

EVERYWHERE'S NEWS IN TABLOID FORM

El Paso.—Gen. Ynez Salazar, Mexican federal army who fled from Ojinaga before Gen. Villa's constitutionalists, captured on San Antonio train at Sanderson, Texas.

Washington.—Announcement of appointment of Col. Geo. V. Goethals as first civil governor of Panama canal zone expected soon.

Cumberland, Md.—Bedbugs cause cancer, according to John R. Littlefield, who has made life study of the disease.

Shaverstown, N. Y.—Two men instantly killed, four others injured in sawmill boiler explosion.

Newport, R. I.—Revenue cutters Acushnet and Itasca are believed to be searching for unidentified steamer in distress near Edgartown.

Everett, Wash.—Masked men escaped with $2,000 gold after holding up State Bank at Flint.

San Francisco.—Nearly 300 passengers of Northwestern Pacific steamer Tiburon rescued after vessel went ashore.

Washington.—Red Cross officials wired Gov. Hatfield of West Virginia offering aid for sufferers in flooded district.

East St. Louis, Ill.—Street Commissioner Godfrey, advocate of municipal economy, asked city council to cut his salary $200.

Dayton, O.—46 veterans of Civil War died in first 14 days of January at National Soldiers' Home here.

Sandusky, O.—Moses Price, 45, Lake Shore Railroad detective, shot and killed in gun battle with car robbers in railroad yards.

London.—Captain Inch and other officers of Volturno absolved of all blame of fire, loss of life and abandonment of steamship.

Plymouth.—British submarine A-7, making dive off this port, failed to come up. Naval authorities investigating.

Danville, Ill.—Mrs. Clara B. Gillis, wife of Jack Gillis, barber-shop proprietor, swallowed carbolic acid to escape arrest and prosecution on bigamy charge.

St. Louis.—13 striking garment workers, one of them a woman, charged with inciting riot near Meyer, Strauss & Rauh Garment Company's factory.

Baltimore, Md.—Plant of F. B. Royster Guano Co. burned with $100,000 loss. 250 men thrown out of work for winter.

Philadelphia.—L. G. Fouse, 63, founder and president Fidelity Mutual Life Ins. Men in America, dead.

Plymouth, Eng.—"All alive" signal given by disabled submarine A-7 when searchers found diver submerged in Whitsand Bay.

Springfield, Ill.—Appeals for funds to aid Carl Person, Clinton editor of Strike Bulletin, charged with murder of ex-Chief of Police Tony Musser, sent out by Illinois Federation of Labor.

Washington.—Pres. Wilson says he will not appoint new federal reserve board for several weeks.

New York.—Mrs. Priscilla D. Hackstaff, 64, prominent in suffrage movement, dead.

Rock Island, Ill.—Five indictments returned against Sheriff O. L. Bruner, charging bribery, escape, embezzlement and two counts on larceny.

Columbus, O.—Senator Kenyon, Iowa, declares loss to U. S. through hog cholera last year was one billion pounds of pork.

Winnipeg, Man.—Marie Lloyd, English actress, may not be permanently scarred by carbolic acid she used by mistake for face lotion. Police investigating who substituted acid.

Washington.—Pres. Wilson will not permit creation of price establishing bureau under proposed anti-trust legislation.

Omaha, Neb.—Three men, all under 19, shot and killed Harry E. Nickell, railroad teller Omaha Nat'l Bank, seriously wounded unidentified