

The Weather We May Have
 Fair tonight and Tuesday; cooler in southern portion of Illinois tonight. Today's temperature 66.
 J. M. SHERIDAN, Observer.

CITY CHAT.

Butter 15 cents at Maucker's. Remember the name—Kinship. Lee's Little Gem is the best broom. Raisins, six pounds for 25 cents, at Maucker's. Eberhart's music house headquarters for sheet music. Summers & Co. for the Novelty Blue Flame oil stove. Nice strawberries, three boxes for 25 cents at Wheelan's. The city council holds its semi-monthly session this evening. Davenport and Rock Island sweet corn 5 cents per can at Maucker's. Fresh eggs 10 cents per dozen, good butter 15 cents per pound, at Maucker's. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heffernan are the proud parents of a new son—their first born.

Now let someone get the weather man and the ball club together and let them arbitrate it. The internal revenue collections of Deputy J. H. Lamont for last week aggregated $983.20. Miss Mabel Crocker, of Galesburg, is visiting at the home of J. D. Taylor on Nineteenth street.

Tonight, grand pool contest at the Gem Billiard Parlor, 305 Twentieth street. All are invited. Agent M. J. Young, of the Burlington, arrived home this morning from a trip to St. Louis.

A flag staff is being placed on Masonic Temple today from which old glory will hereafter float. A class of 88 children received their first holy communion at St. Joseph's church yesterday morning.

The Coal Valley schools closed last Friday, owing to the prevalence of measles among the children. Dried apricots, three pounds for 25 cents. Peaches and prunes, four pounds 25 cents at Maucker's.

You should see that beautiful line of Peoria stoves and ranges at Summers & Co's., Twentieth street. Head Attorney J. G. Johnson, of the Woodmen order, left Saturday night for a visit with his family at Peabody, Kas.

A special train of two cars of gun carriages from Rock Island arsenal left over the Burlington last night for Fort Myers, Va. A local statistician has discovered that one-half of the new ball team are still without sweethearts. Come, girls; this won't do.

The Woman's Improvement guild of Trinity church will meet at the home of Mrs. C. C. Carter Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Miss Grace Dewey, of Geneseo, is a relative of Admiral Dewey. Her great grandfather and Admiral Dewey's grandfather were brothers.

Don't smile in derision when you see the ice-man these cool mornings. He'll give you a good long run for your money before the end of next October. Fred W. Krell, mailing clerk in the postoffice, has been quite sick with la grippe, his place being filled Saturday by Will H. Dixon, of the Peoria mail route.

Auction sale of houses, 431 Forty-fourth street and 446 Forty-sixth street, postponed to Saturday at 5 p. m. Cash required $100. For monthly payment terms on balance, call on E. H. Guyer.

At the Baptist church last evening the usual sermon was dispensed with and a nicely arranged temperance program was carried out, consisting of brief papers, short talks, songs and recitations.

Frank Ritze and Miss Emma Nelson, both of this city, were married at the home of the bride, 1221 Ninth avenue, at 8 o'clock Saturday evening. Rev. T. W. Grafton performing the ceremony.

The village election in Port Byron last week resulted as follows, there being but one ticket in the field: A. A. Olin, president; R. L. Carey, Henry Tomer, E. B. Stone, trustees; W. D. Hall, clerk.

B. B. Ray, formerly connected with the Rock Island road in this city, and who is now secretary of the state railroad and warehouse commission, is said to be slated for an appointment in one of the volunteer brigades. Senator Cullom has been putting in a few words in his behalf at Washington. Color Sergeant R. P. Hampton telegraphed this Argus late this afternoon the 6th regiment's orders to move to Washington.

The past few days have given your fellow citizen an exasperating opportunity to drain his umbrella down your back while he elbows his way to the front of the crowd to read the latest war bulletin.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. chapel. By vote of the union all members appearing at the meeting without their white ribbons will be fined 5 cents.

M. F. Kirkwood, traveling salesman for the L. M. Rumsey Manufacturing company, of St. Louis, dealers in plumbers' and steam fitters' supplies has moved his family here and will make Rock Island his headquarters.

The Western hospital for the insane at Watertown was opened today for the reception of patients and for the inspection of the public. About 100 patients from Jacksonville were placed in the institution this afternoon.

The graduating exercises of the Port Byron academy will be held tomorrow evening at the Methodist church in Port Byron. The candidates for graduation are Louise Bruner, Alice Cooley and Frank Biehlemer.

Eminent Sir James Burton McFarlick, of the grand commandery Knights Templar, of Illinois, will inspect Everts Commandery tonight, after which there will be work on the order of the temple, to be followed by a banquet.

The United Presbyterians of Moline have organized a church with the following officers: S. H. Montgomery and William McConnell, deacons; Mrs. William Spohn, A. E. Montgomery, Jr., and M. Moberg, trustees, and David King, treasurer.

At the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon a special patriotic program was carried out. Short talks were made by Rev. Ira Allen, Mr. Bruner and others, interspersed by stirring patriotic songs, making a very enjoyable program for those present.

A very interesting service was held at the jail at 3 p. m. yesterday, the prisoners being addressed by Rev. T. W. Grafton and Will H. Dixon, both giving an earnest, practical address. At the close six prisoners took their stand for the right and resolved to lead henceforth a better life and abandon forever the old life of sin. Good literature, magazines and papers were then distributed among the prisoners.

Our stock is all new and up-to-date. We have no old stock to offer. Pattern hats at half price and many other bargains.

Stole Clothes. Ella Vance, who resides on Fifth avenue near Twenty-seventh street, is a prisoner at the county jail. Tomorrow morning she will be tried in the police court on a charge of larceny. She was arrested today by Officer Ryan on complaint of Mrs. H. D. Elwell and Mrs. George Wright, while in the act of getting out of town with several bundles of clothing belonging to them, and which they had given her to wash. The Vance woman had the clothing hauled to the Diamond Jo landing in an express wagon, and had it billed for New Boston.

Epworth League Anniversary. At the First M. E. church last evening was celebrated the ninth anniversary of the Epworth league. Nine years ago this society was formed by uniting the five young people's societies already in existence in the Methodist Episcopal church. There are now 18,650 chapters with 1,275,000 members and 6,350 junior chapters with 360,000 members. The program last evening consisted of glimpses of the year's work given by Misses Hattie Henderson, Nora Erick, Minnie Major, Jennie Taylor, Mrs. S. E. Mattison, Mrs. F. E. Gould and S. E. Mattison, chairmen of the different departments of work. The Y. M. C. A. quartet of Davenport, rendered two vocal selections. J. A. Johnson and Miss Gertie Wilcox sang a duet, and also Misses May Liddery and Edna Dunsmore, who represented the junior league. The anniversary address was delivered by the pastor, Rev. C. O. McCulloch, on the "Elements of Power."

Before You Buy a Refrigerator

TAKE A GOOD LOOK AT IT

Notice if it can be taken all apart to be cleaned, and to let the fresh air get into the corners, and see if it has movable flues and air tight locks; but if that's too much bother, just look for the name. If it reads

LEONARD CLEANABLE REFRIGERATOR

Buy it. It's all right—in fact it's the only one that DOES have all these good points. A perpetual circulation of dry cold air keeps the food from becoming moist or musty. It has metal ice racks and other advantages.
