*With the Trib Shy Jim Keeley, and the Record-Herald-Inter-Ocean Under His Managing Wing, What Is Going To Develop?—How'll the Three
Morning Sheets Line Up?*

BY N. D. COCHRAN

The prospects are fine for the seat of war being moved from Mexico to Chicago, and winding up with a real war in the Chicago morning newspaper field.

The purchase of the Record-Herald and Inter-Ocean by Jim Keeley, who helped build up the Tribune, takes one paper out of the morning field; and means that the Record-Herald will be a big factor in that field.

Either the Tribune or Examiner, and perhaps both, will lose some circulation as prestige, but which suffers most will depend upon whether Keeley plays with the Trib against the Examiner or with the Examiner against the Trib.

While Keeley and Andy Lawrence don't love one another like brothers,
