SHE WANTS TO BE SINGLE.

Mrs. McWilliams says H. Husband is Faithless.
 Mary McWilliams wants the bonds of matrimony existing between herself and John McWilliams annulled. She has started suit with that end in view in the circuit court, through her attorneys, McEniry & McEniry. The complainant says that she was married in Rural township Nov. 13, 1886, to John McWilliams, and they lived together until Nov. 22, 1892, when she says she left him.

Mrs. McWilliams charges her husband of infidelity. She names as co-respondent Lucy Green, of La Salle. She also charges her husband with drunkenness, and when intoxicated she says he abused her. Mrs. McWilliams also asks for the restoration of her maiden name, Mary Schreier.

A Big Partition Suit.

The Aledo Democrat says: "A bill filed in the circuit today is the largest partition suit ever before this court. It is for partition of the estate of the late William Drury, deceased, and the defendants named in the bill number 49. Mrs. 'Vashti' Drury, in her own right and as executrix of the last will and testament of William Drury, deceased, is the complainant. The case involves 6,000 or 7,000 acres of land in Mercer county. Mrs. Drury having renounced the will, proposes to take under the law, which will give her one-half of the estate, and for this reason brings this suit in partition in order to have her share set off for her."

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centers in the stomach, gently stimulates the Liver and Kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50 cents or $1 per bottle at Hartz & Ulmeyer's drug store.

THE SIXTH SENSE.

THE POWER OF WHAT WE CALL CLAIRVOYANCE POSSIBLE FOR ALL.

"Julia" Gives Assurance Through William T. Stead That Anybody Who Places Can Do the Occult—A Few of the Simpler Instructions Easily Understood.

William T. Stead, author, journalist, theosophist and general student of all that is odd, now announces that he has received by the means of automatic writing from a very well known spirit the information that every living person has what is called the sixth sense. In other words, we are all mediums, contrary to the general supposition, even among the advanced disciples of spiritualism.

The message or communication is given to the world through Editor Stead, who for the time being is under the guidance of this feminine control, the real author of the statements being known as Julia. Her messages have been coming at intervals for five years and among the students of the occult are regarded as absolutely true. That is why Mr. Stead lays so much importance upon them. It is for this reason he holds that the communication between the inhabitants of the world and those who have passed away can be much more free if only people will have it that way. In the message Julia says: "What I have to tell you is that all those who really wish to have the sixth sense, or whatever you may choose to term it, so developed that they can at will become sensibly or to their senses cognizant of the reality of the existence of the beings who encompass them about can acquire the gift or faculty if they will but adapt themselves to the laws of the region into which they wish to penetrate. It is a potentiality of the universal human race. Nor is it only human. Many animals have the open eye. They see when their owners are blind. But you can see if you choose. It rests with yourselves."

"There is no short cut to the sixth sense. There may be something like it in mesmerism and hypnotism, but that is not at all what I mean. What is possible is for every child of man to become what you call normally clairvoyant—that is, for any one to possess himself of the power of seeing and hearing, as plainly as he sees and hears material things, the invisible forms and voices that surround him."

"The power is one that ought to be under control. There will be only harm done if you do not shut at will the clairvoyant eye. Imagine the mischief that would happen if when life and death hung on the absolute concentration of all faculties on the subject immediately before you, if at the supreme moment you were to see the whole phantasmagoria of borderland pass between you and the point of exclusive interest. If you cannot control your sixth sense, you had better not acquire it. It is much better to do without it than to be controlled by it."

"You should have the sense at command when you need it, as you have your microscope or your telescope, but better have neither if you are to be compulsorily doomed at other will than yours to interrupt the work of life by a spectacle of the infinitely little or the infinitely remote. Man should always be master of his senses, especially of the sixth sense, as it is called."

In her further statements to Mr. Stead Julia goes on to say that the investigator must always be simple and not to be constantly thinking of himself. In other words, self-consciousness must be avoided, or it will play havoc with the chances of success. All one's mental faculties are needed. Everything must be examined and tested without prejudice and without partiality. Nothing can be achieved without time and patience.

The first thing to be done to see the invisible ones, Julia says, is to be very still and to wait. When quite still and passive, close your eyes and think of the one whom you wish to see. If it is a friend still alive in the body, it will help you if at the same time, although that is not essential, he or she be also passive and alone. When you have two spirits in accord, both seeking the same thing, the difficulties are less, but you must be agreed in heart and soul. If you could keep the concentrated quiet attention for a longer period than five minutes without becoming tired, then you had better do so. At no time, however, force yourself, for a strain means failure.

If in this way, Julia declares, one succeeds in acquiring success, it is acquired forever. There will be no more parting between the one who has gained his object and the spirit world. The greatest danger is that the sixth sense may control the individual instead of being in itself controlled.—New York Herald.

Warwickshire's Ducking Stool.

Warwickshire boasts the possession of a larger number of ducking stools than any other English county, and two of the oldest have just been brought into public notice. The Warwick town council have carefully repaired the curious instrument of punishment which visitors to the crypt of the famous Beauchamp church there are familiar with. Kenilworth also possesses a well preserved ducking stool which is said to have been in use as a means of bringing souls to a reasonable frame of mind so long ago as the period when Elizabeth grazed Earl Leicester's castle with her presence and before the Amy Robsart legend became in any way associated with the building.—Westminster Gazette.

TRIAL OF MRS. PORTER.

Being Prosecuted on a Charge of Murder.

