

WHAT HAPPENED IN CHICAGO

Fred Keeshan, child, 1225 W. Congress st., bitten on face and neck by dog owned by August Balsamo, 1221 W. Congress st.

Jacob Hess, 2351 W. Madison st., arrested at W. Randolph and Desplaines sts. Charged with selling cocaine.

Two users were arrested and told police about Hess, saying he had sold it to them for months.

Fred Smeed, 1959 W. Monroe st., bitten on right shoulder by dog owned by Peter Antonsen, 715 S. Robey st.

370 poor children taken to Oak

Forest infirmary grounds today for a week's outing.

Four peddlers arrested for shouting their wares in an alley between Van Buren and Harrison sts., near Desplaines st. $2 and costs.

Gus Kanackis, one of them, tried to bribe policeman. $5 and costs.

A. F. Marquette, clerk of Chicago Heights, killed when street car hit buggy at Chicago road and 26th st., Chicago Heights.

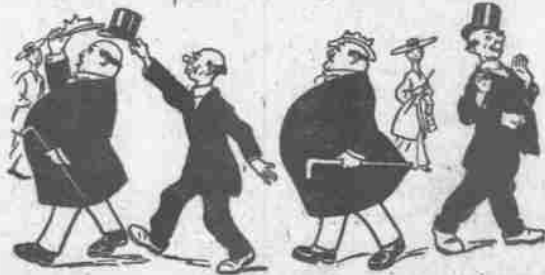

Oscar Johnson, Chicago Heights, seriously injured.

ON AND OFF AND OFF AND ON

"Here's me chance t' cop a swell lid."

"It takes a little noive an' a steady hand, that's all."

"NOW!"

"It's disgustin', the way some of dese fresh guys tries t' floit."