor, With Picture of Miss McDowell Inset.

BY MARY E. McDOWELL

Human life is the price of waste in the management of municipal affairs!

The waste, inefficiency and ignorance in the housekeeping of most cities in this country is appalling!

The first thing any city should do in its campaign for health is to eliminate party politics.

Any intelligent man or woman, unhampered by politics, would know
