

THE DAY BOOK

500 S. PEORIA ST.

398

TEL. MONROE 353

Vol. 1, No. 227

Chicago, Tuesday, June 18, 1912

One Cent

BURIED BY FALLING WALL

Thomas K. Cameron, building contractor, 411 S. Leavitt street, probably fatally injured today when the wall of a building that was being dismantled at southwest corner of Seeley avenue and Madison street, collapsed, burying him in the ruins.

Cameron received a fractured skull and internal injuries. Workmen extricated him from a pile of bricks and timber, and he was removed to his home by the police ambulance. He had been directing the dismantling.

MABEL HITE VERY SICK.

Mabel Hite, little musical comedy actress so popular in Chicago, is dying in a New York hospital. At her bedside is her ball player husband, Mike Donlin.

Mite Hite's condition is a result of bravery on her part. Two months ago she was ordered to undergo an operation for appendicitis. Not caring to break her contracts with her vaudeville managers, she insisted on delaying treatment until they had been fulfilled.

Last week she went to New York and went under the knife.

but weakened through the delay, developed peritonitis. Last night her physician announced she could not recover.

Miss Hite played long engagements here in "A Night for a Day" and "The Girl and the Bandit."

RUN DOWN BY AUTO

John C. Cross, granite dealer, was run down and painfully injured at LaSalle and Madison streets this afternoon by an auto driven by William Hosier, 1616 Quington avenue, Evanston.

Cross' left foot was crushed and he was bruised about the body.

Hosier was not arrested.

THE BIG FIGHT IS ON

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the Republican national convention was a shouting, stamping chaos of delegates, and the galleries were adding to the disorder with shouts and jeers.

Sergeant-at-arms Stone threatened to throw out the disturbers if quiet was not restored. Speakers could not be heard 50 feet from the platform.

Senator Elihu Root of New