

ANNE MORGAN EATS HER LUNCHESES WITH HER WORKING GIRL FRIENDS

New York. The restaurant serves to the member of the "Spug" Club appetizing food served in the dainties manner.

Miss Morgan is a woman of the simplest tastes, both in her dressing and eating, and if one should happen in the "Spug" restaurant at luncheon time one might not realize for the moment that the gray-haired woman with the strong face and ordinary black gown and hat was the daughter of the late czar of finance, rather she might be taken for a self-respecting business woman of moderate income.

THE STINGY VARIETY

"Chollie is certainly a peach, but he won't give me an engagement ring."

"Perhaps he's a cling stone."

Miss Anne Morgan takes most of her lunches at the new "Spug" restaurant that has recently been opened for the working girls of lower
