"Eat beans, oatmeal, rice and sauerkraut" is advice of James A. Patton, wheat king.

He says this will reduce cost of living. Patton ought to be forced to eat "beans, oatmeal, rice and sauerkraut" for a year. Maybe he wouldn't be so fresh about it then.

JUDGE GOOD TO BOYS

Judge Heap in Desplaines st court this morning gave evidence that the judicial temperament can sometimes unbend.

He displayed the unbending in the case of 3 boys who had been arrested by officers of Northwestern for stealing rides. The boys were Leslie Swanson, 18, and William Sward, 19, of Holdredge, Neb., and Ferdinand Jackson, 20, of McKeesport, Pa.

Despite the protests officials of the road, Judge Heap declined to brand the boys criminals by sending them to the Bridewell, but instructed that court attaches should secure them positions and from his pocket gave them enough money to eat with.

AWFUL!

"You must have had a terrible experience with no food and mosquitoes swarming around you," I said to the shipwrecked mariner who had been cast away upon a tropical island.

"You just bet I had a terrible experience," he acknowledged. "My experience was worse than that of the man who wrote, 'Water, water everywhere, but not a drop to drink.' With me it was bites, bites everywhere, but not a bite to eat."
