

LOCAL DOINGS IN TABLOID FORM

Jury for Stalla Czemerowska, on trial for murder of Frank Koczniski, her fiance, completed.

Trial of Mrs. Augusta Dietz and George Nurnberg for murder of woman's husband continued until March 16th.

Ald. Charles D. Twigg of 28th ward choked and robbed by two men. Lost $19 and $50 stickpin.

Seven jurors in Mrs. Louise Sear Van Keuren murder trial. Mrs. Van Keuren objected to women jurors.

Former Governor Charles S. Deenen claims prison is good thing. Says prisoners live longer than those who have liberty.

Disturbance created at Logan Square Theater, Milwaukee av., when discharged hypnotic subject exposed alleged fake. Edwin De Love held for creating trouble.

Miss Catherine Bender, 6007 S. Carpenter st., knocked down by runaway in loop. Severely injured. John Poot, traffic policeman, bruised.

Ernest Palmer will speak on "Insurance and Fire Prevention" at North-West Side Commercial Ass'n Luncheon, Gerston's Cafe, Ashland av. and Division st., Thursday, March 12, 12:30 noon.

Saloon booths ordered out in barrooms by Chief Gleason. Police given orders to strip curtained stalls in wineroms.

Claimed that Samuel Caplow, 16, 4918 Calumet av., was lured into saloon and robbed of $160. Warrants issued for three saloonkeepers and woman running negro boarding house.

Charles Gading, 1063 Cornelia av., held for abusing wife, released to attend funeral of 6-year-old daughter, Margaret. Child died from spinal meningitis.

Corporation Counsel William H. Sexton answers "loafing" charges. Claims Efficiency Bureau is sore because refused permission to dig into City Hall matters.

15 indictments returned by federal grand jury. Rifling mails, stealing cigars and smuggling among offenses.

Series of five weekly discussion meetings will be held at Shakespeare School, 46th and Greenwood av., beginning Friday, March 13, 8 p. m.

Rob Roy Ricketts voluntarily turned over $30,000 personal property to defunct million-dollar art concern. Receivers having difficulty to learn condition of firm.

Both subway plans to appear on ballot. Voters will have chance to decide on tube question.

Result unchanged by recount in 11th and 16th Wards. H.-H. men fall to get on ballot.

Edward F. Weyerson, 164 W. Washington st., arrested. Alleged bigamy.

Four cab drivers fined $10 and costs for acting as guides to disreputable resorts.

Robert Young captured after auto chase. Charged with trying to raid Peter Papadinas' restaurant, 1051 E. 43rd st.

Patrick Cormody, 3736 Wallace st., struck by stolen auto. Timothy O'Brien and Frank Roedemeister arrested.

Thomas Maloney fined $10 as alleged "jackroller." Charged with taking $10 from Robert McFadden.

Dr. Alvin C. Hiester, 3625 22d st., held for murder. Alleged to have performed criminal operation on Mrs. Elizabeth O'Donnell, 32, 3414 W. Polk st.

Francis Palcyn, 801 N. LaSalle st., held for abduction. Alleged to have taken Ethel Russell, 18, 5334 W. Van Buren st., to hotel. Palcyn was fined $200 for disorderly conduct.

John Zecdeck fell 50 feet at McCord & Co.'s plant, W. 120th st. Only slightly bruised.

Julius Hoffman, 65, 11713 Stewart av., dropped dead on street car. Heart disease.