IN PRAYER AND PRAISE.

The Camp Meeting Services Continue—The Sunday Program.

CAMP MEETING GROUNDS, TINDALL'S GROVE, Aug. 28.—The Young Men's Christian Association of Rock Island had charge of the camp meeting services Thursday. The tabernacle was nicely decorated with flowers and all were well pleased with the exercises. At 8:30 prayer services were held, followed by an address on "Giant Evils" by A. M. Bruner, assistant state secretary of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Bruner's address was well given and was full of valuable advice, and his hearers were all well pleased. At 3 p. m. a platform meeting was held which attracted a large congregation. At 6:30 p. m. A. M. Bruner conducted a men's meeting which was well attended. The Sunrise quartet, composed of Messrs. Lawrence and Headley Peterson and Herman Hansen and Paul Hansen, gave some delightful selections. Mr. Hansen and Mrs. F. W. Merrill sang a duet. After the men's meeting evangelistic services were held. J. P. Bailey, of Rock Island, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., made a splendid address, and this ended the services for the day.

The program for today is under the auspices of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society and was opened at 8 a. m. with prayer meeting, followed by bible reading at 9:15 a. m.; at 10:30 a. m. preaching, which was followed by a children's meeting at 1:30 p. m. At 3 p. m. the representatives of the missionary society addressed the congregation. At 4 p. m. Rev. J. A. Alford gave an interesting talk on bible study, which he illustrated with charts. Song service will be held this evening at 7 o'clock, followed by preaching and revival services at 7:30 p. m. Saturday's program will be as follows:

8:00 a. m.—Prayer meeting.
9:15 a. m.—Bible reading.
10:30 a. m.—Preaching.
1:30 p. m.—Junior league.
3:30 p. m.—Preaching.
4:00 p. m.—Epworth league.
7:00 p. m.—Song service.
7:30 p. m.—Lecture by Rev. W. H. Walter, D. D., president of the Wesleyan university of Bloomington.

Services for Sunday.

Sunday's program will be a special one. The crowd will likely be larger than ever on this occasion if the weather continues as pleasant as it has been the past week.

The number of campers on the grounds this year is larger than ever before.

Misses Mamie Daniels and Stella McClung, of Cambridge, are visiting at the camp grounds this week.

Misses Tillie and Dora Rinck, of Rock Island, are visiting with Miss Emma McCartney at No. 40.

A Brilliant Rural Wedding.

The Reynolds Press gives the following extended account of the Bows-Gauley wedding near Reynolds this week and to which reference has been made heretofore in THE ARGUS:

One of the most pleasant social events of the season was the marriage of Miss Margaret Gauley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gauley, to John W. Bows, of Rock Island, which took place at the residence of the bride's parents, northwest of Reynolds, Wednesday evening of this week. Promptly at 8 a. m., Miss Pettit, of Rock Island, seated her self at the organ and began playing the wedding march. The groom, accompanied by his best man, John Schried, of Rock Island, followed by the bride and bridesmaid, Miss Minnie Doonan, marched to the parlor, where Rev. S. P. Archer, pastor of the Reynolds Methodist Episcopal church, pronounced the words which bound them in the holy bonds of matrimony. The bride was dressed in cream albatross, trimmed in lace and ribbons, and carried in her hand a bouquet of marsehel neil roses. The bridesmaid was dressed in blue landsdown silk. The groom and best man wore the conventional costume. The presents were numerous and valuable.

Are You Tired?

All the time? This condition is a sure indication that your blood is not rich and nourishing as it ought to be and it may be if you will take a few bottles of the great blood purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla. Thousands write that Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured them of that tired feeling by giving them rich, red blood.

Hood's Pills act easily and promptly on the liver and bowels. Cures such headache.

FIRE ACROSS THE RIVER.

A $7,000 Blaze at Thee's Slaughter House.

A brilliant blaze illuminated the heavens on the Davenport side at 1 o'clock this morning, when Thee's slaughter house, located on Second street near Fillmore, went up in smoke, the flames communicating almost immediately to Jen's ice house leased by Heidt & Lerch. Had there been the faintest breeze from the west it would have been practically impossible to have prevented the destruction of the Kohrs and Zoecler packing houses, which are so closely separated from the ice houses. To the west of the ice houses stands the Kuch packing house, and this caught fire in one or two places, and the sky-light was burned off, but the flames there were promptly extinguished before material damage was done. In the course of 40 minutes the fire was over as far as the ice houses were concerned, but for fully twice that time the slaughter houses burned brightly, the flames rising above its top, and being lavishly fed by the grease with which such a building becomes impregnated, and by the contents of the cooling room.

