NEW INTERESTING CLUE IN COOK DEATH MYSTERY

New Haven, Conn., March 19.—A new puzzle in the mystery surrounding the death of March 4 of Miss Lillian M. Cook, former stenographer of Virginus J. Mayo, was added today. Police discovered a new witness who claims to have seen an automobile with all lights extinguished, speed to the top of Westrock thirteen hours before Miss Cook's body was found there.

This circumstance was basis for a new theory that Miss Cook's death did not occur on the lonely mountain top.

It was reported that papers would be served here Saturday upon Mayo by the Scranton woman who claims him as her husband.

WHITE SLAVERS SELL FOUR GIRLS IN NEW YORK

New York, March 19.—Four girls, not one of them out of their 'teens—have been bought outright by New York detectives in the latest crusade against white slavers, Police Commissioner Woods announced today. The price in each case was $25.

Louis Abrams, a palefaced youth, went on trial today, charged with selling 19-year-old Lily Levine to a detective. Abe Levenson, fat, muscular dive-keeper, who pleaded guilty to the same charge, was to be sentenced today.

'T WASN'T A "BEAR" DANCE

Boston. — Mayor Curley forced young society women in a classic Greek dance at a woman suffrage benefit to wear stockings. He said bare feet and legs were "shocking to public morals."

GREAT COLOR SCHEME!

Union, N. J.—Blue snow, pink frogs and metamorphosis of white ducks into green, caused by acids from a chemical factory draining into a stream on his place are complaints in a farmer's injunction suit.