The trial of Mrs. Emma Porter before Judge Gest at Cambridge, on a charge of murdering her husband is exciting a great deal of interest. The prosecution yesterday brought up considerable evidence that was damaging to Mrs. Porter. It is expected that the evidence will all be brought in during the remaining days of this week. Judge John P. Hand, who is defending Mrs. Porter, vigorously denounced the treatment which had been accorded to her. He, as her attorney, was refused assistance to submit to being photographed while behind the bars.

The first witness for the prosecution was Coroner F. H. McArthur, of Geneseo. He swore that at the time of the funeral Mrs. Porter's actions were such as to excite suspicion. She was not visibly affected at the funeral and took little interest in the affair.
 Dr. Spencer, of Geneseo, testified as to the strong indications of poison in the system at the time of the autopsy. He gave it as his opinion that C. L. Porter died from arsenical poison. Mrs. Porter appears in the court room dressed in deep black. Her daughter, Annie, and sister, Mrs. Stokes, of Joliet, accompany her.

Olsson, Augustana college, Rock Island, Ill.

SOUTH HEIGHTS HITS.

South Heights, Aug 13—Mrs. B. McCarthy and Mrs. Mannheim spent Thursday at Clinton.

Miss Mollie Schroeter and brother, Otto, are visiting Rev. Winter and family at Hampton.

Miss Lizzie Smith and Mrs. John Irvin were recent visitors at the Bertelsen camp near the Tower.

Mrs. Thomas returned to her home at Lyndon the first of the week after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. L. Emery.

Mrs. William Tibbrook and son, Clarence, of Port Byron, spent a short time with Mrs. E. J. Snyder and family Thursday.

Misses Maud and Betty Irvin and Miss Bowen and Master Harry Snyder spent a few days with Mrs. J. Hanns near Colons this week.

A foul breath is one of the greatest afflictions that a man or woman can have. An affliction not only to themselves, but to those with whom they come in contact. A foul breath is a great discourager of affection. It would probably be more so if people only realized what bad breath means. Bad breath is one of the symptoms of constipation. Some of the other symptoms are sour stomach, loss of appetite, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, heartburn and distress after eating. These things mean indigestion. They lead to dyspepsia and worse things. They all start with constipation, and constipation is inexcusable because it can be cured easily, quickly and permanently, by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They give to nature just the little help that she needs. There is no case of biliousness, constipation, indigestion, "heartburn," or any of the rest of the night-mare breeding brood, that these little "Pellets" will not cure. Send 21 cents in 1-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1,008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

To Consumptives.

As an honest remedy, Foley's Honey and Tar does not hold out false hopes in advanced stages, but truthfully claims to give comfort and relief in the very worst cases, and in the early stages to effect a cure. Sold by M. F. Bahnsen and T. H. Thomas, druggists.

For Over Fifty Years

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for children's teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

FINE SHOW FOR CHILDREN.

Sigs, Dolman & Blake's Dog, Pony and Monkey Show 11-20 Aug. 20 and 21.

Sigs, Dolman & Blake's big aggregation of trained dogs, ponies and monkeys will be seen in Rock Island in two performances daily Aug. 30 and 31, under spacious tents that will be pitched on the show grounds on Twelfth street between Fifth and Sixth avenues.

The troupe is the largest of its kind in the world, comprising 122 dogs, 38 ponies and 27 monkeys, all of which are seen in a program of difficult and amusing feats entirely new and original. The performances of these dog, pony and monkey comedians have been most favorably commented on by the press, and Prof. E. J. Blake has long been regarded as the most successful trainer of animals America has ever produced. Since his engagement with Sigs and Dolman several years ago Prof. Blake has proven his superior ability as a trainer, not alone as regards his work in connection with the show, which he has made the greatest of its kind in existence, but he has won the praise and admiration of every American citizen who has seen this wonderful exhibition.

Blair and His Bridge.

Frank P. Blair assures us that within a short time work will be resumed on the Crescent bridge. He says, substantially, that it might be begun within a week or two, just as well as not, but that there has been so much talk to the effect that the bridge would never be built, except on paper, that he is determined to make a show when the work is started, and to that end he will not begin until he has things all in hand so the work can be rushed with a force. That is what he says is going to happen very soon, when he gets things all ready for it.—Davenport Democrat.

Formal Notice.

At the last meeting of H. T., No. 1, the benefit certificates were ready for delivery, but were not called for. Since then a number have been delivered, but there are still a good many awaiting delivery. We find, after a trial, that we cannot send them out by a clerk, as that method is too expensive and slow. Those who have not yet received their certificates will kindly call for them at the office, fourth floor of Mitchell & Lynde building. The next meeting of the Home Tribunal has been called for the third Friday of August. All are requested to be present. SPENCER MATTHEW, Sec'y.

The Newborn and the Dead.

Lavater, in his "Physiognomy," makes the following curious remarks: "I have had occasion to observe some infants immediately on their births and have found an astonishing resemblance between their profile and those of their father. A few days after this resemblance almost entirely disappeared. The influence of the air and food and probably the change of posture had so altered the design of the face that you could have believed it a different individual. I afterward saw two of these children die, one at 6 weeks and the other at 4 years of age, and about 12 hours after their death they immediately recovered the profile which had struck me so much at their birth, only the profile of the dead child was, as might be expected, more strongly marked and more terse than that of the living."

Taken With Malarial Fever.

"I was taken with malarial fever and medicines did not help me. I felt weak and tired and had no appetite. I was advised to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and when I had taken four bottles I was in good health and am thankful for what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me." Mrs. Minnie Ross, corner Fourteenth and Lincoln streets, Springfield, Ill.
