Wets Score Again at Louisville

COURT OPENS WAY TO SELL GREAT STOCK

Dealers Hesitate, However, Fearing Reverse Higher Up.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 13.—Judge Walter Evans, in federal district court today, in effect for the second time, held war time prohibition unconstitutional, sustained an attack upon the constitutionality of the Volstead enforcement act and granted an injunction restraining Edward Hamilton, collector of internal revenue for Kentucky, and District Attorney W. V. Gregory from interfering with the sale by two Louisville distillers of their "floor stock" of tax-paid whisky.

Have Million Gallons. The war prohibition and prohibition enforcement acts were attacked again in Judge Evans' court here today the second day of arguments in a suit to test their constitutionality. The suit was brought by W. Marshall Bullitt, Louisville, on behalf of the Wright & Taylor, and the Brown-Forman distilling companies of this city, and seeks to prevent government interference with sale of nearly a million gallons of tax-paid whisky owned by the companies.

Dealers Pleased. Providence, R. I., Nov. 13.—Rhode Island liquor dealers were jubilant today over the preliminary injunction issued by United States District Judge Brown forbidding government officers from enforcing the provisions of the war time prohibition act affecting the sale of beer.

Lift Chicago Lid Soon? Chicago, Ill., Nov. 13.—Saloonkeepers and wholesale liquor dealers expressed hope today that the war time prohibition would soon be lifted in Chicago.

Decision Saturday. Federal Judges Carpenter and FitzHenry have taken the cases under advisement and announce they will render a decision Saturday. If their ruling follows the decision of Judges in Rhode Island and Kentucky yesterday, an injunction will be issued restraining the government officials from enforcing the war-time prohibition measure in the Chicago and Peoria districts.

Attorney Levy Mayer, who represented the liquor interests, in these cases, expressed the view that if the decision is favorable to the wets there will be no appeal from the court ruling, which will delay the lifting of the ban.

BELGIAN DUTCH CRISIS ONLY TALK

Paris, Wednesday, Nov. 13.—(By The Associated Press.)—Alarmist reports of high tension and possible rupture of diplomatic relations between Belgium and Holland which have been current recently, at Brussels and in diplomatic and peace circles have their source in the interior politics of Belgium, according to a member of the Belgian peace delegation in Paris.

Newspapers Urged to Cut on Size and Advance All Rates

New York, Nov. 13.—The convention of the American Newspaper Publishers' association, called to consider the news print paper shortage, yesterday adopted unanimously the report of the resolutions committee, which says: "Paper manufacturers say there is a world-wide shortage. At present newspapers are using about 10 per cent more paper than is being produced, creating an annual shortage of 200,000 tons. Your committee therefore recommends: "That the regulations of the war industries board for the conservation of news print be strictly adhered to, and that the full text of all these regulations be sent to all the daily and Sunday newspapers of the United States, whether or not they are members of the A. N. P. A. "That the publishers everywhere be urged to materially increase advertising and subscription rates and at the same time limit the size of their issues. "That no newspaper enter into a yearly contract for advertising at a fixed rate, but make rates adjustable monthly or quarterly. "That the A. N. P. A. send out a standard form of adjustable contracts for advertising."

Synthetic Whisky Salesman Tells How People Fell For It

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 13.—Four men, one of them a graduate chemist, today were under arrest in connection with what the police said was a scheme that had resulted in the sale of more than $100,000 worth of chemically compounded grain alcohol, coloring matter and water, called "whisky," to Chicago cabaret and saloon owners since the prohibition law became effective. The arrest followed a raid on the St. Lawrence Manufacturing company, makers of hair tonics and patent medicines, organized, police said, last spring by Reuben Bokorin, chemist, graduate, he said, of Columbia university and member of a prominent New York family, Harry Connor, alleged "salesman," said that, operating under the guise of a manufacturer. Bokorin obtained all the grain alcohol he desired without attracting suspicion.

HIT CLOTURE RULE TO END PEACE TALK

Washington, Nov. 13.—An attempt by Democratic sponsors to invoke the cloture rule so as to limit debate on the foreign relations committee reservations to the peace treaty failed today in the senate. By a vote of 44 to 36 with all of the Republicans present and Senators Reed, Missouri, and Shields, Tennessee, Democrats, voting in the affirmative, the senate adopted a motion by Senator Lodge to table an appeal from a ruling that the Democratic move was out of order.

PEOPLE MUST RELY MAINLY NOW ON FAITH

Coal Controversy Enters Technical Stage, Understood By Few. BY DAVID LAWRENCE. (Special to The Argus.) Washington, D. C., Nov. 13.—Chances for a settlement of the issues between coal operators and miners once and for all are excellent. Government officials are more than hopeful—they are optimistic. Now that the controversy over the injunction proceedings is at an end, the government feels free to turn its whole attention to the merits of the grievances and claims of each side. The general public unfortunately may lose interest simply because the strike has been called off, but the tasks of mediation here are only beginning now.

REVENUE AGENT IN CHICAGO A TARGET FOR CHINK BULLET

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 13.—Jack Denison, head of the internal revenue department's narcotic squad, narrowly escaped death today in a revolver battle with a dozen residents of Chicago's Chinatown. He arrested a Chinaman who was charged with bringing a quantity of opium from Kansas City. The prisoner asked to be permitted to visit a house in the vicinity and when the federal agent and his assistants reached the building they were greeted with a fusillade of bullets. Throwing the Chinaman in front of him as a shield Denison entered the building and searched the premises, but no opium was found. Seven Chinamen were arrested.
