E. S. ADAMS SUES BERT M'CORMICK FOR ALIENATING HIS WIFE'S LOVE

Startling Story of High Life Behind the Scenes in the Exclusive Society Circles of Chicago and Lake Forest

—A Board of Trade Clubman, a Millionaire Newspaper Publisher and—a Woman.

As you go along the beautiful boulevards and avenues in the residence sections of a great city, doubtless you look at the magnificent homes of the rich and envy them their luxurious life.

Doubtless YOU, too, would like to live in a mansion, have many servants, costly automobiles and other comforts, conveniences and luxuries that vast wealth will provide.

But you are on the OUTSIDE. You can't look through the windows every day. You can't get behind the scenery and see the real life of the human beings who live there.

But behind the scenes, underneath the silk and broadcloth, are human beings who have all the human weaknesses of their prothers and sisters in the thickly-settled tenement districts where the poor are huddled together—all the hopes, fears, aspirations and human passions you will find wherever PEOPLE congregate.
