CEREMONY OF CORONATION

Attended by the following:

The keynote of the ceremony, the coronation itself, the act of the monarch placing on the head of the king the crown of England, was intended by the late King Edward VII as a symbol of his sovereign right to the throne. The coronation is a ceremony of great importance in the history of the British realms and is carried out with great solemnity.

The ceremony includes the following:

1. The coronation of the king.
2. The anointing of the king.
3. The presenting of the sword.
4. The offering of the garter.
5. The imposition of the crown.
6. The repetition of the oath.
7. The coronation banquet.

The coronation is a ceremony that has been performed for centuries and is a symbol of the king's authority and power.

The Argus, Saturday, August 9, 1899.