

INTERESTING LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Behumil Michalek wants $25,000 damages for alleged slander. Claims former sweetheart, Mrs. Henrietta Simecek, 1105 N. Homan st., who won $8,000 breach of promise suit, hurt his reputation by testimony offered in court.

Hugie Hughes, famous auto driver, wanted by police for passing $129 check on De Jonghe Hotel Co., 12 E. Monroe st.

J. C. Carney, undertaker, arrested for speeding, fined $25. Broke. Asked judge for time until death would bring cash.

Stanley Satrek, alleged hold-up man, captured after exciting pistol chase.

Grand rally for Ald. J. Edward Clancy will be held at Conway Hall, Lake and Western av., Thursday, Jan. 29, 8 p. m.

Dynamiting of old piling in South Branch river at W. Jackson st., stopped by police. Menaced "L" road.

Dr. John Bennett, dentist, and Waldemar Standow, 547 N. Dearborn st., held for larceny.

Mrs. Virginia Brooks Washbourne attacks vice conditions in 1st ward. Claims that Miss Marion Drake would put an end to conditions.

Mrs. Edith Hoffhiemer, 31, 2d floor, quarreled with Mrs. Podman Robeson, 3d floor. 21 families in apartment become involved in squabble. Judge Goodnew threatened to put whole apartment under peace bond.

Chicago City Railway wants authority to borrow $4,000,000 and issue $1,400,000 in bonds.

Mrs. Eva Conrad, 908 Webster av., caught wedding ring in clothes line. Finger badly torn. Amputated.

Policeman Daniel J. Barton, alleged to have freed Jacob Nozovjurek, 413 N. Desplaines st., for $3 and rusty revolver, to be brought before trial board.

Northwest Side Commercial Ass'n will meet 12:30 noon, Thursday, Jan.

29, at Gersten's Cafe, Ashland and Division sts. Sheriff Michael Zimmer, principal speaker.

"Dago Frank" Lewis discharged by Judge Beitler. Detectives reprimanded by judge for shooting up dive.

School tract investigators to question six witnesses. Two new buildings wanted by board.

Mrs. Herman A. Bommer, jeweler, 402 W. North av., took $500 worth of watches to man at 1520 N. LaSalle st. Man took them into other room. Watches gone.

Evanston city council may order N. W. "L" tracks elevated. Too many accidents.

William Jackson, negro, who took uniform and 20 cents from Lardy Mitka, Western Union messenger, 1805 W. 13th st., shot by detectives. Jackson will recover.

John C. Hartzell found guilty of taking gold from dentists' offices.

Wm. T. Rixey, prodigal son, ordered to return home by Judge Fake.

Harry Lutz, George Graham and Frank M. Gordon given indeterminate sentences in Joliet. Plead guilty to stealing 500 horses.

Traffic on C. & O. P. "L" delayed by derailed coach.

Creosoted Wood Paving Block Ass'n bankrupt. Liabilities $25,000. Assets $12,000.

Unidentified woman, 35, killed by C. & N. W. freight at N. Curtis st. crossing.

Samuel Harris, 4910 Indiana av., ass't sup't Porter & Co., arrested. Alleged to have taken articles from store to give lady friends.

Frank Vaiva, 4641 Flournoy st., admits slaying Ingwald Helland, according to police. Claims Helland was breaking into butcher shop.

Mrs. Amelia Russell came from New York to marry Alexander Kaiser. Kaiser beat it with $600 worth of stuff.

Lawrence O'Hern jealous of man wife knew 36 years ago. Made life