

ing to dispose of body. Man disappeared before police arrived.

Alfred Hamberger enjoined from exhibiting movie entitled "Victory." Edward Abeles claimed producer advertised him as leading man when he did not appear in film.

Auto belonging to Joseph Shapiro struck Sylvia Neumerowsky, 6, 1078 W. 14th st. Shapiro not held by police.

Marion Lathrop, 27, held for abduction. Charged with inducing Pearl Simpson, 17, Peoria, to elope on promise of marriage.

Trial of John W. Worthington, president of defunct American Banking Association, for using mails to defraud, continued until May 14.

Joseph Riley and John Stone, waiters Lipsites & Gordon's saloon, 64 W. Van Buren, stabbed by patron. Riley may die.

Benjamin Klein, 1105 S. Halsted st., arrested. Alleged to have taken $150 ring from Mrs. Geraldine Cade, 2321 N. California av.

Omar C. Harris, 27 W. Washington st., is sending petition to governor for license to operate employment bureau. License was revoked by labor board.

Dr. Arthur Schultz, 6301 Wentworth av., and Charles Miller, 3315 Pierce av., held in connection with death of Florence Lindquist, 18, from illegal operation.

Leonidas Aubin, Newark, N. J., missing. Police searching.

Stanley Kowkanski, 690 Fay st., kicked by horse in abdomen. May die.

Oscar Rossmark, Norwood Park, wants court to place him in office of constable. Claims he has been denied right to assume job.

Louis Tomazewski has filed suit for $624 against Maywood Trust and Savings Bank. Bank says money has been withdrawn.

Prof. Herman Hahn, noted German sculptor and designer, here.

Harley S. Richardson, former postmaster, Oswego, Ill., sentenced to 18 months in penitentiary for embezzling postal funds.

Mrs. C. I. Loudenback, 5157 W. Grand av., wants divorce. Hubby too familiar with other women.

Mrs. Aileen Christopher must explain $10,000 claim for witness fees in brick trust case. Will appear Saturday before Judge Landis.

Bernard Semper, owner of Jackson Park Storage Co., kicked wife and stayed out nights. Divorce suit filed.

Sanda Lubruzzo, 11116 Cambridge av., died from bullet wound received April 19.

Editor of American Druggist wants drug stores made first aid stations. Suggests state appropriation to cover cost.

John O'Malley, 4050 Wilcox av., seriously injured by street car.

Sophia Metzler, 16, 1460 Melrose av., died from injuries received from street car Monday.

Emma Mowatt, 1249 Blue Island av., struck by street car Saturday, died at County Hospital.

DON'T WANT JOHN D. MONEY FOR THE GOVERNMENT

Washington, May 6.—"John D. Rockefeller, Jr., has attempted to debauch an American commonwealth. The blood of women and children is on the hands of his brutal employes," declared Sen. Ashurst of Arizona in the Senate this afternoon in urging adoption of an amendment to the agricultural bill preventing government acceptance of any Rockefeller money.

STILL AFTER SETTLEMENT

Assistant Corporation Counsel Lee D. Mathias and Ald. M. J. Healy today continued their efforts to bring about peace in the brickmakers' strike by notifying leaders on both sides to attend a conference which will be held in the City Hall this afternoon.

The strike began nearly three months ago. Since then about 125,000 men, all engaged in the building industry, have been affected.