

MORGAN'S MILLIONS AT TOP OF THIS BUILDING

This picture shows the top stories of the new Bank of Commerce building in New York. J. Pierpont Morgan has picked out for his new offices the forty-second floor, immediately beneath the odd-looking pyramid on top.

The pyramid will be used by Morgan and his banking house as a safety vault for the storage of millions in cold cash, stocks and bonds.

If this idea of storing wealth high in the air becomes at all general it may lead to a new type of daring bank robber, operating by aeroplane.

LEGAL TENDER

Wherever you go in the whole wide world, There's always one language is understood, There's always one sign that will make you know, There's always one coin that will pass as good;
Be it north or south, be it east or west,
On land or sea be the path you roam,
No matter the time or the place or the folk—
'Tis the kindly heart that wins a home.

The kindly heart is the kindly sign
That bids the world bow at your feet;
The human love in the human eye
Is the thing that wins you a welcome sweet.
The world is wide and its tongues are strange,
But one is the heart of every land,
And every man is your brother-man
If he feels your love as he grips your hand.

The Same Old World.
