CEREMONY OF CORONATION

For King Edward and His Queen Occurs in London.

A BRILLIANT EVENT

Is Successfully Carried Out in Every Detail.

Incidents of the Day.

London, Aug. 6. The king was crowned at 12:05, the queen at 12:55.

The arrangement was greeted by cheers from the crowd. The queen was clad in a sumptuous robe of gold, with a crown of jewels on her head.

The ceremony was held in St. Paul's Cathedral. A gigantic canopy was raised around the altar, and the king and queen sat on thrones placed at the front of the church. The ceremony began with a prayer, and the king was then crowned with the crown of St. Edward. The queen, preceded by the queen mother, was then crowned. The ceremony was followed by a banquet at Blenheim Palace.

BILDER FROM THE CEREMONY

- The king and queen were seated on thrones flanked by bishops and sindles. The queen was wearing a white gown and a gold crown. The king was wearing a purple gown and a crown of jewels.

- The queen mother was seated on a throne, flanked by bishops and heralds. She was wearing a gold crown.

- The ceremony was attended by members of the royal family, dignitaries, and foreign dignitaries.

- The queen was presented with a diamond tiara by the queen mother.

- The king was presented with a gold scepter by the queen mother.

- The ceremony ended with a banquet at Blenheim Palace.