The cattle were led safely away, but one, which broke away and did as animals are prone to do under such circumstances—made straight for the blazing building and rushed into the flames, where it burned to death.

The slaughter house, cooling room and machinery cost about $7,000, and were insured for about half that amount. The loss will fall heavily upon Mr. Thee. Upon the ice houses there was $500 insurance, representing perhaps a quarter of their value. They are understood to have contained some ice, but no large quantity.

PUPILS PLEASANT RECITAL

Those of Mrs. H. C. Marshall Give an Entertainment.

The music pupils of Mrs. H. C. Marshall gave a recital at the home of Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Marshall, 1112 Second avenue, last evening and it proved a thoroughly enjoyable and much appreciated event. The program opened with a duet from Herbert, "Alpine Bell," by Misses Mary Long and Mary Matthews, followed by Miss Mues's Allegretto, from Schubert. Then came the execution of "Tarentelle" from Heller, by Miss Alice Strayer, and a unique rendition of "Theme" from Halaeder on two pianos, by Mrs. Marshall and Miss Diberner. There was a piano solo by Miss Boggess in conclusion of part first. Miss Elizabeth Matthews opened part two with Jungmann's "Will O' the Wisp," and Mrs. Herman Huyett followed with the "Carnival of Venice," while Miss Florence Battles' "Barabulle" from Dalmatich came next. The most clever event of the evening was the six-hand number, "Oerion," by Miss Diberner and Mesdames Huyett and Marshall. Miss Susie Woodruff then played "Vienna Galop" from Ketterer, and Miss Mary Long rendered "Inmost Soul" from Lange.

Railway Notes.

William Doyle, of the Milwaukee freight department force, is laid up with illness.

W. D. Hatfield, commercial agent of the T. P. & W. at Peoria, visited local officials today.

Peculiar sights are to be seen around the depot waiting rooms during the mid-night hour and in the early morning. One individual who frequently appears is the woman who smokes a pipe. She generally lights up in the ladies' waiting room much to the annoyance of others sitting about. It finally becomes necessary for the man in the ticket office to request her to move into the gent's department if she desires to continue behind the pipe. An old lady was enjoying a smoke from an antiquated pipe at the depot this morning seated in the waiting room among traveling men and others. The curious man told the agent that this was a rather singular sight to him. "Oh, that's nothing," replied the agent, "almost every day the old woman with the pipe is among the people who travel. It has not been long since an old and young lady, whom I afterward found were grand-mother and grand-daughter, pulled out their pipe and enjoyed a smoke in the depot. The young lady, I suppose, was about nineteen, but she smoked as unconcernedly as aman of 70."

Putting Up Sinks.

The Weir Plow company has sold all its surplus building materials at East Moline to Edwards & Walsh for use on the insane hospital buildings. The plow work's structure is being put under roof and then work will be abandoned indefinitely. Architect Traeger has arranged to close his office in the East Moline Tool & Engine company's building and will probably return to Peoria Monday. Thus it appears that the plant will not be ready for the winter rush, owing to the controversy with the East Moline company. It seems that the dispute is all about the payment of $5,000, the first installment on the $50,000 bonus to be given to the Weir people. It is barely possible that the matter may yet be adjusted and the plant finished in time to accommodate the spring implement trade, but this is not very probable. The apparent indifference of the Weir people on this score is quite as surprising as any other phase of the situation—Moline Republican-Journal.

Serious Runaway in the Country.

Miss Eva McConnell, of Bowling, daughter of Andrew McConnell, was badly injured Wednesday evening by being thrown from a buggy while returning from camp meeting in company with her brother. There were four buggies in a line and all were going at a good rate when the first one stopped, which piled up the other two behind. In the fourth buggy were Clarence and Eva McConnell and Clarence tried to avoid the collision by turning out, but his wheels struck the other buggy. This frightened the horse into a run and the buggy upset. Mr. McConnell was thrown out and Miss Eva does not know whether she jumped or was thrown out. Ed Connelly was in the third buggy and he was also slightly injured. Mr. McConnell was badly shaken up. Miss McConnell rested well last evening and will soon be able to get around again.
