DAILY

ORGANIZED LABOR—TRADE UNION ACTIVITIES

WASHINGTON, July 8. — The conclusion of the strike at the Union Typographical Pressman's National Union is being announced by the strike committee, and the men are returning to their jobs.

The strike is not over, however, as the committee is still holding talks with the company to try to reach a settlement.

MORGAN BUS DEAL JAMMED THROUGH WITHOUT PROTEST

Scheme Will Cost Bus Rider 50¢ More

Gravesend, July 8. — A scheme for a bus service in Gravesend has been announced by the company.

The scheme will cost the rider 50¢ more, with a view to reducing the congestion on the roads.

Depression Grips All Massachusetts

Unemployment Bad

By A. ALLEN

STRENGTHEN, July 8. — An industrial stamp has been placed on the streets of Strengthen, and the workers are being organized to stop the evil.

The move has been made in order to prevent the stamp from being used to suppress the workers.

End Strike Assumptions

It was also decided that this will be the last strike of the workers.

End Strike

Ritchie, Looking for Common Labor, Dries Detroit, July 8. — Albert Ritchie, a Chicago labor leader, is looking for common labor.

"I am heartily opposed to any strike that will inconvenience our fellow workers," said Mr. Ritchie.

The men of the labor bureau have been organizing for several weeks, and are now ready to strike.

Six Months in Chicago

PUBLIC SPEAKER

by Earl R. Fitch, General Labor Union at NORTHWEST HALL, cor. North and Western Avenues, WEDNESDAY, August 3rd, 1927, 8 P. M.

ADMISSION FREE

EVERYBODY INVITED

CHICAGO

THOUSANDS GATHER IN SEVEN HUGE MEETINGS; POLICE ARE PROVOCATIVE

Thousands of workers flooded into seven great meeting places in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Milwaukee, St. Louis, and other cities last week, to meet with the American Federation of Labor. They were already crowded with men and women, and filled the auditoriums to overflowing.

The meeting in New York was attended by 3,000 workers, and was addressed by A. F. of L. officials, as were all the other meetings.

In Philadelphia, a crowd of 2,000 gathered to hear the speakers, and the meeting was addressed by local union officials.

In Chicago, the meeting was addressed by A. F. of L. officials, and was attended by 1,500 workers.

In Milwaukee, the meeting was addressed by local union officials, and was attended by 1,000 workers.

In St. Louis, the meeting was addressed by A. F. of L. officials, and was attended by 1,000 workers.

In Washington, the meeting was addressed by A. F. of L. officials, and was attended by 800 workers.

In Boston, the meeting was addressed by A. F. of L. officials, and was attended by 500 workers.

In San Francisco, the meeting was addressed by A. F. of L. officials, and was attended by 300 workers.

In Los Angeles, the meeting was addressed by A. F. of L. officials, and was attended by 200 workers.

In Seattle, the meeting was addressed by A. F. of L. officials, and was attended by 100 workers.

In Denver, the meeting was addressed by A. F. of L. officials, and was attended by 50 workers.

In Kansas City, the meeting was addressed by A. F. of L. officials, and was attended by 50 workers.